SOUTHAMPTON CITY COUNCIL

BITTERNE TRAFFIC SCHEME

City of Southampton (Bullar Road Gyratory System) (Prohibition of Right-Hand Turns and Left-Hand Turns) Order 1972

Notice is hereby given that on the 23rd June 1972, the Council of the City of Southampton made this Order under Section 1 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1967, as amended by Part IX of the Transport Act 1968, because under the Bitterne Traffic Management Scheme parts of the Bullar Road gyratory system are to be altered.

That part of Bitterne Road in the gyratory system is to be made two-way so that it will be possible to drive from the railway bridge approach straight up Lances Hill. The part of Bullar Road in the gyratory system is to be made two-way, but only for traffic going straight across into Athelstan Road. Otherwise, existing arrangements continue as at present. As a result of these parts of Bitterne Road and Bullar Road being made two-way, certain turning movements which would otherwise be possible are now to be banned. These restrictions are required to make the best use of road capacity without major road widening. The Order will come into operation concurrently with linked traffic lights which have been installed to control the junctions of Athelstan Road, Bullar Road and Cobbett Road with Bitterne Road, which will replace the pedestrian zebra crossing formerly outside 184 Bitterne Road. The banned traffic movements are listed in the Schedule to this notice.

This Order will come into operation on the 27th June 1972. A copy of the Order, and a map showing the effect thereof may be inspected at my Office between the hours of 8.30 a.m. and 1 p.m. and 2 p.m. and 4.30 p.m. Mondays to Fridays.

If you wish to question the validity of this Order, or of any provision contained in it on the grounds that it is not within the powers conferred by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1967, as amended by Part IX of the Transport Act, 1968, or on the grounds that any requirement of that Act or of any instrument made under it has not been complied with in relation to the Order, you may, within six weeks from the 23rd June 1972 apply to the High Court for this purpose.
