

to Almighty God for the long Continuance to Your Majesty of so great Prosperity; and that Your Majesty's generous and pious Designs may be crowned with being, under God, the chief Instrument of restoring and firmly settling the Rights, Liberties and Peace, of Europe.

The three following Addresses from the Counties of Denbigh, Merioneth, and Carnarvon, were presented to Her Majesty by the Hon. Lieutenant-General Cholmondeley; in the Absence of the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Cholmondeley, Lord Lieutenant of North Wales; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, &c. of the County of Denbigh.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Heaven has smiled on Your Majesty's Reign, and made it glorious by many surprising Victories and Successes; which Your faithful Subjects look upon as the Reward of Your Majesty's Piety and Zeal for the Maintenance and Security of the Church of England as by Law established.

The Union of Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland is a fresh Instance of Your Majesty's tender Regard to the Welfare and Happiness of all Your People: And that the same may fully answer Your Majesty's most gracious Intentions, and prove an universal and lasting Blessing to these Nations, is the sincere Wish and Prayer of Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

To Her most Excellent Majesty Queen ANNE, of Great Britain, France and Ireland.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Custos Rotularum, Deputy Lieutenants, and Justices of the Peace, of the County of Merioneth.

MAy it please Your most gracious Majesty, to permit Your obedient and dutiful Subjects, a small Remainder of Your ancient and loyal Britains, to approach Your Sacred Person with our most sincere and joyful Congratulations for the happy Union of Your Kingdoms of England and Scotland, in the Monarchy of Great Britain; whereby God hath crown'd the other eminent Successes with which he hath hitherto so remarkably bless'd and adorned Your glorious Reign.

May the like Successes ever attend all Your Councils and Undertakings: May You see all Your Subjects constantly united in dutiful Obedience and Loyalty to Your Majesty, and in affectionate Zeal for Your Person and Government; in Peace and Love among themselves, and in the Profession and Practice of that Holy Religion, and in the Communion of that Church of which Your Majesty is so great an Ornament, and, under God, the chief Support and Defender.

May Your own Kingdoms be blessed with perpetual Peace and Prosperity; and all Europe, by God's Blessing upon all Your Royal Enterprises, obtain an honourable, safe and lasting Peace.

To Her most Excellent Majesty Queen ANNE, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, &c. of the County of Carnarvon.

AS every Year adds to the Glory of Your Majesty's Reign, we cannot but repeat our Congratulation and Joy upon every new Instance of God's Favour and Blessing to Your Majesty and Your People; especially upon the late most seasonable and happy Union of Your Two Kingdoms, so successfully effected by Your most prudent and wise Councils and Conduct; whereby the Peace, Prosperity and Strength, of Your now truly powerful and glorious Kingdom of Great Britain is so much advanced; the Safety of Your Royal Person and Government, and the Succession in the Protestant Line, are, under God, so well secured. May God continually add to Your Majesty's Felicity and Glory.

May You still be victorious over all Your Enemies, and always reign and triumph in the Hearts and Affections of Your loyal Subjects, until, after the most long and prosperous Reign on Earth, You are translated to a much more glorious Kingdom in Heaven.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Burgeses, of Her Majesty's ancient Corporation of Northampton: Presented to Her Majesty by Francis Arundell Esq; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Chamberlain.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, being unwilling to omit any, take this Opportunity of assuring Your Majesty of our most real and sincere Affection, which upon all Occasions, and in all Times, we have shewed to Your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

We are highly sensible of the great Difficulties with which this great Work, the Union of Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, was attended; That they were such, that by the Wisdom and Policy of a whole Century, (even whilst the same Religion was by Law established in both Nations) were found insurmountable; but Your Majesty's Councils at home, like Your armies abroad, have no such Obstacles.

May all these great Advantages, by Your Majesty intended to both Kingdoms, be the happy Event of this wonderful Union; and may Your Majesty see these good Effects, while we long enjoy the Blessing of Your Majesty's most auspicious Reign; and may future Ages, having experienced these happy Consequences, find Reason to rejoice, as this now does; and with the like Acclamations and Joy for ever celebrate the Anniversary of its Commencement.

Given under our Common Seal this 12th Day of June, in the Sixth Year of Your Majesty's Reign, at a general Assembly in our Guildhall.

The humble Address of the Bayliffs and Citizens of the City of Litchfield: Presented to Her Majesty by Sir Henry Gough, one of their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects of Your ancient City and Corporation of Litchfield, do humbly presume to congratulate Your Majesty, that the Treaty of Union betwixt Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland (so long in vain attempted) has been at last completed in Your Majesty's most successful and happy Reign.

