

2. The Bills will be in amounts of £5,000, £10,000, £25,000, £50,000, £100,000, £250,000 or £1,000,000. They will be dated at the option of the Tenderer on any business day from Monday, 12th November 1990, to Friday, 16th November 1990, inclusive.

3. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England.

4. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000 and must specify the date on which the Bills required are to be dated and the net amount per cent (being a multiple of half of one penny) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate Tenders must be lodged for Bills of different dates and different tenors.

5. Notification will be sent on the day of the Tender to the persons whose Tenders are accepted in whole or in part.

6. If delivery of Treasury Bills into the Central Moneymarkets Office has been requested, payments will be effected through that system; otherwise payment in full of the amount due in respect of an accepted Tender must be made to the Bank of England, not later than 1.30 p.m. on the day on which the relevant Bills are to be dated and on which they are to be collected from the Securities Office, by one of the following means:

- (a) cash
- (b) banker's draft payable through the Town Clearing
- (c) cheque drawn on the Bank of England
- (d) CHAPS payment (subject to evidence of payment) (Bills will only be released by the Bank of England when evidence of payment has been received)

7. Tenders must be made on the printed forms which may be obtained from the Securities Office, Bank of England. Particular forms are available for Bills of each maturity.

8. The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury reserve the right to reject any Tenders. (16 SI)

ANIMAL HEALTH ACT 1981

Notice is hereby given in pursuance of sections 1, 8(1), 10(1) and (2), 72 and 86(1) of the Animal Health Act 1981 that the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food, the Secretary of State for Scotland and the Secretary of State for Wales, acting jointly, have made the following Order:

The Bovine Animals (Identification, Marking and Breeding Records) Order 1990 (S.I. 1990) No. 1867

This Order—

- (a) requires the owners or persons in charge of female bovine animals to keep records of the date of birth, breed, sex and dam of calves of such animals (article 9);
- (b) enables a veterinary inspector to test a bovine animal and take samples from it for the purpose of establishing whether his reasonable supposition that the Order has not been complied with is correct (article 10); and
- (c) provides for the marking of bovine animals with a distinguishing mark so as to distinguish them from other bovine animals (article 7).

This Order also re-enacts with certain amendments those parts of the Tuberculosis (England and Wales) Order 1984 (S.I. 1984/1943) and the Tuberculosis (Scotland) Order 1984 (S.I. 1984/2063) revoked by the Tuberculosis (England and Wales) (Amendment) Order 1990 (S.I. 1990/1869) and the Tuberculosis (Scotland) (Amendment) Order 1990 (S.I. 1990/1908) respectively.

The Order continues to provide for the identification of bovine animals (article 4) and to prohibit the sale of, or exposure for sale, of unidentified bovine animals (article 6).

The changes of substance made by this Order are:

- (a) the period within which a bovine animal must be identified has been reduced from 14 days for all bovine animals to 36 hours for bovine animals in dairy herds and 7 days in other cases (article 4(2));
- (b) where possible, a record of the previous identification shall be made when a bovine animal loses its identification and is given a new identification (article 4(3));
- (c) the prohibition on the movement of unidentified bovine animals has been extended to England and Wales (article 5); and
- (d) the exception to the obligation to identify a bovine animal, in the case of an animal younger than 14 days which is sent directly to a slaughterhouse, has been removed.
