Haffhausen, February 1. N. S. We have received advice, that the Cantons of Zurich and Berne have consented to demit from the Demand they had made concerning the Expences of the War by the Abbot of St. Gall, and have sent Instructions and full Powers to their Deputies at Roschach, to conclude a Treaty of Peace upon such Terms as they shall think proper. Since the most material Difference that hath hitherto retarded the Negotiations is ended, and the Abbot hath seem'd willing to comply with all other Points insisted on by the two Cantons, it is not doubted but we shall hear very speedily of the Conclusion of the Peace. The Catholick Cantons have printed and dispers'd the Treaty of Alliance made in the Year 1583, and renew'd in their last Diet at Lucern. It is said, they intend to hold another particular Diet at Soleure.
