Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 28. to Tuesday July 1. 1712.

St. James's, June 27.

THIS Day the following Address from the City and Liberty of Westminster, sign'd by many Thousand Hands, was presented to Her Majesty by Thomas Medycott and Thomas Cross, Esquires, their Representatives in Parliament, accompanied by the Burgesses and Assistants, and many other Inhabitants of the said City and Liberty, being introduced by his Grace John Duke of Buckingham, Lord President of Her Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Council, Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Middlesex, and Custos Rotularum of the said County and City of Westminster.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Steward, High-Bailiff, High Burgesses, Burgesses and Assistants, and other Inhabitants of Your Majesty's ancient City and Liberty of Westminster.

May it please Your Majesty,

TO permit Your most Dutiful and Loyal Subject to approach You, with Hearts full of Joy and Gratitude, for that particular Concern which Your Majesty has been pleased to Express for the true Interest of Your own People, and for Communicating to Your Parliament those advantageous Terms upon which a General Peace may be made.

Your Majesty has done every thing that could be expected from a Wise and Gracious Prince, for the Improving our Trade, and for Securing our Laws and Religion, during Your own Reign; and that these Blessings may be perpetuated to all future Ages, You have made yet further Provisions for assuring the Protestant Succession in the House of Hanover: So that we can no longer apprehend the least Danger from the Efforts of any, who may pretend to disturb that happy Settlement which hath so firm an Establishment in the Laws of the Land, in the Affections of Your People, and (which is its greatest Security) in the Heart of Your Majesty.

As we have all imaginable Reason to be satisfied with these Instances of Your Majesty's Care, and of the Fidelity of Your Ministers, so we hope speedily to enjoy the happy Effects of both in a lasting Peace; notwithstanding all the unreasonable Opposition that has been made to it, by some Abroad, encouraged by a Faction here at Home.

We Your Majesty's most Obedient Subjects of this City have felt more than our Share of the unequal Burthen of the War; but Your Majesty has happily interposed for our Relief, which makes us willing to forget all we have hitherto paid and suffered in a Prospect of a Glorious and (we are sure) very Necessary Peace.

The Enlargement of Trade, and the several Important Places yielded to Your Majesty by this Treaty, give us reasonable Hopes of some Amends for all our Losses, and Promise such an Affluence of Wealth as may bear a proportion to the vast Effusion of Treasure, which has been the natural Consequence of a War so extensive in all its Parts.

For the Completion of all our Wishes, we have nothing further to Pray for but length of Days, to Your Majesty; so shall we joyfully reap the Fruits of a long-wish'd for Peace, and see that great Blessing doubled to these Nations, by the Continuance of Your Majesty's prosperous and gentle Reign over us.

The following Address from the Borough of Maldon, was presented to Her Majesty by William Fytche, Esq; one of the Bailiffs, John Comyns Serjeant at Law, Recorder, and one of their Representatives, and Thomas Bramston, Esq; the other Representative in Parliament, accompanied with Sir Robert Abdy, Baronet, and other Freemen of that Corporation, being introduced by the most Honourable Robert, Earl of Oxford, and Earl Mortimer, Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Steward, Bailiffs, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Commonalty of Your Antient Borough of Maldon in the County of Sussex.

Madam,

THE great Things You are doing for all Europe, by endeavouring to procure for them the greatest of Blessings, That of Peace, and the particular Care You therein take of Your own Kingdoms, by providing an additional Security for the Succession in the House of Hanover, and by obtaining for them vast Advantages in point of Trade.

The Wisdom, Courage and Steadiness; with which Your Affairs are managed, the Resolution, Constancy and Fidelity of those who have the Honour to be employed under You, by which the greatest Difficulties are surmounted, though opposed with the utmost Industry and Art, must needs fill the Hearts of all Your faithful Subjects, with the firmest Duty, Loyalty and Affection, and all others, to whom You are a common Benefactor and Protector, with a just Sense of Gratitude.