We do humbly assure Your Majesty, That we do most sincerely wish it may answer all those glorious Ends You propose or desire.

And that it may produce a lasting Peace to the whole Island a continual Increase of its Trade, Wealth and Power, and the firmest Security to the Protestant Religion, shall be our constant daily Prayers.

Dated under our Common Seal the 5th Day of June, 1707.

The following Addresses have also been presented to Her Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy, in and about the City of Lincoln.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please Your Majesty,

WE have already sincerely and heartily offer'd up our Thanks to God for the happy Union of Your Two Kingdoms; and we have great Reason to believe will be the Foundation of ever lasting Blessings to our selves and our Posterity; so we make it our Duty to return our publick Acknowledgments to Your Majesty for Your great Zeal in carrying on that good Work, and the Wisdom in the Management of it, whereby You have overcome Difficulties that were too hard for all Your Predecessors.

This Union is what has long been desired by those who love their Country and their Religion; and the result: Endeavour our Enemies to prevent it, may suffice to convince us how necessary it may be likely to contribute to the Establishment of it. A here we cannot but admire the Goodness of Your Majesty to the People, wherein You have exceeded the Example of that great Queen whom You profess to imitate, that You have not with Jealousy, too incident even to great Princes, left them in uncertainty what shall become of them when You are gone, but have been zealous to give them the present Satisfaction, so far as humane Means can do it, that there shall never be wanting any of Protestant Princes to preserve their Country in Peace, and their Religion in Purity to all Posterity.

We humbly beg Leave to assure Your Majesty, That as we always retain a very grateful Sense of this, and the many Blessings we enjoy under Your most auspicious Government, so we shall do what in us lies, that this happy Union of Your Kingdoms may have all the good Effects intended by Your Majesty, which Providence seems to design for us, if we be not unworthy our selves. We shall avoid all Heats and Animositities, Suspitions and Jealousies; and both preach and practise the Things that make for Peace, and a Union of Hearts and Affections among Your Subjects: But especially we shall offer up our daily Prayers to God, That He would be pleas'd still to watch over and preserve Your Sacred Person; that He would direct and bless in the great Work which You have yet upon Your Hands, for the Preservation of Your People, and the Rest of Europe; and that in His due time He would make Your Majesty and Your People happy together, in the secure Enjoyment of an honourable Peace.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgeses, Freemen, and other the Inhabitants of Your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Clidderow, in the County Palatine of Lancaster.

WE Your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg

Leave (Great Queen) to congratulate Your Majesty on the most happy and glorious Union of Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, completed by Your Majesty's most prudent Administration: A Work so often attempted by Your Majesty's Royal Predecessors, but by Divine Providence, after all Your Successes and Victories, reserved to add new Lustre to Your Reign, and immortalize the Glory of the first Queen of Great Britain. We therefore do with unfeigned Hearts assure Your Majesty, That as Your Majesty hath united us into One People, we will (as true Britains) venture our Lives and Fortunes in the Preservation of Your Majesty's Person, Your Crown and Dignity. In Testimony whereof, we have hereunto affixed our Common Seal, the 22d Day of May, Anno Domini 1707.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses, of Your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Beverly, in the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, being proud to take hold of all Opportunities to express our grateful Sense of Your Majesty's most prudent and just Government over us, beg Leave to congratulate Your Majesty upon Your happy Success in perfecting the long wish'd for Union betwixt England and Scotland: May Your Life be long, and Your Reign prosperous, by continuing to be as successful over Your Enemies, as You are beneficial towards Your Subjects. In Testimony whereof we have hereunto caused our Common Seal to be affixed, this 12th Day of June, Anno Dom. 1707.

