CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD

St. James's Palace, London S.W.1.
25th January 1966.

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased to give orders for the following appointment to the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire:

To be an Additional Member of the Military Division of the said Most Excellent Order, for Gallantry:

Captain Simon Edward BARNETT (457100), Coldstream Guards.

On the evening of 20th March 1965, Number 3 Company 2nd Battalion Coldstream Guards were occupying a position near Ad Dimnah close to the Habilayn—Dhala Road in the Western Aden Protectorate. Captain Barnett commanded the Support Platoon (81mm Mortars and a Wombat) and was also acting as Second in Command of the Company. At about 1730 hours they came under mortar fire from a party of the enemy who were able to overlook them from the Shairi ridge. One mortar bomb landed on the parapet of one of his own mortar pits. It killed one of the crew instantly and the two others died of wounds an hour or so later.

The state of the pit was chaos. The dead man and the wounded were partly covered in sandbags, the mortar tube itself was broken, and a fire was burning. Captain Barnett was fully aware that among this shambles were a large number of high explosive and white phosphorous bombs which might go off at any moment. In fact there was phosphorous lying about loose.

Notwithstanding he had no hesitation in going straight in and remained working there until the wounded, the body and the bombs had been removed and the fire was out. At the same time he had ordered his own mortar to fire in the direction of where the enemy might be, which it did until a bomb got stuck in the barrel. When he discovered this and could not get it out he doubled across open ground to his Wombat with which he opened fire at probable enemy positions.

It is probable that his quick and courageous action saved an explosion which would have caused more casualties. It is certain that his courage was an inspiration to the rest of the Company, as it has been before and since during nine months of patrol action.

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD

St. James's Place, London S.W.1.
25th January 1966.

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased to approve the award of the British Empire Medal for Gallantry (Military Division) to the undermentioned:

22302200 Staff Sergeant Francis Cartwright PELL, Coldstream Guards.

On the evening of 20th March 1965, Number 3 Company, 2nd Battalion Coldstream Guards were occupying a position near the village of Ad Dimnah close to the Habilayn—Dhala Road in the Western Aden Protectorate. At about 1730 hours the Company came under accurate 81mm mortar fire from a party of insurgents who were able to overlook them from Shairi ridge. One mortar bomb landed on the parapet of one of the Company's own mortar pits. It killed one of the crew instantly and the two others died of wounds an hour or so later.

The mortar pit was in a state of chaos. There were sandbags which had covered the dead man and the wounded and a fire was burning. The pit contained a large quantity of live high explosive and white phosphorous bombs. Some of the latter were smouldering and there was clearly a considerable risk of a large explosion.

Staff Sergeant Pell, who had no particular call to do so rushed into this scene of devastation as soon as anyone was able to realise what had happened. At obvious risk to himself he and one or two others pulled out the wounded, then the dead man's body and finally buried the bombs. Whilst he was doing this his hands were covered in phosphorous from which they were still glowing six hours later.

Soon after this, when the mortar pit was cleared up by Staff Sergeant Pell, he crossed a stretch of open ground and manned the Company's Wombat and engaged the enemy with this until it was clear that the attack was over. He then helped to organise the Company's move to another area, and was amongst the last to leave the position. His courage and quick thinking were an example of the very highest standard to the rest of the Company.

22300132 Corporal (Acting Lance Sergeant) Austin CONNELL, Coldstream Guards.

On the night of the 10th/11th June 1965, Lance Sergeant Connell was second in command of a 19 man patrol found by Number 3 Company from Commando Camp, Dhala. Their task was to ambush a track, sometimes used by dissidents. During this night a major attack was made by the enemy on various targets in Dhala. The most closely pressed of these was upon the Emir's palace which was bombarded with Blinicied rockets at about 2200 hours.