We assure Your Majesty, none more heartily rejoice in what may tend to Your Glory, and the good and Honour of our Country, or more sincerely hope You will speedily finish, what by Your wise Counsels You have so happily began.

The following Address from the Borough of St. Albans, was presented to Her Majesty by John Gape, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Most Honourable the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Principal Burgesses and Inhabitants of Your Majesty's Ancient Borough of St. Albans.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE beg leave to lay before Your Majesty our Loyal and Joyful Acknowledgements of Your Glorious Endeavours, for obtaining a General Peace, and Your gracious Condescension in communicating to Your People, the Terms upon which it may be made.

That effectual Care which Your Majesty has taken of establishing a real Balance of Power in Europe, and of advancing the Happiness and Liberty of Your own People, will, we trust, for ever extinguish the hopes of the distressed, whose Interest alone, makes them delight in War

War Abroad, and whose Principles stir them up to Faction and endless Sedition at Home.

May Your Majesty soon perfect what You have so Gloriously carried on; that the Blood and Expensiveness of a destructive War, may soon be recompens'd by the Blessings of Peace; that the Wealth and Honour of Kingdoms may be retriev'd by the enlargement and security of the British Commerce; and our Constitution in Church and State effectually Established, by securing the Protestant Succession in the illustrious House of Hanover.

When Your Majesty has long enjoyed the Felicities of Peace on Earth, may You late be advanced to that Kingdom, where only it flourishes, without Envy or Interruption; and for the Benefit of remote Posterity, may You transmit it to the Crown to the Inheritance, and Your Gracious Government to the Limits of those who are by Law appointed to succeed You.

The humble Address from the City of Canterbury was presented by the Mayor, Recorder and Chamberlain of the said City, together with their Representatives in Parliament, and several other Gentlemen, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, Common Council, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the City of Canterbury.

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, whose humble Addresses of Thanks and Congratulation upon the glorious Successes of Your Majesty's Arms, and the great Blessings we have enjoy'd since Your happy Accession to the Crown, have been graciously accepted by Your Majesty, notwithstanding their Unworthiness, humbly beg leave at this Time, not only to return our most humble and hearty Thanks for all those Your Royal Favours, but also for Your great Condescension in communicating to Your People, by Your late Speech from the Throne, the Terms on which a happy Peace may now be made. Our Hearts are filled with Joy, when we consider that those Terms are such as give Satisfaction to all Your good Subjects, such as Your Majesty's Allies cannot have any just Exception to, and none can repine at, but they who Envy Your Majesty and Your Kingdoms the enjoyment of Peace and Prosperity: We humbly thank Your Majesty for Your great Care of Us and our Posterity in this Treaty and entirely rely on Your Wisdom and Goodness to carry on so great and difficult a Work, humbly hoping that, by the Blessing of God on the Endeavours of Your Majesty, and Your Prudent and Faithful Ministry, it may soon be brought to Perfection: To that End we humbly pray That Almighty God, who hath already blessed Your Majesty with a constant Series of Success in War and given You many great and glorious Victories over Your Enemies, will now Crown all those Victories with a more glorious Peace, and give You a long Life to enjoy the blessed Effects of it in a peaceful and happy Reign over an obedient grateful and peaceable People.

The following Address from the Borough of Totnes, was presented to Her Majesty by Francis Gwyn, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Paullet, Lord-Steward of Her Majesty's Household, and Lord Lieutenant of the County of Devon.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgessees, and other principal Inhabitants of Your Majesty's Ancient and Loyal Borough of Totnes in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects humbly beg leave to acknowledge the great Goodness of Your most Sacred Majesty (whose undoubted Prerogative alone it is to make Peace and War) in Condescending to impart to all Your Subjects the Terms upon which a General Peace may be made.

We also presume to return our most humble and most hearty Thanks to Your Majesty, that notwithstanding the many Difficulties which must necessarily arise from the Nature of such an Affair, and the more unaccountable Obstructions which have been by a Fictitious and Malicious Party, most impudently Contrived and Prosecuted to hinder and good a Work; yet that Your Majesty's principal Care hath been to consult, and lead us to pursue the true Interest of Your Kingdoms, who have been so with an undue and extravagant Expence of so long a War.