All which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Turin, June 15. N. S. By Advices from the Valley d'Aost we are inform'd, That the Enemy lately appear'd before some of our Posts at the-Foor of the Little St. Bernard, as if they would have attacked them; but finding our Guards ready to receive them, thought fit to retire without attempting any thing: And by what we can learn from those Parts, they have laid aside all Designs upon that Valley. The Detachment for Naples, under the Command of Count Thaurin, is now pass'd by Rome: From whence we hear, That the Prince of Castiglione, whose Fiefs lie within 30 Miles of Naples, has taken Arms in Favour of King Charles III. and that several Partisans of the House of Austria begin to declare publicly for his Catholick Majesty. The 5th Instant in the Evening the Earl of Manchester; Her Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary to the Republick of Venice, arriv'd here from Vienna. His Excellency's Retinue not coming till the next Day in the Afternoon, he deferr'd acquainting this Court with his Arrival till that time, when he sent his Secretary to wait on the Marquis de St. Thomas, Secretary of State and First Minister to his Royal Highness, desiring to know when he might have the Honour to wait on his Royal Highness; who being gone to take the Air at the Venetian, the Secretary acquainted his Excellency in the Evening, That his Royal Highness desir'd to see him the next Morning; and had order'd him to offer his Excellency the Honours usually paid to Ambassadors; which his Excellency did in a very respectful Manner. The Marquis de St. Thomas had no sooner left his Excellency, but the Count de Sallier came to wait on him, by the Duke's Order, with the same Compliment which the Marquis had made before; which his Excellency return'd the same Answer. The 7th Instant in the Morning the Earl of Manchester had the Honour to see his Royal Highness in private, and was received with great Marks of Honour. At Night his Excellency had likewise the Honour to see the Dutchess Dowager and Dutchess Consort, and was received by both these Princesses, as well as by the whole Court, with particular Marks of Distinction.

The Emperor's Troops, and those of the Allies, which are to form the several Camps in Piedmont, have pass'd through our Neighbourhood, and will all be encamp'd to Day or to Morrow; after which it is believ'd his Royal Highness and Prince Eugene will soon take the Field. The Day of their Departure is not yet fix'd, but 'tis believ'd will be the 25th Instant. Prince Eugene arriv'd here on the 15th at Night from Milan, and has since had several Conferences with his Royal Highness relating to the Operations of the ensuing Campaign. His Royal Highness has receiv'd an Express from Oneglia with Letters from Admiral Shovell, dated the 6th Instant, N. S. at Sea, with an Account, That he was then sailing towards Final with Her Majesty's Fleet under his Command, where we question not but he is already arriv'd. The Hereditary Prince of Hesse-Cassel went Post from hence this Morning to join his Troops, which are encamp'd at Busca, near Coni, having sent his Equipage away Yesterday. The British Envoy, and all the Foreign Ministers residing in this Court, will attend his Royal Highness in the Field this Campaign.

Frankfurt, June 23. Our Army in Swabia has made a Movement, by which they are very advantageously encamp'd. The Camp is post'd upon a Rising Ground, and the Right behind a little River call'd the Leyn, which is not fordable in that Part. The whole Army is in a manner inaccessible, and there is no way to it but through unfrequented Woods and Valleys. In the Evening we have the River Kocker, and draw our Subistence from Elwangen, Dunkelspiel, and Nordlingen. The Generals Heister and d'Erbeville are arriv'd at the Army, where they are to be join'd very suddenly by the Danes out of Bavaria. The Commanding Officer of Schorndorf is very much surpris'd for having surrendred that Place so soon, when he had Orders to defend it to the last Extremity. At the first Approach of the Enemy he made an Appearance of putting a Garrison in a Posture of Defence; but as soon as he saw the Enemy's Approach, he deliver'd up the Town without any Capitulation. Our last Advices tell us, That on the 18th the Germaning certain of the Enemy's Motions. They have sent a Detachment over the Danube, to draw Contributions from the Countries on that side the River. We have Advice from Mayence, That the Troops which the Elector Palatine sends were to arrive this day within two Hours March of that City.

