Westminster, August 13.

HIS Day the Lords Justices, appointed to Administer the Government till the arrival of His Majesty, came to the House of Peers, and sent a Message to the Commons by Sir William Oldes, Gentleman-Usher of the Black-Rod, requiring their Attendance. The Commons went up accordingly, and the Lord Chancellor, being One of the Lords Justices, in their Name made the following Speech to both Houses of Parliament.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

T is with great Satufaction we can now tell you, that we have this Morning receiv'd a Letter from the King, wherein His Majesty is graciously pleus'd to acquaint us. That His Majesty is hastening bither, to employ His utmost Care for putting these Kingdoms into a happy and flourishing Con-

He bas Commanded m, in the mean time, to continue our Care of every thing that may conduce to the Peace and Safety of His Dominions. And we are assured, That if this had required His more immediate Presence, He would, without the least Delay, have repaired hither, for the Support of so Dutiful and Faithful Subjects: For, His Majety does very particularly express His great Satisfaction in the Loyalty and Affection which His People have univerfally shewn upon His Majesty's Accession to the Crown

At the Opening this Session, we did not mention to you the Apprehensions we then had from the Smallness of the Sum at that time advanced, that the Lottery would not be full, being desirous in the first place to try to make it effectual in the Manner the Parliament had established it: But we are obliged now to acquaint you, That all our Endeavours bave failed of the desired Success, tho' the Contri-butions have been thereby considerably encreased.

We must therefore carnestly recommend to you, Gentlemen of the House of Commons, to take this into your Confideration, and to give such further Encouragement as you hall think proper for Raising the whole Sum which was intended, and is absolutely necessary for carrying on the Service of the Tear.

Madrid, July 30. N. S. Monsieur Orry arrived here on the 23d, and hath been employed in raising the Sum of One hundred thousand Pistols, for the use of the Army employed in the Siege of Barce-lona. He takes up this Money from the Farmer of the Revenue by way of Anticipation, and hath already fent One hundred thousand Pieces of Eight to the Camp. The Duke de Popoli arrived here on the 27th, and went immediately to the Pardo to wait upon his Majelly, who received him very graciously. They write from Cadiz, that the three Ships which the Marquis de Montesacro undertook to fend to the Honduras and the Carracas, purfuant to a Contract made with the King in January last, are leading the Goods proper for those Places. These Ships were bought of the French own, but they are Manned and Commanded only by Natives of this Kingdom, and the People of any Country have liberty to become Sharers in these Cargoes, according to the Marquis's Contract.

Monsieur Crozat, of Paris, having lately desired that the Vessels he sends to Louisiana, or the River Miffifipy, might have leave to touch at the Havana for Refreshments, his Request hath been rejected. We have likewise received advice from the Governor of Buenos Ayres of the 12th of January last, that he had Confiscated the Cargoes of two French Vessels, which came up the River of Plata upon pretence of resitting. Letters from the Camp before Barcelona bring an Account, that six General Officers had deserted out of the Town, and came to furrender themselves to Mareschal Berwick, who suspecting their Sincerity, and doubting they might have a design to raise a Sedition in the Country, fent them Prisoners to Peniscola.

His Danish Majesty hath sent Major-General Wilster with a Body of Five or Six hundred Men to attack the Isle of Heiligland, where the Swedes have but a very small number of Forces. It is likewise said, that several Danish Regiments are order'd to be in a readiness to march into Scania. Baron Aralenheim, Governor of Doux-Ponts, hath defired Leave of the King of Prussia for two Regiments of Foot to pals through his Dominions into Pomerania, but it is not yet known whether it will be granted. They write from Vienna, that Baron Spar would fet out very soon from thence for the Congress of Baden. That Minister was said to be very much displeased with the Success of his Negotiations at the Imperial Court, the Emperor being resolved not to concern himself in the Affairs of the North, any other ways than by offering his Mediation for a Treaty of Peace. We are informed from Ressina, that the Minister of the Han of Tartary arrived there on the 6th Instant, but the Day had not been appointed for his Audience. King Augustus had conferred the Employment of Great Chamberlain of Lithuania upon Count Flemming. Letters from Petersbourg of the 22d past bring an Account, that the Swedish Fleet continued still in the same Situation at Hungo Udda, and that of the Places. These Ships were bought of the French | Czar at Reval, and there was no appearance of their and Genoese, the Spaniards having none of their coming soon to an Engagement. They were pre-

Sparing another Transportation of Forces at Cronslot, to reinforce the Muscovite Army in Finland. The Czar had embarked on Board one of his Men of War for Abo, in order to review his Troops under the Command of General Apraxin. They write from Peterwaradin, that the King of Sweden was expected there in a floor time; but we are informed by Ad--_ there in a short time; but we are informed by Advices from Constantinople, that the Ottoman Port had raised several new Difficulties, upon frivolous Pretences, to retard his Majesty's departure, and had refused to grant the necessary Passports for his Retinue, till the Grand Vizir should receive some Dispatches he expected from the Han of Tartary.

The King of Denmark continues still at Gottorp, but he intends to return very foon for Copenhagen. The Czar hath remitted a confiderable Sum of Money to his Danish Majesty, in order to enable him to fit out his Fleet. As foon as the Muscovites have received that Reinforcement, which confits of Sixteen Men of War, they are to attack the Swedes. They write from Petersbourg, that the Princess of Muscovy was delivered of a Daughter, and that the Prince, being indifiposed, had resolved to go to the Waters of Carlsbad, for the recovery of his Health.