And as every good Subject must without the greatest Ingratitude to so Gracious a Queen, be most entirely persuaded, that nothing will be omitted on Your Majesty's part, in the Progress of the present Negotiations, to bring the Peace to a happy and speedy Issue; so we conceive it our Duty most heartily to pray, That God Almighty may so bless Your Majesty's most Gracious Endeavours, that so great a Work may be speedily finish'd; and that Your Majesty who hath been so Successful in War, may likewise live long to see all Your Subjects enjoy the Comforts and Advantage of so good and honourable a Peace.

The following Address from the Borough of Honiton was presented to Her Majesty by Sir William Drake, and James Sheppard, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Poulet, Lord Steward of Her Majesty's Household, and Lord Lieutenant of the County of Devon.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Portreeve, Bayliff, Burgessees, and other Inhabitants of Your Majesty's Ancient and Loyal Borough of Honiton in the County of Devon.

May it please Your Majesty,

THE making of Peace and War being the undoubted Prerogative of the Crown, we think it our most reasonable Duty to return Your Majesty our most humble Thanks for communicating the Terms on which a Peace may be made.

Madam,

So much Goodness and Condescension leave us without Words sufficient to express the grateful Sense we have of it. The last and best Return we are capable of making to Your Majesty, is by laying hold of this early Opportunity of paying You our dutiful Acknowledgments, by assuring Your Majesty of that entire Confidence we have in all Your Majesty's Measures, and with what Pleasure and Satisfaction we wait a Period to the present Negotiation, whereby (under Your Majesty's Care and Influence) the Trade and Commerce of Great Britain being not only to be restored, but so much improved, the Protestant Succession secur'd, and the Balance of Power so well settled, we cannot in the least doubt but we shall have a Peace honourable to Your Majesty, safe and advantageous to Your People, and beneficial to Europe in General notwithstanding the many Obstructions and crafty Insinuations of some Self-interested and discontented People, who vainly would have it, That nothing is for the Publick Good, which crosses the Measures of their private Interest and Party.

May all the artful Contrivances of those who delight in War be disappointed: May Your Majesty go on to perfect this good and great Work which You have so happily begun: And, May the God of Peace complete and crown the great Blessing of Peace unto us, by giving Your Majesty a lasting Reign over a Loyal and happy People, are the hearty Prayers of Your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Banbury, in the County of Oxon, was presented by the Honourable Charles North, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, accompany'd by Shreeve Paynton, Esq; Recorder of the said Borough, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Abingdon, their High Steward.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Banbury, in the County of Oxon.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WE shall seem void of common Humanity, as well as unmindful of our Duty and Gratitude to Your Sacred Majesty, if after a tedious and expensive War, we do not in the most thankful manner, express our Joy and Satisfaction at the Prospect Your pious Endeavours have given us of an approaching Peace, by which Your Majesty's Care for securing the Protestant Succession in the House of Hanover, the Trade of Your Kingdoms, and the Interest of Your Allies in general, hath been so manifestly shewn, that it seems doubtful, whether the success of Your Negotiations in the Congress, or of Your Arms in the Field, have been more effectual for the obtaining those glorious Ends; and as it is Your Majesty's undoubted Right to make Peace and War, so do we in most humble manner acknowledge the same, and therefore cannot sufficiently admire Your Majesty's great Consideration and Goodness in communicating to Your People the advantageous Terms on which an honourable Peace may be had with France: We entirely rely on Your Majesty's great Wisdom, to perfect what You have so happily begun and shall only add our Prayers to the Almighty, that Your Success may not be frustrated by the Self-ends Malice, or Ambition of those restless Spirits who delight in War; and that Your Majesty, after a long and prosperous Reign, the blessed Effects of Peace here, may late exchange this Tour Earthly for the Blessing promised to the Peacemakers hereafter, even an Heavenly Kingdom.

