

paring another Transportation of Forces at Cronstot, to reinforce the Muscovite Army in Finland. The Czar had embarked on Board one of his Men of War for Abo, in order to review his Troops under the Command of General Apraxin. They write from Peterwaradin, that the King of Sweden was expected there in a short time; but we are informed by Advices from Constantinople, that the Ottoman Port had raised several new Difficulties, upon frivolous Pretences, to retard his Majesty's departure, and had refused to grant the necessary Passports for his Retinue, till the Grand Vizir should receive some Dispatches he expected from the Han of Tartary.

Hanover, August 14. N. S. We are informed that General Poniatosky is set out from Deux-Ponts for Vienna, in order to meet the King of Sweden, who is supposed to be on his way from Demotica to his own Dominions. Two Swedish Gentlemen, sent by Count Welling upon the same occasion, passed thro' this Place a few Days ago. The King of Denmark continues still at Gottorp, but he intends to return very soon for Copenhagen. The Czar hath remitted a considerable sum of Money to his Danish Majesty, in order to enable him to fit out his Fleet. As soon as the Muscovites have received that Reinforcement, which consists of Sixteen Men of War, they are to attack the Swedes. They write from Petersbourg, that the Princess of Muscovy was delivered of a Daughter, and that the Prince, being indisposed, had resolved to go to the Waters of Carlsbad, for the recovery of his Health.
