HEALTH AND SAFETY EXECUTIVE

SPECIAL EXEMPTION ORDER

Changes in the legislation which restrict the hours worked by women and young people age under 18 employed in factories, introduced by the Sex Discrimination Act 1986, took effect on 27th February 1987, although the prohibition on women working at night remained in force until 26th February 1988. The provisions in the Factories Act 1961 and related legislation now apply only to young people.

Section 117 of the Factories Act 1961 remains thereby enabling the Health and Safety Executive (HSE), subject to certain conditions, to grant exemptions from these restrictions for young people aged 16 and 17 by making special exemption orders in respect of employment in particular factories. Orders are valid for a maximum of one year, although exemptions may be continued in response to renewed applications.

During the quarter ended March 1989, the H.S.E. granted or renewed special exemption orders relating to the employment of 3,432 young persons. On the day of the count a grand total of 10,990 young persons were covered by 1,515 orders. (15SI)

STATUTES IN FORCE

Complete ★ Convenient ★ Up-to-date

Statutes in Force is the official revised edition of the statutes and sets out the text of the current statute law.

It is the only official statement of the complete legislation and incorporates all specific amendments subsequently brought about by both primary and secondary legislation.

The complete edition consists of 104 looseleaf binders, holding some 60,000 pages in all.

The Acts are arranged in 125 subject groups, which can be purchased separately. Subjects include:

Charities	Insolvency, Bankruptcy and Winding Up
Companies	Landlord and Tenant
Contract	Legal Aid
Employment	Partnerships and Business Names
Family Law	Sale of Goods
Friendly and Other Societies	Stamp Duty
Income, Corporation and Capital Gains Taxes	Tort and Delict

Individual Acts showing all subsequent amendments to the original legislation can be supplied, and an updating service is also available to supply customers automatically with subsequent amendments to the legislation — for the whole set, for subject groups, or for individual Acts.