The following Address from the Borough of Oakhampton in the County of Devon, was sent up by Christopher Harris, Esq; their Recorder and Representative in Parliament, and presented to Her Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord Lansdowne.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Vicar, Principal Burgeses and Assistants, Freemen and Inhabitants of Your Majesty's Antient and Loyal Borough and Corporation of Oakhampton in the County of Devon.

May it please Your Majesty,

TO accept the humblest Acknowledgments of us Your most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, as for all the other Blessings of Your most Glorious Reign, so particularly for Your late most Gracious Speech to Your Two Houses of Parliament, touching the Terms of obtaining a safe, honourable, and lasting Peace, which Your Subjects have so long Groan'd after, and from which we have Reason to promise our selves such Auspicious Consequences.

Your Majesty's unparalleled Condescension to Your People, Your great Care of their Interests and Commerce, and Your gracious Intentions towards all Your Allies, as well as Subjects, that shine forth in that Glorious Speech, incite us, not only entirely to Confide in Your Majesty's great Wisdom and Goodness to bring that Grand Affair to an happy Conclusion; but also to Profess an inflexible Loyalty to Your Sacred Majesty, and your Legal Successors, as becomes True-born English-men, and Zealous Members of that Excellent Church, which You so graciously Protect, and so gloriously Adorn; being, may it please Your Majesty, Your Majesty's most Dutiful and most Obedient Subjects.

At which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Brussels, July 4. N. S. A Courier, who pass'd through this Place early in the Morning reports, that the Garrison of Quefnoy demanded the Confirmation of that News, with the Particulars of the Conditions granted them. Sir James Willart has left this Place on his way to England, by Ostend.

Utrecht, July 5. N. S. On Friday Night last Count Conbrug, one of his Imperial Majesty's Ministers, arriv'd here from the Hague, accompanied by Baron Hohendorff. The latter being on his return from Great Britain, proceeded the same Night on his way to the Court of Vienna. On Saturday the Marquis du Bourg, Plenipotentiary from his Royal Highness the Duke of Savoy, returned to this Place, as did likewise Count Tarouca, Plenipotentiary from the King of Portugal the Day following. That Afternoon three of the Ministers of the States-General, were in Conference with the Lord Privy-Seal at his House, and Yesterday was held as usual, a Conference between the Ministers of the Allies at the Town-house. Last Night arrived here a Courier from Prince Eugene, who not finding Count sinzendorff, as was expected, proceeded to the Hague: He reports, that on the second Instant the Duke of Ormond had Detach'd four Regiments of English to March from his Army.

Hague, July 3. N. S. The States of Holland and West-Frieland, who held an extraordinary Assembly on Friday last, adjourned Yesterday till Tuesday next. On the first Instant late at Night, Count sinzendorff received an Express from Prince Eugene of Savoy, and Yesterday Morning there arrived another. At the same time an Express came from my Lord Privy-Seal, and immediately for England. Not of the Plenipotentiaries of the Allies are come back from Utrecht. The Baron de Randwick, Messieurs Buys, Vander-duffen, Goslinga, and the Count de Kniphysen, Plenipotentiaries of the States-General, had Yesterday Morning a long Conference with the Deputies of their High Mightinesses; and in the Evening their High Mightinesses and Council of State, held an extraordinary Assembly, and were a long time in Conference with the Plenipotentiaries of this State, who were come from Utrecht. The Marquis de Miremont is arriv'd here from England.

Whitehall, June 30. Her Majesty has been graciously pleas'd to appoint

Sir William Windham Bart. to be Secretary at War.

The Honourable Dixie Windfor, Esq; to be Store-keeper of Her Majesty's Ordnance.

