23rd December 1971.

Pursuant to section 275 (5) of the Customs and Excise Act, 1952 and paragraph 1 of the 7th Schedule thereto, the Commissioners of Customs and Excise hereby give you notice that by virtue of the powers contained in the customs and excise Acts and enactments amending those Acts, certain goods, namely one Gibson four string bass guitar and case, one set of Fender guitar strings, one set of Mona steel guitar strings and six Hambucking pick-ups imported by Rory Rye at London Airport on 26th January 1971, have been seized as liable to forfeiture upon the grounds that the said guitar and case were goods in relation to which the said Rory Rye knowingly made a statement in answer to a question put to him by an officer, which he was required under section 6 of the Finance Act, 1968, to answer, which was untrue in a material particular in that he falsely stated that the goods were his own personal property and would go back with him; and the remainder of the said goods were packed and found in the said guitar case.

Whereby and by force of sections 277 and 301 of the Customs and Excise Act, 1952, the said goods are liable to forfeiture.

If you claim that the said goods are not liable to forfeiture you must within one month from the date of this notice of seizure give notice of your claim in accordance with the said Schedule to the said Act specifying the name and address of a Solicitor in the United Kingdom who is authorised to accept service of process and to act on your behalf. In default of such notice the said goods will be deemed to have been duly condemned as forfeited and will be liable to be disposed of in such manner as the Commissioners of Customs and Excise may direct. If you make such claim within the time aforesaid, legal proceedings will be taken for the condemnation thereof.

Robert John Snuggs, Officer of Customs and Excise, H.M. Customs and Excise, Terminal 3, London (Heathrow) Airport, Hounslow, Middlesex.
