From Gaturday June 12. to Thesday June 15. 1714

Venice, June 1. N. S. N the 30th paft, Signor Tron. Ambaffador in ordinary from this Republick to Her Majefly, fet out for Great Britain. Cardinal Schrotenbach, having performed his Quaren-tine at Verona, is gone from thence to Padua. They write from Rome, that on the 20th paft, Cardinal Acquaviva received an Express from Madrid, after which he had a long Audience of the Pope. On the 22d Count Gallas, the Emperor's Ambaffador, had his first publick Audience, to which he was accompanied by most of the Pre-Iates in that City, and followed by a Train of above Two hundred Coaches. The next Day the Pope held a Congregation of State, at which Pope held a Congregation of State, at which thirteen Cardinals affifted; and it is fuid, they deliberated upon feveral Affairs relating to the Kingdoms of Naples and Sicily. Signor Barba-rigo, Bifhop of Verona, was appointed to fucceed Cardinal Badoaro in the See of Brefeia. Letters from Conftantinople of the 28th of April bring an Account, that our new Bailo, Signor Andrea Memo, was arrived there, and lodg'd in the Houfe of Signor Mocenigo his Predeceffor, who was preparing for his return to this Place. The fame advices add, that the Ottoman Port being was preparing for his return to this Place. The fame advices add, that the Ottoman Port being informed of the conclusion of the Peace between the Emperor and France, had renew'd the Treaty with Poland, and had likewife difcontinued the Naval Preparations they had been making for fome time before. The Hofpodar of Valachia, who was lately brought Prijoner to Constanti-nople, and was supposed to be very rich, had been Tortured, in order to force him to confess where he had placed his Money.

Drefden, June 8. N. S. His Majesty has not yet fix'd on a time for his return into Poland, where his Prefence is extreamly defired by the Nobility of that Kingdom. Yesterday Colonel Meyer, the Danish Minister, had his Audience of Leave, and intends to fet out very foon for Copenhagen. But it is thought before he can be in a readines but it is thought before he can be in a readiners to go, he may receive contrary Directions from the King his Mafter, fince King Augustus's Envoy at the Court of Denmark, had been likewife re-called some time ago, and is fince ordered to con-tinue there, Letters from Petersbourg bring an account, that most of the Troops defigned for the Expedition against Sweden, were already em-bark'd, and the Czar intended to set fail with them, his Majesty being refolved to command his Army in Perion. The Muscovite Forces in Fin-land were advancing farther into the Country, and fuch Measures had been taken for their Subfistance, that it was believed they would be able to penetrate that way into Sweden, without meeting any great opposition, especially if the King of Denmark continues his Refolution of making a diversion on the Side of Scapia. We have receiv'd advice from Conflantinopie, that all matters were in a stadiness for the King of Sweden's departure from thence, and it was thought he would return thro' Poland into his own Dominions. His Guard of His Guard of Turks was to accompany him no further than the Frontiers of the Ottoman Empire, unlets King Au-guitus and the Republick refuled to give furnicient Security not to moleft him in his Pallage.

Paris, June 19. N. St On the Sixteenth the Dutcheis of Berry was delivered of a Princeis, who died the next Day foon after the was Baptized.

Monfieur Meinager, Knight of the Order of St. Michael, and formerly One of his Majefty's Am. baffadors and Plenipotentiaries at the Congress df Utrecht, died a few Days ago of an Apoplexy. The Duke of Montemar has taken his Place in the Parliament, in Quality of Peer of France. The Affairs of Spain have been fetled at Court with Cardinal Giudice, and most of the General Officers appointed to Command the French Troops at the Siege of Barcelona, are already gone from hence for that purpole. Marefchal Villeroy, Goverror of Lyonnois, has received advice, that the Tumult, which happened there fome Days ago, was entirely suppress'd, and there was now no fort of Diforder in the Province to require his Prefence. We are informed by the fame Letters, that on the Ninth Instant the Archbishop of Lyons died in that City. They write from Toulon, that two Men of War; and feveral finall Veffels laden with Provisions of all kinds, were gone from thence in order to join the Squadron before Barcelona. Four Galleys and two Frigats more were likewife fitting out for the fame defign, and it was thought they would be ready to fet fail before the end of this Month. Letters from Madrid bring an Account, that his Catholick Majefty had named two Lieutenant Ge-nerals, four Marefchals de Camp, and three Brigadiers, to serve under the Marquis de Thouy, who is to take the Field, while the Duke de Popoli's Army is employ'd in the Siege of Barcelona.

Hague, June 22. N.S. On the 20th, the Earl of Strafford went from hence to Utrecht, in order to he prefent at the conclusion of the Peace between his Catholick Majefty and this Republick. This Day Baron Heems, the Emperor's Minister, was in Conference with the Deputies of the States General, upon fome Difpatches he received from Vienna. The Duke of Wolfenbuttel is arrived at this Place, and intends to continue here for fome time. They write from Baden, that on the 5th Inflant, there was a private Conference held be-tween the Plenipotentiaries of the Emperor, and the

Most Christian King, and it was thought the Con-grefs would be opened in a fhort time. St. James's, June 8. This being the Day ap-pointed by Her Majesty, for the Publick Audience of the Marquis de Trivié, Ambassador in Ordinary from the King of Sicily, the Earl of Denbigh, and Sir Clement Cottrell, Master of the Ceremonies, with fix Gentlemen of the Privy Chamber, brought him from his Houle in Greek-Arcet to St. James's in Her Majesty's Coach, follow'd by the Ambasiador's Coaches in the fame Order as was observed at his Entry. His Excellency was received at the Palace Gate by Sir Philip Meadows, Knight Marshal. Her Majefty's Foot Guards were drawn up in the Court, and the Officers faluted his Excellency with Pike and Colours, and afterwards with their Hats as he passed by, the Drums beating a March. He was received at the Door of the Guard Chamber by the Lord Paget, Captain of the Yeomen of the Guards, and conducted by him to the end of his Command : After which he was received by Lieutenant General Seymour, commanding Officer of the Band of Gen-tlemen Penfioners, who were ranged on each fide of the Room, and conducted by him in the fame manner to the Door of the Room of Audience, where he was met by Mr. Vice-Chamberlain, in the absence of the Lord-Chamberlain of Her Majefty's Houfhold. The Audience being over, his Excellency was reconducted

Finducted in the fame manner to his own Houfe by the Earl of Denbigh, the Master of the Ceremonies, the Gentlemen of the Privy-Chamber.
