DEECO LIMITED

At an Extraordinary General Meeting of the above-named Company, held at 7 Bolton Gardens Mews, London SW10 9LW, on 29th September 1997, at 10 a.m., the Chairman of the Meeting noted that there was a quorum and declared the Meeting open. The Chairman noted that the purpose of the Meeting was to consider the voluntary winding-up of the Company. The Company had decided not to continue with the development of the Graphjet printer, as the two engineers charged with doing the development work had done nothing for close to a year and clearly had no motivation to do any more work. Too much time had passed, and along with it the possibility of a favourable "time to market", so that it was not feasible to seek other engineers to complete the development. There seemed no worthwhile reason for the Company to continue in business. The Directors had made a full enquiry of the Company's financial position and had concluded to the best of their knowledge that the Company owed no money to third parties and was owed no money. The Directors had made to that effect a Statutory Declaration which was placed before the Meeting. The following Special Resolution and Ordinary Resolution respectively were therefore put to the Members of the Company and passed unanimously:

"That the Company be wound up voluntarily and that on the winding-up of the Company, its bank accounts be closed and any monies be used to pay down part of the outstanding shareholder loan."

The Chairman was empowered to put these Resolutions into effect. The Meeting was closed at 10.30 a.m.
