

- Professor Ronald McGlashan HARDEN, lately Director, Centre of Medical Education, University of Dundee. For services to Medical Education.
- Ronald David HARKER, Chief Executive, National Association of Citizens Advice Bureaux. For services to the Voluntary Sector.
- Anthony John HARROP, Director, Social Services, Leicestershire County Council. For services to Social Care.
- Thomas Dominic HAYES, Chairman, Governing Body East Antrim Institute of Further and Higher Education. For services to Further Education.
- Anne Carolyn HAYMAN, Chief Executive, Foyer Federation. For services to Young People.
- Christopher HILLIER, Principal Engineer, Parliamentary Works Services Directorate, House of Commons.
- Beverley, Mrs. HODSON, Managing Director, W.H. Smith UK Retail. For services to the Retail Sector.
- John Lewis HUDSON, Chairman, Birmingham International Airport Company. For services to Industry in the West Midlands.
- Michael James HUMPHREY, Chief Superintendent, Metropolitan Police Service. For services to the Police.
- Ms Merillie Alison VAUGHAN-HUXLEY, National Senior Adviser, Equality and Diversity. For services to Adult Education.
- David Ivan IBBERSON, Grade B2, Ministry of Defence.
- June, Mrs. IMESON, Leader, Hambleton District Council. For services to the communities of Great Ayton and Hambleton District.
- Avril Jean, Mrs. IMISON, Head of Policy, Allied Health Professions, Department of Health.
- Professor Sonia JACKSON, Emeritus Professor, Social Sciences, University of Wales, Swansea. For services to Young People in Public Care.
- John Christopher Urmston JAMES, lately Secretary, Lawn Tennis Association. For services to Lawn Tennis.
- Roger Lynn JAMES, Head of Region, Westland Helicopters. For services to the Defence Industry.
- Sarnia Madeleine, Mrs. JEFFERY, lately Grade 7, Rural Payments Agency.
- Charles Gerard JENKINS, J.P. For services to Economic Development in Northern Ireland.
- Nick JOHNSON, Deputy Chief Executive and Director, Social and Community Services, London Borough of Bexley. For services to Health Care.
- Christopher Edward Ilsley JONES, lately Director of Operations, British Museum. For services to Museums.
- Michael John JONES, J.P., Board Member, Occupational Pensions Regulatory Authority. For services to the Pensions Industry.
- Richard JONES. For services to Telecommunications.
- Stephen Francis JORGENSEN, Headteacher, Prescot Community Primary School, Knowsley, Merseyside. For services to Education.
- Ms Hansa PATEL-KANWAL. For services to Young People from Black and Ethnic Minority Backgrounds.
- Sir John LISTER-KAYE, Bt., President, Scottish Wildlife Trust. For services to Nature Conservation.
- James Thomas KEATING. For services to the British Limbless Ex-Servicemen's Association.
- Peter KEEN, Performance Director, British Cycling Federation. For services to Cycling.
- John Frederick KISSACK, lately Head, Isle of Man Civil Service. For services to the Isle of Man Government.
- Dorothy, Mrs. KNUPFER, Executive Nurse Director, Salford Royal Hospital Trust. For services to Nursing.
- Anthony Stephen KRAVITZ, Chairman, General Dental Services Committee, British Dental Association. For services to Dentistry.
- William Stanley KYTE, Head, Corporate Sustainable Development Department, Powergen. For services to Environmental Improvement in the Power Sector.
- John LADLEY, Head, Operational Services, Hendon Data Centre, Police Information Technology Organisation.
- Michael Neilson LAING, D.L., Managing Director, Laing the Jeweller. For services to the Incorporation of Goldsmiths of the City of Edinburgh.
- Hanif Mohamed LALANI, Chief Executive, BT Northern Ireland. For services to Business in Northern Ireland.
- Ian Alexander LAMONT, Headteacher, Alva Academy, Clackmannanshire. For services to Education.
- Harinder Kaur, Mrs. LAWLEY, Head, Access Development, London Metropolitan University. For services to Higher Education.
- Doreen Delceita, Mrs. LAWRENCE, Co-Founder, Stephen Lawrence Charitable Trust. For services to Community Relations.
- Neville George LAWRENCE, Co-Founder, Stephen Lawrence Charitable Trust. For services to Community Relations.
- Professor Geoffrey Mark LAYER, Dean, School of Lifelong Education and Development, University of Bradford. For services to Higher Education.
- Christopher Garraway LEE, Grade B1, Ministry of Defence.
- Thomas Peter LEE, lately Deputy Director-General, Takeover Panel. For services to the Financial Markets and the City of London.
- Ms Melinda Jane Frances LETTS, Chairwoman, Long-term Medical Conditions Alliance. For services to the NHS Modernisation Board.
- Cantor Ernest Moshe LEVY. For services to Inter-Faith Relations and to Holocaust Education.
- Professor Richard William LOWNE, lately Head, Biomechanics and Injury Prevention. For services to Vehicle Safety.
- John Alexander LOWRIE, Executive Director, Nottingham City Transport. For services to the Bus Industry.
- Richard Neil LUCAS. For services to the Disability Living Allowance Advisory Board.
- Don LUSHER, Musician. For services to the Music Industry.
- Brian William LYUS, Head, Traffic Signs Technical Advice Branch, Department for Transport.
- Professor Barbara Anne MACGILCHRIST, Deputy Director, Institute of Education, University of London. For services to the Education and Professional Development of Teachers.
- John Alexander MACINTYRE, Team Leader, Waste Management Division, Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs.
- Anne, Mrs. MARTIN. For services to the Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen and Families Association—Forces Help in Wiltshire.