Venice, June 1. N. S.

ON the 30th past, Signor Trbn. Ambassador in ordinary from this Republick to Her Majesty, set out for Great Britain. Cardinal Schrotenbach, having performed his Quarentine at Verona, is gone from thence to Padua. They write from Rome, that on the 20th past, Cardinal Acquaviva received an Express from Madrid, after which he had a long Audience of the Pope. On the 22d Count Gallas, the Emperor's Ambassador, had his first publick Audience, to which he was accompanied by most of the Prelates in that City, and followed by a Train of above Two hundred Coaches. The next Day the Pope held a Congregation of State, at which thirteen Cardinals assisted; and it is said, they deliberated upon several Affairs relating to the Kingdoms of Naples and Sicily. Signor Barbarigo, Bishop of Verona, was appointed to succeed Cardinal Badoaro in the See of Brescia. Letters from Constantinople of the 28th of April bring an Account, that our new Bailo, Signor Andrea Memo, was arrived there, and lodg'd in the House of Signor Mocenigo his Predecessor, who was preparing for his return to this Place. The same advices add, that the Ottoman Port being informed of the conclusion of the Peace between the Emperor and France, had renew'd the Treaty with Poland, and had likewise discontinued the Naval Preparations they had been making for some time before. The Hospodar of Valachia, who was lately brought Prisoner to Constantinople, and was supposed to be very rich, had been Tortured, in order to force him to confess where he had placed his Money.

Dresden, June 8. N. S. His Majesty has not yet fix'd on a time for his return into Poland, where his Presence is extremely desired by the Nobility of that Kingdom. Yesterday Colonel Meyer, the Danish Minister, had his Audience of Leave, and intends to set out very soon for Copenhagen. But it is thought before he can be in a readiness to go, he may receive contrary Directions from the King his Master, since King Augustus's Envoy at the Court of Denmark, had been likewise recalled some time ago, and is since ordered to continue there. Letters from Petersbourg bring an account, that most of the Troops designed for the Expedition against Sweden, were already embark'd, and the Czar intended to set sail with them, his Majesty being resolv'd to command his Army in Person. The Muscovite Forces in Finland were advancing farther into the Country, and such Measures had been taken for their Subsistence, that it was believed they would be able to penetrate that way into Sweden, without meeting any great opposition, especially if the King of Denmark continues his Resolution of making a diversion on the Side of Scania. We have receiv'd advice from Constantinople, that all matters were in a readiness for the King of Sweden's departure from thence, and it was thought he would return thro' Poland into his own Dominions. His Guard of Turks was to accompany him no further than the Frontiers of the Ottoman Empire, unless King Augustus and the Republick refused to give sufficient Security not to molest him in his Passage.

Paris, June 19. N. S. On the Sixteenth the Dutcheis of Berry was deliver'd of a Princess, who died the next Day soon after she was Baptiz'd.

Monsieur Mesnager, Knight of the Order of St. Michael, and formerly One of his Majesty's Ambassadors and Plenipotentiaries at the Congress of Utrecht, died a few Days ago of an Apoplexy. The Duke of Montemar has taken his Place in the Parliament, in Quality of Peer of France. The Affairs of Spain have been settled at Court with Cardinal Giudice, and most of the General Officers appointed to Command the French Troops at the Siege of Barcelona, are already gone from hence for that purpose. Marschal Villeroy, Governour of Lyonnois, has received advice, that the Tumult, which happened there some Days ago, was entirely suppress'd, and there was now no sort of Disorder in the Province to require his Presence. We are informed by the same Letters, that on the Ninth Instant the Archbishop of Lyons died in that City. They write from Toulon, that two Men of War, and several small Vessels laden with Provisions of all kinds, were gone from thence in order to join the Squadron before Barcelona. Four Gallies and two Frigats more were likewise fitting out for the same design, and it was thought they would be ready to set sail before the end of this Month. Letters from Madrid bring an Account, that his Catholick Majesty had named two Lieutenant Generals, four Marschals de Camp, and three Brigadiers, to serve under the Marquis de Thouy, who is to take the Field, while the Duke de Popoli's Army is employ'd in the Siege of Barcelona.

Hague, June 22. N. S. On the 20th, the Earl of Strafford went from hence to Utrecht, in order to be present at the conclusion of the Peace between his Catholick Majesty and this Republick. This Day Baron Heems, the Emperor's Minister, was in Conference with the Deputies of the States General, upon some Dispatches he received from Vienna. The Duke of Wolfenbuttel is arrived at this Place, and intends to continue here for some time. They write from Baden, that on the 5th Instant, there was a private Conference held between the Plenipotentiaries of the Emperor, and the Most Christian King, and it was thought the Congress would be opened in a short time.

St. James's, June 8. This being the Day appointed by Her Majesty, for the Publick Audience of the Marquis de Trivie, Ambassador in Ordinary from the King of Sicily, the Earl of Denbigh, and Sir Clement Cottrell, Master of the Ceremonies, with six Gentlemen of the Privy Chamber, brought him from his Houle in Greek-street to St. James's in Her Majesty's Coach, follow'd by the Ambassador's Coaches in the same Order as was observed at his Entry. His Excellency was received at the Palace Gate by Sir Philip Meadows, Knight Marshal. Her Majesty's Foot Guards were drawn up in the Court, and the Officers saluted his Excellency with Pike and Colours, and afterwards with their Hats as he pass'd by, the Drums beating a March. He was received at the Door of the Guard Chamber by the Lord Paget, Captain of the Yeomen of the Guards, and conducted by him to the end of his Command: After which he was received by Lieutenant General Seymour, commanding Officer of the Band of Gentlemen Pensioners, who were ranged on each side of the Room, and conducted by him in the same manner to the Door of the Room of Audience, where he was met by Mr. Vice-Chamberlain, in the absence of the Lord-Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household. The Audience being over, his Excellency was re-conducted
