Distinguished Flying Cross.

Flight Lieutenant Christopher John SUGDEN (05813), Royal Australian Air Force, (No. 11 (Interceptor) Squadron.

Flight Lieutenant Sugden, Royal Australian Air Force, has been a member of No. 77 (Interceptor Fighter) Squadron, Korea, from November, 1952, until March, 1953. During this period, he has flown one hundred and two operational sorties against the enemy. On the morning of 16th March, 1953, Flight Lieutenant Sugden, as Officer Commanding "A" Flight, was personally responsible for the organisation and planning of a highly successful attack against a large Communist convoy in the rugged terrain in the Wonsan area. These raids, totalling thirty-four sorties, accounted for the destruction of one hundred and one troop-laden vehicles. This officer led a section of these aircraft and he himself left blazing thirteen trucks. Although his aircraft was hit by enemy fire in the starboard engine and port tail plane, he continued attacking until all his ammunition was expended. During this flight and many other combat missions, Flight Lieutenant Sugden has sought out and destroyed large quantities of enemy material. His skill in this regard is exceptional. He has displayed outstanding leadership, determination and courage throughout his tour, and by so doing has brought great credit on himself, the Royal Australian Air Force and the United Nations in Korea.