Lance Sergeant Connell was in charge of half of the patrol whose original task was to cover the remainder who were ambushing the track. At about 2215 hours he saw first three, and then a lot more men walking across his front on another track some 150 yards away. He opened fire, but very soon found that his own force of eight men were under attack, and quickly outflanked by about twenty-five of the enemy. These men were armed with rifles at least one light machine gun and grenades. Lance Sergeant Connell was on the highest point of his position, and in the light of a full moon he was soon seen and became a target for the enemy. In spite of this he not only kept his section firing in a most spirited manner, but calmly called for mortar fire, which at one moment he brought down to no more than 50 yards from his own position. He continued to hold the position until his ammunition ran out, and even then stayed there, directing mortars, until he was ordered to withdraw. By this time four of his eight men had been wounded, the enemy had been close enough to throw grenades at them and he had had two bullets through his radio, on which he had been talking at the time. When the engagement appeared to be over he organised the care of the wounded, and was the last to leave after he had been ordered to do so. As a result of this action the names of five of the enemy were later given as killed and at least one more wounded.

Throughout the engagement Lance Sergeant Connell behaved with coolness and courage which was a fine example to his section.

23908582 Guardsman Colin Edward SNAPE, Coldstream Guards.

On the night of 10th/11th June 1965, Guardsman Snape was a member of a patrol in the Dhala area. The patrol was split into two, half to ambush a track, and the other half to give them cover. It was in this latter section that Guardsman Snape was. At about 2315 hours this section was attacked by what later turned out to be some 25 well equipped and organised enemy. Early in the engagement the General Purpose Machine Gun gunner was wounded. Guardsman Snape then took over the gun and quickly brought it back into action. In spite of his being under heavy fire, and the fact that two grenades exploded very near him, and in spite of bright moonlight he crawled forward with the gun to get a better shoot. By this time two more members of the patrol had been wounded and the enemy were within 30 yards. He went on firing until there was no more ammunition. He was then ordered back, but he made it his business to help in the evacuation of the wounded. Only when he returned to camp did he admit to having been hurt himself, and it was then soon found that he had been struck very hard on the head by some object.

His aggressive and fearless action was in the best traditions of the Regiment and an inspiration to his comrades.

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased to approve the undermentioned award for gallantry in Aden:

Military Cross

Lieutenant Joseph James SMITH (468118) The Middlesex Regiment (Duke of Cambridge's Own) Territorial Army (serving with The Royal Sussex Regiment).

On 6th July 1965, Lieutenant Smith, who was commanding the Piccadilly picquet, manned by 3 Platoon, A Company, 1 Royal Sussex led an ambush patrol towards the top of the steep rise known as Ludgate Hill.

The ambush was in fact sited to intercept dissidents moving along the track leading up from the Wadi Taim; however at 2120 hours a small party of dissidents were observed coming along the top of the escarpment past the ambush positions. Lieutenant Smith quietly redeployed his ambush and opened fire on the party of dissidents at a range of about 75 yards. Two of the dissidents were seen to fall whilst the remainder scattered and returned the fire of the patrol wounding one of its members.

Lieutenant Smith then called for Artillery fire on the path of retreat of the dissidents. He himself rendered first aid to the wounded soldier and withdrew his patrol to Piccadilly. He then ordered periodic harassing fire to be brought down on the area of the attack to prevent the dissidents recovering the bodies.

At 0630 hours the next morning he took his patrol back to the scene of the ambush where he recovered two dead Arabs. It subsequently transpired that four dissidents were killed and two wounded.

It is considered that Lieutenant Smith, a Territorial Army Emergency Reserve Officer, who had only recently joined his battalion displayed outstanding courage and skill in circumstances that would have tested a more experienced Officer.

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased to give orders for the publication of the names shown below as having received an expression of Commendation for Brave Conduct:

23546581 Private Terrence Frederick BAKER, Royal Army Medical Corps (attached to 24 Field Squadron Royal Engineers).

During an attack on the camp at Al Milah, Western Aden Protectorate by dissident tribesmen in which there were two fatal casualties, Private Baker assisting the Regimental Medical Officer displayed great devotion to duty, courage and complete disregard for his own safety, moving around the camp whilst under fire and giving medical assistance to the wounded.

Over a period of four months Private Baker has shown exceptional loyalty and example whilst performing the duties of Medical Orderly to the Unit single handed, which has earned the admiration and praise of his colleagues in the field.

