Notice is hereby given that the county of Herefordshire District Council, in pursuance of their powers under section 69 of the Planning (Listed Building and Conservation Areas) Act 1990, have designated the following parts of Colwall Village, Herefordshire, as a Conservation Area. The area will be known as Colwall Stone/Upper Colwall Conservation Area.

From the southern boundary of Old Church Road at the point where it is met by Old Orchard Lane at the western end of the village, the Conservation Area boundary runs east along Old Church Road until it reaches the footpath to the west of The Roost. Here it turns south to follow the western boundary of the footpath, and then turns east to run along the rear boundaries of No's 36-16 The Crescent. The boundary then turns north to incorporate OS parcel 2770, and veers east when it meets the southern boundary of Pembroke Lodge. It continues east along the southern boundary of Gazeley and then turns south to run along the western boundary of Wyche End. At this point it follows the southern boundaries of those properties sited on the south side of Old Church Road, from Wyche End to New Court, in an easterly direction. It continues around following the eastern boundary of New Court until it crosses Walwyn Road to The Old Cottage, and follows the boundary of this property in a northerly direction. The boundary now veers in a south-easterly direction along the north-eastern boundaries of The Old Cottage, Rowan Croft, and Pender. It turns sharply in a north-easterly direction to follow the easternmost boundaries of the properties from Deesacre to Tarradale. It then runs eastwards along the southern edge of OS parcel 2013 and then northeast to incorporate parcels 2810 and 3123. The boundary now zigzags, following first the eastern edge of the lane at the eastern boundary of OS parcel 3123 in a northerly direction, then east across the northern boundary to Hill Orchard Cottage, and north again, crossing Walwyn Road. From this point it travels north-east along the eastern side of the lane leading to Knell Farm, skirting this property to the east and incorporating OS parcel 5454. The boundary now turns to the west and encompasses the grounds to Peyton House, and OS parcels 4466, 4065, 3369, and 1758. When it reaches the western side of Brockhill Road at the north-western corner of OS parcel 1758 the boundary turns south and follows the road until it meets the pond, which is included, to the north of The Downs School. Here it again heads west incorporating OS parcels 6823 and 6129. From this point it continues westwards following the field boundary to the southern perimeter of OS parcel 5539, and crosses Mathon Road, excluding OS parcel 3334. The boundary now turns south to incorporate the garden plots from Llanwenarth to The Way along the east of Mathon Road, and incorporates OS parcel 2916. It now heads westwards again, running along the south of the wood and continuing across the northern boundary of Stamp's Cottage and to the south of numbers 24-2 Orlin Road, where it again meets Old Orchard Lane and heads south to the point of origin on Old Church Road.

Plans showing the above Conservation Area designation can be inspected, for 28 days from the publication of this notice, at the Planning Offices of Herefordshire Council at St Owen's Street, Hereford HR1 2ZB. Any queries in relation to the above may be directed to Rachel Bonner, Conservation Officer (telephone 01432-261951).

3. Six weeks' notice must be given to the Council before works are carried out to any tree in the area.
4. Special publicity must be given to planning applications for development in the area.
5. In carrying out any functions under the Planning Acts (and, in particular, in determining applications for planning permission and listed building consent), the Council and the Secretary of State are required to take into account the desirability of preserving or enhancing the character or appearance of the area.