Paris, June 27. We hear the Duke of Savoy is perfectly recover'd of his Indisposition, and preparing with all diligence to set himself at the Head of his Troops, and enter upon Action. We are more than ever apprehensive of his intended Expedition, having receiv'd Advice that the Confederate Fleet is arriv'd at Final, with a Design to favour his Motions, and act in concert with him during the whole Campaign. Orders have been given to destroy all the Forage, and carry off every thing of Value into Places of Security, throughout Dauphiné and Provence; and we are inform'd, that the whole Country is already laid waste, and swept to clear of Cattle, Corn and Grais, that it looks as if it had undergone the Ravage of an Enemy. The Roads that lie among the Openings of the Rocks and Mountains are likewise broken and destroy'd as much as possible, and the natural Difficulties of the Ways very much increas'd, to render them impassable to great Bodies of Men or heavy Carriages. But at present we find all our Measures to prevent the Approaches or Support of the Enemy's Army insufficient, since we hear they have so great an Assistance at Sea to furnish them with necessary Supplies of Arms and Provision, and to transport what Numbers of Men or Quantities of Ammunition they have occasion for. This has already spread the Alarm over the whole Coast from Nice to Marféilles, and broken the Body of our Army into several Detachments, that are order'd to Garrison our Towns and Ports on the Mediterranean. Five Battalions are post'd at Nice, where there arriv'd lately 13 Companies of Catalans, who are since distributed into several Parts of Provence. The Garrison of Monaco has receiv'd a Reinforcement of 400 Men. At Antibes there are three Battalions, one of Chamberri, one of Bourbon, and one of Etan; and at Grace the Royal Regiment of Montferrier. There are four Companies at Frejuls, between which Place and Antibes the Militia are rais'd, and order'd to be in a readiness at the appearance of the Enemy's Fleet. It is said, a Camp of 8000 Men is likewise to be form'd at Ronnet, a little Village between Frejuls and Brignole, where they are preparing Magazines for that purpose. There are two or three Companies of Foot at Bonjanriere, and some others between Souliers and La Jette. At Toulon they are taking all imaginable Precautions both by Sea and Land, being under very great Apprehensions of so powerful an Army and Fleet, commanded by Generals and Admirals that have to often signalized themselves against France. Fourteen Gallies and Ten large Men of War are appointed to guard it on the Sea-side; at the same time that great Multitudes of Workmen are employ'd to fortifie it against an Attack by Land. Monsieur Langeron, and all the Marine Officers, have Orders to repair thither, and are gone Post accordingly. We have Advices, That there are fresh Commotions in the Cevennes; and that the Marshal de Tessé has order'd thither two Regiments to suppress them. That General sends frequent Expresses to Court, being very importunate for Succours. The Forces in Provence, Dauphiné, and Savoy, are at present computed at 35000 Men; but fresh Reinforcements are daily expected from the Army of the Marshal de Villars, which we fear may alter the Face of Affairs on that side. Letters from Spain advise, That the Duke of Orleans has cancell'd the Commissions of all the Magistrates of Valencia, and substituted others in their Places. King Philip, as a Mark of his Displeasure, has suppress'd the Viceroalty of Valencia; and referring only an Honorary Precedence to the Duke of Orleans, has given the Government of it to the Duke of Berwick, with the Title of Superintendent-General of Valencia, Arragon, and Catalonia, and an Annual Revenue of 50000 Crowns.

From the Duke of Marlborough's Camp at Meldert, June 30. Our Army and that of the Enemy are still in the same Camps; and on Tuesday our Left Wing made a general Forage towards St. Tron, as the Right Wing did Yesterday near Vos Capelle, without any Loss. Yesterday Count Fuenclade, Lieutenant-General of the King of Spain's Troops, arriv'd here, being sent by his Catholick Majesty from Barcelona the 4th of May last, to give his Grace the Duke of Marlborough an Account of the Posture of Affairs in those Parts; and has Orders to proceed through Holland to England on the same Subject. We have an Account from the French Army, That Four Battalions and Eight Squadrons of the Bavarian Troops are ordered to be in a readiness to march towards the Rhine, to join Monsieur de Villars.

Hague, July 1. N. S. Our last Letters from Paris say, the Marshal de Villars was to make a Detachment of 15 Battalions and 20 Squadrons for the Service in Savoy. Their Advices from the Marshal de Tessé of the 21st acquaint 'em, That the whole Army of the Duke of Savoy was assembled between Orbesian and Coni, from whence his Royal Highness had sent a Detachment towards Pignerol; but that the Marshal look'd on this only as a Feint to draw him out of his Intrenchments on the Borders of Provence, into which he suppos'd the Irruption was really intended. We are advis'd from the Upper Rhine, That Major-General Janus, who commanded a Body of 2000 Men near Gemund, had been attack'd by a superior Force of the Enemy, which oblig'd him to retire, the Loss being very near equal on each side; And that General Thungen having march'd out of Philipsbourg with a Body of 1000 Men, had surpris'd 600 French in Durlach.

Windsor,

Windsor, June 23. This Day the Rt. Rev. Jonathan Lord Bishop of Winchester was Sworn and Invested Prelate of the most Noble Order of the Garter, at a Chapter held in the Castle for that purpose, the Sovereign being present; and of the Knights Companions, his Royal Highness Prince George of Denmark, the Duke of Somerset, Duke of Northumberland, Earl of Rochester, Earl of Feversham, Duke of Ormonde, Duke of Devonshire, Duke of Queensberry, and the Earl Godolphin.
