Ers are Letters from Vice Chancellor Scha the faid Vice-Chancellor was going to Constantino-ple, in hopes to prevail with the Sultan to hasten the departure of his Suedish Majesty; and that he N. S. The Danish and Saxon Army decamped from returning homewards. Here has been great Feasting, Bonfires, and discharge of Artillery, for several Days together, upon the account of the Marriage of the Hereditary Prince of Muscovy with the Princess Charlotte Sophia, Daughter of Duke Lewis of Wolfenbuttel and Grand-daughter of the Duke Regent of Wolfenbuttel, and Sifter to the Lin press row re gn g.

Hamburg, jan. 19. N. S. Our last Letters from Pomerania, which came hither on the Fifteenth, fay, that the T wn of Rostock would be charg'd this Winter wi h the Maintaining of Three thoufand Danes, and a Magazine would be establish'd there for the Subfistance of the Troops which are to remain in Mecklenburg; and, that the King of Poland had demanded an Hundred and fifty thousand Crowns from the Towns of Ancklam and Gripfwald. But the Baron de Kniphauser, in the Name of his Master the King of Prussia, had made pressing Instances to the King of Denmark, that he would not take up his Winter-Quarters in those Countries. Upon the Nineteenth of this Month, the two Kings of Denmark and Poland took their Leave of each other, and the former was on his Journey to Guftrow. Four thousand Men are to remain before Wismar, and the rest are to take their Quarters in Holstein. The Pass of Dan garten has been demolish'd by Order of the King of Denmark; and all the Bridges broken down between that and Tribbeses. We have fince had fresher Advices, that the Army of the King of Denmark encamp'd the Tenth of this Instant at Schwain, with in three Leagues of Rostock; and upon the Sixteenth it was expected near Wif-mar, from whence they are to purfue their March to Holstein; and, ac ording to the Disposition of them that is said to be already made, the Foot are to have their Winter Quarters from Rendesbourg to the Leffer Belt. The Ministers of Great Britain, Holland, Prussia, and Hanover, upon the Fifteenth were arrived at Gu trow, where his Dapish Maj stv was expected the next day, from whence he was intended Journey for Utrecht. Count Singerling, to proceed to Swerin, and thence to Rendsbourg; who is arriv'd here, being nominated as the third but it was not yet refo v d whether his Majetry Plenipotentiary to affift on the part of the Emperor, would refide th's Winter at Coldinguen, or would at the General Treaty of Peace, being upon the strow, that fifteen Transport Vessels loaden with Men and Ammunition of War, were lately arriv'd phiroff, dated from Adrianople the Twenty at Wismar, from the Isle of Rugen. The Elector feventh of November, giving Advice, that of Hannover has given Permission for all Sorts of the King of Sweden was still at Bender, being un-willing to leave the Turkish Territories; but that the remaining to leave the Turkish Territories to the Conference of the Merchands and the same has been rotify d to the Sente had receiv'd Affurances of its being accomplish'd, before Stralfund upon the eventh of this Month, as foon as Afoph, and the adjacent Forts, were evaluated and deliver'd up to the Turkish Forces; their Baracks and Forage which give Occasion to and after that Schaphiroff himself in expectation of the Town about an Hour afterwards, to make a Sally with the greatest part of their Cavalry, and fall up-on their Rear; but finding that all things were rightly disposed, they retir'd back after some light Skirm shes. The Army encampd that Night near Reinichen, within two Leagues of Stralfund, where the Saxon and Muscovite Troops separated themselves from the Danish Army, which pursu d its March, at came upon the Twelfth, within two Leagues of Ro flock, where it will remain until the Fifteenth Inflant. The Saxon and Muscovite Troops cont une in their Posts about Strassand, and it is fid, they design to ke p them all this Winter.

Berlin, January 16. N. S. The King of Poland pass'd by this Place on Thursday last Incognito, with Count Lagnato; but has left General Fleming behind him whom he lately promoted to the Dignity of Velt Marshal: This General has had frequent Conferences with Marshell Kamke, his frequent Conferences with Monfieu Kamke, his Prussian Majesty's Privy Counsellor, concerning the Subfishence of the Saxon and Muscovite Troops which remain in Fomerania.

Hanover, January 19. N.S. The King of Denmark has fent a Colonel hither, no request a Passage for his Army through the Country of Saxe Lawenburg; which was granted by his Electoral Highness; and the Colonel is gone hence with Orders for the Danish Army that were to be Quarter'd in Holstein, Jutland, and other Places belonging to the King of Denmark's Territories.

Hague, Jan. 26. N.S. The latest Advices from Constantinople import, that a Divan had been affembled there, to confider what was most proper to be done in favour of his Suedish Majesty: They likewife add, that upon the Twenty-fourth of November last, Mehemet Bacha, the Grand Vizir, was Depos'd at Adrianople, and was afterwards carried Priloner to the Seven Towers. Monfieur de Mourmont, one of the Plenipotentiaries of the States who was chosen by the Province of Friseland, is at prefent very much indisposed, which has hinder'd his would rende in swinter at Coldinguen, or would at the General Treaty of Peace, being upon the pass over to Copenhagen. The Ambassador of the Road hither, receiv'd an Express from the Emperor, Czar of Muscovy has assured the K. of enmark that with a Relation of the Raising the Siege of Cardona, his Master will, in a little time, pay him the Sum of and the Advantage which the Troops of the Allies Eight hundred thousand Roubles, and that he would had over the Enemy, which is agreeable, in all Paradvance more Mory towards resitting the Danish ticulars, with the Accounts that have been heretogete, so that it might be in a readiness to Act very fore given of that Action.
