St. James's, June 4.

THE following Addresses, being transmitted from Ireland by his Grace the Duke of Sherwsbury, Lord Lieutenant of that Kingdom, were presented to Her Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Bolingbroke, One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen of the County of Tyrone, at the Quarter Sessions held at Omagh.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and Gentlemen of the County of Downe, at the Assizes held for that County at Down-Patrick.

Which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Stockholm, May 15. N. S. Two days ago a Yacht arrived here from Finland, with an Account sent by Captain Wrangel, Commander of a Swedish Frigate called the Wolgast, that on the 8th Instant two of our Gallies were sent to the Road of Abo, in order to discover the Posture of the Enemy thereabouts. Upon their arrival they perceived a great number of Boats, together with six small Vessels lying at Anchor. As soon as the Muscovites observed the two Gallies, they came out immediately with about eighty Boats well Mann'd with Soldiers and Rowers, and attack'd them with great Vigour on all Sides: But our Ships made a brave Defence till Night, when the noise of firing brought the Wolgast and another Frigate to their Assistance. Upon this addition of Force there ensued a very sharp Action, in which most of the Muscovite Boats were sunk or taken. We have likewise made our selves Masters of the six small Vessels, wherein was some Ammunition, which has been sent to Admiral Warrang's Squadron at Hangud. In the Boats we took near Three hundred Prisoners, some of whom are a ready brought to this Place, and have inform'd us, that the Muscovites have very few Troops about Abo, and that they have not yet made sufficient Preparations any where for a Descent into this Kingdom.

Berlin, June 2. N. S. On the 28th past the King went to Brandenbourg, and yesterday he proceeded to Magdebourg, in order to review the Troops which are quarter'd in those Parts. His Majesty is expected here again very soon, and on the 28th he intends to set out for Cleves. Baron Sparr is gone to consult with Count Welling at Hamburg, upon some Affairs relating to Sweden, after which he will return to this Place. Count Rothemburg, who accompanied him from France, is to reside here in Quality of the most Christian King's Minister to this Court. Monsieur Achenbach, who was Secretary of the Embassy at Utrecht, is appointed to go to Petersbourg, in the room of Monsieur Slippenbach, who will be recalled very soon from thence. Monsieur Dankelman, President of the Regency of Magdebourg, has been suspended from his Employment, upon some Complaints that were made of him by the Court of Hanover. Notwithstanding the Declaration which was lately read in the Churches, that for the future no Person should be press'd into the Service, the Levies are still carried on here in the same manner as they were before.

Hamburg, June 8. N. S. We are informed, that Monsieur Ducker, Governor of Stralsund, has lately taken Eleven Dutch Vessels laden with Corn from Riga. He has likewise given Directions to the Swedish Captains to seize the Ships of any Nation whatever that come from the Countries conquered by the Czar. Monsieur de Brosse, Envoy of King Augustus at the Court of Denmark, who was recalled by his Master, and was preparing to return home, has since received Orders to continue at Copenhagen. Monsieur Goertz, a little before his departure from Berlin, presented a Memorial to the King of Prussia, setting forth the Engagements his Majesty had entered into with the House of Gottorp, and desiring he would accordingly take effectual Measures to oblige the King of Denmark to restore the Duchies of Sleswick and Holstein to the Duke his Master; but his Prussian Majesty returned no Answer to this Memorial. It is said, King Augustus has sent Orders to the Great General of the Crown, to let the King of Sweden pass with his whole Retinue through Poland. Letters from Petersbourg, of the 15th past, bring an Account, that the Czar's Fleet was still detain'd by violent Winds in the Port of Cronnot. The same Advices add, that Fifteen thousand Men were embark'd on board the Transport Ships, and Nine thousand on board the Men of War, which were ready to set sail as soon as the Weather would permit.

Hanover, June 8. N. S. The Court is gone to pass the Summer at Herenhausen. The Regiment of Foot-Guards has been review'd near this City in the Presence of the Elector, who intends in like manner to review the rest of his Troops, and those which are at a distance, have receiv'd Orders to March hither for that purpose. Count Flemming and Count Wackerbart, Plenipotentiaries of King Augustus, are arrived at Brunswick, where the Conferences are not yet begun for Treating of a Peace in the North. They write from Petersbourg, that the Czar had lately Publish'd several Declarations, particularly one to establish the Birthrights of elder Sons, and another commanding all married Women, whose Husbands are absent in Foreign Countries, to repair to the same Places.

Hague, June 12. N. S. Yesterday Monsieur de Chateaucueff, Ambassador of France, was in Conference with the Deputies of the States-General, on the Subject of the Treaty of Peace between his Catholick Majesty and this Republick. The States have commanded their Plenipotentiaries to go immediately to Utrecht, in order to finish that Treaty; and the Marquis de Monteleone, Ambassador of Spain, intends to set out in a Day or two for the same Place. Monsieur Nortwyck, President of the States-General, was Yesterday in Conference with the Earl of Strafford, and this Day Monsieur Dalwigh, Minister of Hesse, was with his Excellency, and delivered to him a Letter to the Queen from the Landgrave his Master. This Morning we receiv'd an account from Hanover, of the sudden Death of the Electress Dowager.

The Commissioners for making forth Orders in exchange for Tickets in the Queen's Lottery, give notice, That they will begin to deliver out, at their Office in Whitehall, on Monday the 7th of June Instant, all the Orders for Tickets in the said Lottery that have been Entered at their said Office for Orders, on or before the 31st of May last.
