Dresden, January 15. N. S.

THE King of Poland came hither this Morning, accompanied by the Count de Lagnasco, in the same Chaise, and one single Page that attended his Majesty on Horseback: The Thaw surpriz'd the rest of his Retinue, who were upon the Road from Berlin, so that their Sledges were render'd useless, and they are detain'd till the Arrival of Coaches to pursue the rest of their Journey. Count Fleming designs to stay some few Days longer at the Court of Berlin. Mr. Scott, Envoy from Her Majesty of Great Britain to King Augustus, is arriv'd here.

Dresden, January 19. N. S. The Bishop of Cujava has fully adjust'd the Differences that have continued a great while between the Great-General and the Under-General of Poland, and they have been publicly Reconcil'd in the Presence of many of the Nobility. We have Advice from Muscovy, that the General Sienieki, formerly Great Master of the Artillery of Lithuania, and afterwards taken Prisoner by the Czar, and sent into Siberia, died there on the Twentieth of November last. His Czars Majesty has sent Orders to his Ministers at Moscow, to attend him at Riga, where a Council is to be held about some important Affairs. The Hereditary Prince and Princess of Muscovy are still at Thorn, on the Vistula, and it is said, they design to pass the Winter in that City. The Muscovite Prince Dalgorouchi is now at Dresden, and desires speedily to set out for Carolsbad, to take the Benefit of those Baths for the Recovery of his Health. Upon Sunday last Mr. Scott, Envoy from Her Majesty of Great Britain, had his first private Audience of the King of Poland. His Polish Majesty, before he left the Army in Pomerania, declar'd Count Fleming, Velt-Marshal of his Saxon Troops, and has order'd Count Wackerbath to return to Vienna in the Quality of his Envoy to the Imperial Court. Letters from Lemberg in Poland, confirm that the Grand Vizier is degraded, and that the Aga of the Janizaries is made Grand Vizier for a time, and Messieurs Schappirov and Schermettow, the Muscovite Hostages, are committed to the Seven Towers. These Letters say likewise, that the Sultan, for Reasons not yet made Publick, was much dissatisfy'd with the Tartar Cham; and, that without the powerful and frequent Instances that had been made in his Favour, that Prince would have been taken into Custody. It is said, that the Muscovites upon the Occasion of the Absence of the Cham of Tartary, had made an Incurfion into the Czerkasy, and their Calmucks into the Crim Tartary, where they had laid waste great Tracts of those Countries, and carried off many of the Inhabitants, with a considerable Booty. The Hospodar of Moldavia, has taken a Turkish General Officer and two Captains of that Nation into Custody, and sent them Prisoners to Constantinople; but it was not yet known upon what Account.

Hamburg, January 19. N. S. The Muscovite Troops which were encamp'd about Dantzick are advanc'd even to the Works and Ditches of the Town, which has caus'd so great a Consternation in the Inhabitants and Burgeses, that they all put themselves under Arms, and mounted the Posts assigned them by their Officers on the Ramparts, being universally resolv'd to endure the utmost Extremity, rather than agree to the Payment of seven hundred thousand Crowns, which the Muscovites pretend to demand of them. His Imperial Majesty has declar'd Prince Ernest de Bevem, Cousin-German to the Empress-Regent, to be Velt Marshal and Governor of Silesia. According to the last Advices from Moldavia, the King of Sweden remain'd still at Bender, without any Mention being made of his Majesty's Departure for his own Kingdom. The General Monsieur d'Urbanowitz was upon his Return from Bender, to the Troops which are posted on the Frontiers, and had receiv'd a large Sum of Money to be distributed among them, according to the Orders of his Suedish Majesty. We have Letters likewise from Dantzick which tell us, that Monsieur the Great Treasurer Prebendow had received an Express from the Great General of the Crown, of the Thirtieth past, importing, that the Grand Vizier had been been carried Prisoner to Aleppo, his Palace being pillag'd, and all his Effects given to the King of Sweden towards the Payment of his Troops; and, that upon the Arrival of the Cham of Tartary, which was daily expected at Constantinople, it was fear'd a new Rupture would be made between the Ottoman Port and the Czar of Muscovy.

Dublin Castle, January 29. Lieutenant-General Ingoldsby, one of Her Majesty's Lords Justices of the Kingdom of Ireland, and Master of the Ordnance there, died at Eight of the Clock this Night, being taken very ill last Thursday of a Quinfy and Fever, and is very much Lamented.

Falmouth, January 31. On the Twenty-eighth Sail'd the Expedition Pacquet-Boat for Lisbon, Capt. Clyes Commander; the St. John of Amsterdam for the Streights, with Fish, and the Transitory of and from this Place, Michael Terpin Master, for the Canaries.

Whereas a Letter signed N. J. was left on Friday Night last at the House of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, dated Friday seven of the Clock in the Afternoon, 1711-12; This is to give Notice, that if the Person who wrote the said Letter will come to the Secretary of State to whom it was directed, and make out what is therein mentioned, he shall not only be Protected, but receive all possible Encouragement and Reward.

This is to give Notice, that the Edgley Gally will be ready to Sail from Bristol to New York, on the 10th of this instant February, Wind and Weather permitting, with the Mails of Letters for Her Majesty's several Dominions on the Continent of America; and that Thursday the 7th of this instant February, will be the last Day for receiving Letters at the General Post-Office, to be sent to the Continent by the said Vessel.

*On Thursday the 14th of this instant February will be expos'd to Sale, by the Candle, in the Long-Room in the Custom-House, London, Sugar, Cotton, Ginger, &c. from Barbadoes and the Leeward Islands.
Note, the said Goods may be view'd at Wiggan's Key, on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, before the Sale.*

Estate in Castle-yard, in the Parish of St. Andrew Holborn, London, to a Person unknown, by the Name of his natural Son William Freeman, an Infant then at Nurse. And whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery Mr. Gery, one of the Masters of that Court, is directed to enquire what is become of the said Child, and whether he be living or not: Now this is to give Notice, that the Mother of such Child is forthwith desir'd to produce him if living, before the said Master: And that if any one will discover the said Mother and Child, and their Place of Abode, or any thing material relating thereto, they shall be well rewarded for their pains, by Mr. John Slater, Attorney at Law in Duck's Court, near Chancery lane.

Whereas Thomas Herring, a Cooper, who liv'd without the West-Gate of the City of Exon, dy'd lately Intestate, leaving a Wife and two Daughters, call'd Susanna and Sarah, Susanna Marry'd with one Abraham Wivell, who was born at Lewannicke, in the County of Cornwall, and serv'd his Apprenticeship with Mr John Wyone a Hotpreffer, living in Exe-Island, without the said Westgate of the said City of Exon. And whereas the said Abraham Wivell liv'd some time with his said Wife Susanna, without the said Westgate, and us'd the Trade of a Hotpreffer there, and about 5 Years since went from his said Wife and Habitation to the City of Bristol, and us'd his said Trade there, and about 6 Months last past, went from thence to the City of London to live; since which time his Friends have not heard of him: These are to let him know, that the said Thomas Herring's Estate is come to his Widow and said 2 Daughters, and the Share of the said Susanna (the said Abraham Wivell's Wife) is worth his looking after; and he is hereby desir'd to return to the said City of Exon, and take care of the Part and Share of the said Susanna his Wife, the same now belonging to him in right of his said Wife.
