HONOURS AND AWARDS

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD

St. James's Palace, London S.W.1.
22nd October 1963.

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased to give orders for the undermentioned award.

Awarded a Bar to the George Medal:

John Joseph Ryan, G.M., Detective Sergeant, 1st Class, Queensland Police Force.

An intoxicated man slashed his wrists with a sharp knife, following a domestic disturbance at his home. He then disappeared into the area behind the house. When the police and an ambulance reached the scene the injured man could not be found. Shortly after midnight he re-appeared and after taking a rifle from inside the house, fired a shot through the floor and went outside again. Ordering the police from his premises he fired another shot, before disappearing again amongst the shrubs in the back yard. In response to radio calls, Detective Sergeant Ryan and other police arrived at the house, the ground floor of which rests on tall piers. Hearing a movement under the house, Sergeant Ryan went towards the sound, and as he did so a shot was fired at him. In the darkness underneath the house he was unable to see the armed man, but he could hear him operating the mechanism of a repeating rifle. Under cover of a door Ryan attempted to reason with the man. The latter made repeated threats to kill the Sergeant and any other police who approached him. Another Detective Constable joined Ryan under the house, taking cover behind a nearby post. Eventually the armed man commenced to walk towards the police, holding the rifle in the firing position and pointed in their direction. Ryan rushed towards the man, who immediately fired a shot which narrowly missed the Sergeant. As the armed man worked frantically to reload the rifle, Ryan reached him and grasped the rifle barrel. The other Officer quickly joined him and after a desperate struggle, the man was disarmed and subdued. Detective Sergeant Ryan displayed courage of an extremely high order and exceptional devotion to duty in seeking out and, in dangerous circumstances, arresting a man who was known to be armed and who had threatened to kill any police who approached him.
