HONOURS AND AWARDS

Government House,
Suva
14th February 1980

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased, on the advice of Her Majesty's Fiji Ministers, to approve the award of the Military Medal in recognition of services with the Fiji Infantry Regiment serving in the Lebanon as part of the United Nations Peace-keeping Force.

(To be dated 31st December 1979)

Military Medal

Sergeant Sikaba Nabalai SUWAI (21391), Fiji Infantry Regiment.

On 16th August 1979 Sergeant Suwai was in command of 5 Platoon, B Company, 1st Battalion, Fiji Infantry Regiment. His platoon was occupying a check point in the area of Aitit, South Lebanon. A group of six soldiers had recently left the check point on a physical training run. At 9 a.m. shots were heard coming from the direction the party had taken. The firing was of such intensity that Sgt. Suwai immediately calculated that the group of runners was in trouble. He assembled five other soldiers and a vehicle and rushed towards the area of the shooting. The area was entirely open and dominated by a hill from which the fire was coming. One soldier was lying beside the road critically wounded while the remainder of the group were using what cover was available and returning fire. Sgt. Suwai took immediate command and from a position completely exposed to the hostile fire, directed the evacuation of the wounded soldier. At the same time he skilfully directed the fire of the group at the enemy so the possibility of further casualties was minimized.

Sergeant Suwai appreciated the most effective way to extricate his group from the direct enemy fire was to attack the enemy's position. This involved an assault up a steep slope devoid of cover and with minimum protection. Demonstrating considerable aggression and command skill, Sgt. Suwai led the assault under continuous fire from the hilltop. This objective was secured without further casualties demonstrating the skill with which it was controlled.

The enemy retreated from the hill and commenced firing at the group from a further position in a nearby wadi. Once again Sgt. Suwai ordered this objective assaulted, leading and directing the attack personally. As a direct result of Sgt. Suwai's initiative, courage and decisive leadership four hostile armed elements were captured with their weapons. That further casualties were avoided is further testimony of the skill and daring demonstrated by Sergeant Suwai whose actions accorded with the highest infantry traditions.

BIRMINGHAM CITY DISTRICT COUNCIL

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACTS, 1971-194

Designation of Key Hill Conservation Area, and Jewellery Quarter Conservation Area, Nos. 17 and 18.

Notice is hereby given that Birmingham District Council as Local Planning Authority, hereby give notice that an area of approximately 38 acres, in the Jewellery Quarter, bounded by Great Hampton Street, Hockley Hill, Icknield Street, Warstone Lane, Vyse Street, and Hockley Street, and an area of approximately 25 acres bounded by Warstone Lane, Vittoria Street, George Street, Newhall Hill, and back of Legge Lane and Tenby Street, have been designated as Conservation Areas.

The reason for the said designation is that the areas are considered to be areas of special architectural interest and it is considered that it is expedient that all the properties within the said areas should be the subject of demolition control.

The effect of such designation is that all buildings within the Key Hill Conservation Area and Jewellery Quarter Conservation Area are protected from demolition unless approval for such demolition has previously been given by the Local Planning Authority.

In addition any proposals for alterations to the buildings within the Conservation Areas will be carefully considered in order to ensure that the character and appearance of the Conservation Areas is retained.

Plans showing the extent of the Key Hill Conservation Area, and the Jewellery Quarter Conservation Area are available for public inspection at the offices of the City Planning Officer, 120 Edmund Street, Birmingham, between the hours of 0900 hours and 1700 hours, Monday to Thursday and between 0900 hours and 1600 hours on Friday.
