SCHEDULE

Guildford

The Area in Guildford commences at the east end of the upper High Street opposite the junction with Alexandra Terrace. Extending westwards, approximately midway between the High Street and Sydenham Road, the boundary encloses the Royal Grammar School and buildings fronting onto Trinity Churchyard but excludes the Multi-Storey Car Park. The boundary includes buildings fronting Castle Square and then continues eastwards along South Hill and Warwicks Bench to enclose Racks Close and join Quarry Street by a house known as Quarry Gate. The boundary then runs northwards via Quarry Street and Millbrook to rejoin the High Street opposite Friary Street. Nos. 25-29 High Street on the western corner of Friary Street are included with the line cutting back through the new Friary precinct development to include all the properties on the south side of North Street and between it and High Street. The line runs northwards along Chertsey Street as far as the junction with Martyr Road (deviating to include Nos. 13-25 Chertsey Street) and then returns southwards along the western boundary of the Grammar School then eastwards to include the Municipal House and Municipal Offices. Continuing eastward along the north side of the High Street it includes part of the White Horse Hotel and completes the boundary opposite Alexandra Terrace.

St. Catherine's Village

The Area at St. Catherine's Village which extends into the Guildford Rural District lies between the River Wey and properties on the west side of Portsmouth Road. Langton Priory is at the north-east corner of the area. The boundary then runs southwards along the eastern bank of the River Wey until it turns west to cross and follow the west side of the railway cutting and embankment southwards as far as Little Artington Farm. It then runs northwards along the Portsmouth Road for approximately 180 yards before turning west and then north again to enclose part of the grounds of St. Catherine's House. Continuing northwards it runs roughly parallel to the Portsmouth Road as far as Artington House and the southern part of the grounds of Guilddown House where it swings east again to complete the boundary along the River Wey. A small secondary area to the west includes Piccards Manor and its associated grounds and barns lying between Chestnut Avenue and Sandy Lane.

Chertsey

The proposed area is based on the junction of Windsor, London and Guildford Streets with Church Walk and generally extends for the depth of one property behind the frontage to these streets. Commencing in the east there is an extension of the area into Bridge Street to include Grove Cottage off Willow Walk. The boundary extends southwards along Guildford Street to include Steven's Bridge and westwards along Windsor Street to include a house on the south side known as The Cedars. Returning on the north side of Windsor Street the boundary encloses St. Peter's Churchyard and then turns northwards along Church Walk to include Abbey Green returning to London Street to rejoin the boundary at Grove Cottage off Bridge Street.