Charles Eversteild, Esq; to be Treasurer and Paymaster of the Office of Ordnance. And Sir Simeon Steuart, Bart. to be Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Exchequer.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the 10th Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King William the Third (reciting, That Evil-disposed Persons had set up many unlawful Games called Lotteries, and thereby unjustly and fraudulently got to themselves great Sums of Money, from the Children and Servants of several Gentlemen, Traders and Merchants, and from other ordinary Persons, to the utter Ruin and Impoverishment of many Families); for Remedy thereof, it was Enacted, Adjudged and Declared, That all such Lotteries, and all other Lotteries, are common and publick Nuisances; and that after the 29th of December 1699, no Person or Persons, should publicly or privately Exercise, keep open Snow, or expose to be Play'd at, Drawn at, or Thrown at, or should should draw, play, or throw at any such Lottery, or any other Lottery, either by Dice, Lots, Cards, Balls, or any other Numbers or Figures, or any other way whatsoever. And that every Person, that after the said 29th of December should exercise, expose, open or show to be play'd, thrown or drawn at any such Lottery, Play or Device, or other Lottery, should forfeit for every such Offence 500 l. one third thereof to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, one other third part to the use of the Poor of the Parish, where the Offence should be committed, and the other third part with double Costs to the Party that should inform and sue for the same, and that the Party so offending, should likewise be prosecuted as common Rogues, according to the Statutes in that Case made and provided; and that every Person that after the said 29th of December should play, throw or draw at any such Lottery, Play or Device, or other Lotteries should forfeit for every such Offence 20 l. to be distributed in like manner. And whereas by an Act made in the 9th Year of Her Majesty's Reign, (reciting, That several Persons presumed, contrary to the intent of the said former Act, to set up Lotteries, in imitation of the Lottery directed to be drawn by Virtue of an Act of the 8th Year of Her Majesty's Reign, and other Lotteries prejudicial to the Publick, and tending greatly to defraud Her Majesty's Subjects) It was also Enacted, That every Person who after the 8th Day of March 1710, should set up or should by Writing or Printing, publish the setting up any such unlawful Lottery, with intent to have such Lottery drawn, should Forfeit for every such Offence 100 l. to be recovered with full Costs of Suit, and to be divided as aforesaid: And in the same Act of the 9th Year of Her Majesty's Reign, it was likewise Enacted, That every Person who after the 8th of March 1710, should erect or set up any Office or Place for making Insurances on Marriages, Births, Christnings or Service, or any of them, should Forfeit for every such Offence 500 l. And whereas by an Act made in the present Session of Parliament, it is further Enacted, That every Person who after the 24th of June 1712, shall erect, set up, or keep any Office or Place, for making Insurances on Marriages, Births, Christnings or Service, or any other Office or Place, under the Denomination of Sales of Gloves, of Fans, of Cards, of Numbers, of the Queen's Picture, for the improvement of small Sums of Money, or the like Offices or Places under Pretence of improving small Sums of Money, shall Forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of 500 l. to be recovered with full Costs of Suit, and to be divided as aforesaid. And that every Printer or other Person who after the said 24th of June, shall by Writing or Printing, Publish the setting up or keeping any such Office or Place, under any the Denominations aforesaid, or like Denominations, for the improvement of small Sums of Money, shall for every such Offence Forfeit the Sum of 100 l. to be recovered and distributed in like manner, as by the said several Acts may more largely appear. And whereas Her Majesty is informed, that notwithstanding the Provisions contain'd in the said Laws, several Persons do still pretend to set up unlawful Lotteries and Devices contrary to the said Acts; and other Lotteries to be governed by the Drawing the Publick Lotteries, or one of them, directed to be drawn by the Acts of this present Session of Parliament; These are therefore, in pursuance of Her Majesty's Command, to give Notice of the Penalties, Punishments and Dangers, which the Offenders in such Cases, and all Persons Printing or Publishing Proposals or Advertisements, and all Persons contributing any Money towards any such unlawful Lotteries do incur, that they may avoid the same; and that Her Majesty hath given Command to Her Attorney-General, effectually to prosecute all such, who do or shall persist in the Contempt or Breach of the said Acts, or any of them.

The Court of Directors of the South-Sea Company do hereby give Notice, that a General Court of the said Company will be held at Merchant-Taylors-Hall in Threadneedle-street, London, on Wednesday the 9th Day of July Instant, at Ten in the Forenoon.