Her Majesty The QUEEN has been graciously pleased to approve the award of the Military Medal for gallantry in Aden to the undermentioned:

Military Medal

22817334 Sergeant Peter Stanley GODDARD, Coldstream Guards.

On 1st December 1964, Sergeant Goddard was a Platoon Sergeant in Number 3 Company, 2nd Battalion Coldstream Guards when his platoon took part in an ambush in the Wadi Quatana, a mile or so from Blairs Field in the Wadi Taym, Radfan. His task was to command the forward section which was in the Wadi, covered by other men in the Platoon.

At about 3 p.m. he was organising the preparation of the defence of the position. He had two sentries out, and the remainder were working. At this moment the leading men of a party of some 20 insurgents stumbled into the position. Both sides immediately opened fire, and the section commander who was manning the General Purpose Machine Gun was soon very seriously wounded in the head.

With most notable coolness Sergeant Goddard first got his men into fire positions under cover and organised their fire effectively. He then took steps to ensure the safety of the wounded Non Commissioned Officer. Once he was satisfied that all was under control he moved under heavy fire, beyond the position where the General Purpose Machine Gun had been, as the weapon itself had rolled down a bank. Under heavy and accurate fire, some of which was coming from within less than 100 yards, he got to the General Purpose Machine Gun and brought it back. He then carried on the battle with the enemy, and with the gun in action again the immediate crisis was over. Soon afterwards he was ordered to withdraw, and his handling of this move, together with the recovery of the casualty was carried out quite faultlessly. The enemy suffered 4 killed and 2 wounded. By his resource and courage, he turned an ugly situation into a successful engagement.

Military Medal

23969503 Guardsman William NICHOLSON, Coldstream Guards.

On 1st December 1964, Guardsman Nicholson of Number 3 Company, 2nd Battalion Coldstream Guards was a member of a platoon ambush in the Wadi Quatana, a mile or so from Blairs Field in the Wadi Taym, Radfan. He was actually in the Wadi. In the early afternoon, whilst the ambush positions were still being dug, a party of some 20 insurgents attacked the position. The General Purpose Machine Gun gunner in Nicholson's section was immediately wounded in the arm. He was some twelve yards away. Nicholson, without receiving any orders to do so immediately ran across to the gun under a considerable rain of shots. When he got there he found that he had hardly any cover from the position the enemy were in. However, undaunted, and with bullets striking all around him he got the General Purpose Machine Gun into action on his own, located the enemy and fired back. For over 10 minutes he was the target of aimed enemy fire from close range. But in the end it was he who won the fire fight and the enemy stopped.

It became known later that in this action the insurgents lost 4 killed and 2 badly wounded. Two members of the platoon were wounded and but for Nicholson's very courageous action the weight of casualties would certainly have gone against the platoon.

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased to give orders for the publication of the names shown below as having received an expression of Commendation for Brave Conduct:

2/Lieutenant Robin John Stuart WARDLE (476077), Coldstream Guards.

For his determination, fearless conduct and courage whilst successfully engaging some 20 dissidents which attacked a section of his Platoon in the Wadi Quatana in the Western Aden Protectorate. During some 40 or more patrols, some of which came under aimed and observed fire, his quick reactions and fortitude have saved casualties and frustrated the enemy.

22305199 Sergeant Denis John FOGARTY, Coldstream Guards.

The camp and picquets occupied by Number 1 Company, 2nd Battalion, Coldstream Guards at Mukeiras in the Western Aden Protectorate were attacked from four different positions by dissidents armed with mortars, light machine guns, rifles and blindicides. The picquet was hit severely wounding the N.C.O. in Command and a Guardsman, another Guardsman was killed. Sergeant Fogarty had the body and the two injured men returned to the main camp, and took immediate control of the picquet, reorganised the defences and directed mortar fire on further dissident groups.

His prompt action undoubtedly saved the life of the wounded N.C.O., and his determination and courage restored the confidence and moral of the survivors of the picquet.

23493702 Corporal (Acting Sergeant) Eric Charles HILLING, Coldstream Guards.

As the Assault Pioneer Sergeant of the 2nd Battalion Coldstream Guards, Sergeant Hilling has carried out over one hundred mine clearing patrols in the Western Aden Protectorate and has dealt with a variety of explosives. By his zeal, infinite courage and disregard for his own safety he has undoubtedly saved many lives.

25th January 1966.
