Vienna, Aug. 29. N. S. The Empress-Regent has receiv'd Advice by an Express from the Elector Palatin, That his Electoral Highness is preparing to set out for Frankfort, in order to assist at the Election of an Emperor. Yesterday being the Anniversary of the Queen of Spain's Birth, Her Imperial Majesty receiv'd the Compliments of the Foreign Ministers, and the chief of the Nobility on that Occasion. Orders have been given for the sending two Regiments of Dragoons, and some Foot out of Hungary into Bavaria; where they are to be in a readiness to march to the Upper-Rhine, in order to reinforce the Army under the Prince of Savoy, if there shall be occasion. Count Weltzeck, Envoy from the late Emperor to the Czar of Muscovy, having been here about a Month by leave from the Empress-Regent, on his private Affairs, is order'd to return to the Court of his Czarish Majesty, and is preparing to leave this Place accordingly.

Frankfort, Sept. 6. N. S. The Elector of Mayence has receiv'd several Letters from the Marschal d' Harcourt, written by that General in behalf of the late Electors of Bavaria and Cologne; to which his Electoral Highness has been pleas'd to return no Answer. Notwithstanding which, we are assur'd, a Motion was made in the Assembly on Monday last, for the Admission of Plenipotentiaries from those two Princes; but that the same was almost universally rejected. The Third Instant, the Hereditary Prince of Saxony, who is still here, was magnificently entertain'd at Dinner by the Elector of Mayence. To Morrow the Fair, which is Annually kept in this City, will be opened with the usual Formalities. The Army under the Command of the Prince of Savoy, pass'd the Rhine at Philipsburg on the Thirtieth of the last Month; since which they have continued encamp'd near Spire, where the Prince has his Headquarters. We hear the French have recall'd all their Parties, and that their whole Army is post'd at present behind their Lines at Lauterberg.

Windsor, Sept. 10. Her Majesty has been pleas'd to Create his Grace James Duke of Hamilton a Baron and Duke of the Kingdom of Great Britain, by the Name, Style and Title of Baron of Dutton in the County of Chester, and Duke of Brandon in the County of Suffolk.

Her Majesty has been pleas'd to appoint the Right Honourable Henry Earl of Rochester to be Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Cornwall.
