Notice is hereby given that the Salisbury District Council, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by section 70 of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act, 1990, has cancelled the designation of the Old Sarum Airfield Conservation Area. The airfield was designated by the Council as a conservation area on 24 January 2001.

The boundaries of the conservation area are as follows:

From a point opposite No 36, Green Lane in Ford, the boundary follows the west side of Green Lane north, keeping to the east of, and including former airfield perimeter buildings south of Southside, then skirts Southside to the south, heading west to the former airfield east perimeter track, crossing this and continuing south-west along the southern boundary of the industrial buildings which front Lysander Road and Hurricane Close. At a point south-west of Unit 5, Hurricane Close, the boundary continues north-west to keep to the west of the line of trees at the head of Hurricane Close, then heads north-east along the estate road to the head of Lysander Road, where it turns north-west to The Portway. The boundary follows the south side of The Portway south-west to the Lodge which forms the entrance to the Sarum Business Park, then turns south-east heading towards the Airport Control Tower, where it then turns south-west again to skirt the south side of the industrial buildings and estate road of the Centurion Centre. At the south-western corner of the Castle Gate Industrial Park it turns north-west to skirt the southern boundaries of buildings fronting The Portway and then heads west to the former airfield west perimeter track, which it follows south, on its western side, before turning east at Roman Road and following the road east, on its northern side, to the western boundary of Field House. Skirting the boundary of Field House, it heads north and then north-east, along the boundaries of houses in Merrifield Road before reaching Manor Farm Road and then, following the boundary line to the airfield north of Manor Farm Road, terminates adjacent to No 36 Green Lane.
