From Muclday January 8. to Saturday January 12. 1717.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 10th of January, 1716.

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, Guardian of the Kingdom, &c. in Council.

This Day His Royal Highness in Council was pleased to appoint John Wynne, Esq; Sheriff for the County of Carnarvan.

JA. VERNON.

Genoa, Dec. 29. By Letters from Porto Venere we have Advice, that the Rochester, a British Man of War, put into Porto Spezza on the 24th, and on the 27th sailed from thence for Leghorn. On the 27th the Fox, another British Man of War, sailed from hence for Leghorn.

Vienna, Jan. 2. The late Hospodar Mauro Cordato, with his Family, having been conducted by a sufficient Guard to Hermanstadt in Transýlvania, Collonel Dettin remains in Walachia, where he has put Garrisons into Buchorest and into several other advantagious Posts, having been joined by a considerable Reinforcement sent to him by Count Steinville. General Heister is gone, by the Emperour's Command, to view all the fortified Places of Hungary, beginning with Raab, and especially to see that the Towns within the new Conquests be put into the best Order as to their Fortifications, and that the Magazines be well stored. Temeswaer is designed for a Place of Arms: Orders are sent to Peterwaradin, for getting ready 100 Pieces of heavy Cannon, with Carriages and all necessary Furniture for the Service of the Artillery, by the End of March: And Sums of Money are issued for buying suffi-cient Quantities of Provisions and dry Forage to serve the Army seven Months the ensuing Campaign, and especially the Cavalry. The Prince of Brandenbourg Culenbach, who made the last Campaign in Hungary, is arrived here. By Letters from Temeswaer we learn, that Baron Newbourg, Collonel of the Regiment of that Name, has taken five large Turkish Boats laden with Provisions, in the Neighbourhood of Vipalanka, of which he is Governour. On the 26th past the Emperour was taken very ill; and his Imperial Majesty finding a great Disorder in his Stomach, the Physicians gave him a Vomit on the 27th, repeated it on the 28th, and on the 30th blooded him. The Court was pretty much alarmed, but his Imperial Majesty is now so well recovered, that there is no Reafon to think him any longer in Danger by this Indisposition, which came by a great Cold he got a Hunting some Days ago.

Berlin, Jan. 9. Letters from Warlaw of the 3d Instant say, the Deputies of the Confederates had a publick Audience of the King in great Solemnity, on the 29th past, in which they proposed, 1. That the Armies of Po-land and Lithuania being now to return under the Command of their former Generals, they should be obliged to take the Oaths prescribed by the Treaty in three Days Time. 2. That the Evacuation of the Saxon and Muscovite Troops should immediately follow the Dissolution of the Consederacy; and, 3. That the Ratifications of the Treaty should on both Sides be put into the Hands of Prince Dolhoruki, as Mediator, without Delay. To which, by the King's Order an Answer was returned, 1. That the Generals should be pressed, by all possible Means, to the Performance of what was desired. 2. That the Order for the Evacuation of the Saxon and Muscovite Troops should be delivered out as soon as the Ratifications were exchanged; and, 3. That when the Confederates had lodged their Ratification with the Mediator, the King's should be likewise sent to him forthwith. the 2d Instant, the Generals, who had hitherto made the greatest Difficulty, took the Oaths in the same Manner as had been concerted by the Treaty; from whence it was once more hoped all would be appealed.

Copenhagen, Jan. 5. Yesterday Captain Dents having under his Convoy several Merchant-Ships bound for Great Britain, sailed from hence to Elsinore, but till the Wind comes fairer cannot proceed surther. The Transports with the Troops for Norway which sailed lately from this Place, are still detained by contrary Winds at Elfinore.

Hague, Jan. 15. The Earl of Sunderland arrived here from Hanover on the 13th at Night; as did also this Morning Mr. Secretary Stanhope; and the Earl of Sutherland came Yesterday to Amsterdam. 'Tis advised, that His Britannick Majesty defigns to set out from Hanover on Monday the 18th Instant, and to come directly to Helvoetsluys, where the House of the Admiralty is made ready for His Reception. Yesterday the Czar received the News at Amsterdam by a Courier, that his Consort was brought to Bed of a Prince at Wesel. Prince Kourakin, the Russian Ambassadour, having received an Express from the Czar on the 13th in the Morning, had a Conference with some Deputies of the States, and afterwards with the Freych Ambassadours: Since which he set out from hence for Amsterdam, to wait on his Czarish Majesty.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Hit Majesty's Treasury having received a Letter signed T. W. do give Notice to the Person that wrote the said Letter, that he may apply to their Lordships, at the Treasury Chambers, and be assured of their Encouragement and Protestion, with respect to the Discoveries which he proposeth to make.

By the Commissioners for Taking, Examining, and Stating the Debts due to the Army.

Whereas Several Collonels and Agents of Regiments, which served in Spain and Portugal during the late War, have negletted to bring in the Accompts of their respective Regiments, pursuant to the Precepts issued by the said Commissioners in that behalf; This is to give Notice, that if the said Accompts be not laid before the faid Commissioners, at their Office in Dorset-Court, Westminster, on or before Monday the 21st Instant in the Forenoon, they shall look on such Neglett as an Acquiescence in the Charges made upon the said Regiments by the Pay-master-General, and shall state the Accompts of those Regiments accordingly.

Navy-Office, January 7, 1716.
