Admiralty-Office, April 20.

Extracts of Accounts received from Captain Gordon Commander of His Majesty's Ship the Pearl, and Captain Brand of His Majesty's Ship the Lyme, dated at Virginia in February

There being Advice that one Thach, alias Black-Beard, had, fince his pretended Acceptance of His Majesty's Gracious Pardon, committed several Pyracies, and some in the adjacent Colony of North Carolina, where the Ships of War could not come to attack him with his Crew, Captain Gordon and Captain Brand confulted with Collonel Spotfwood, Governour of Virginia, and Manned out Two Sloops from the Ships under their Command, which were sent in Quest of the aforesaid Pirates, one of them under Lieutenant Maynard of the Pearl, and the other under a Midshipman belonging to the Lyme. On the 22d of November they had Sight of the Pyrates Sloops on the Coast of North-Carolina, and row'd up to them, when Thach himself hailed them, and asked from whence they came, and who they were; to which he was answered, that he might see to whom they belonged by their Colours: Whereupon he drank Damnation to them, and faid, that he would neither take nor give Quarter; to which they answered, that they did not expect, nor would give any; upon which he fired upon them with Four three Pounwhich he fired upon them with Four three Pounders, and Four Swivel Guns, loaded with small Consideration of his Marriage with the Dutchess Shot, which he brought to bear on them on one Dowages of that Province. On the 19th Instant

Side, the Sloops which were fitted out against him having no other than small Arms. The Fire continued between them for the Space of an Hour, in which Time he killed or wounded great Part of the Sloops Companies; but at length they clapp'd him on board with both Sloops, and behaving themselves gallantly, killed Thach himself, and Nine of his Men, and took Nine others Prisoners, who were most of them wounded. After the Action was over, Lieutenant Maynard ordered Thach's Head to be cut off, which he hung under the Boltsprit of his Sloop, and carried it in that manner to Virginia, where those Pyrates who had

Lisben, April 11, N. S. On the 5th Instant one of the Transports which failed with the Spanish Fleet from Cadiz, came into this Port, as did the next Day another with French Colours, which the Master says was forced into the Service at Cadiz; and on the 8th arrived two more. The two first are of about 200 Tun each, and the other two of about 140 Tun each. All the four have not above 300 Soldiers and 54 Horses on board, one of them having thrown over-board all the Horses that were imbarked in her, and all of them threw over-board their Guns, Casks of Water, and Provisions; yet they received no Damage in their Mass or Rigging, except one of them whose Main-mass is split, the Master of which armed Richard Sparsman an Englishman of Russian. named Richard Spareman, an Englishman of Busfelton near Southampton, reports, that being Mate to one Martin a Quaker, and made Prifoner at Cadiz with his Master, the Day before that Fleet sailed he was carried on board and kept close confined 24 Hours, and then they gave him Charge of the Ship as Master. He further says, that they sailed from Cadiz the 23d of February, O. S. and steered West South west to the Latitude of 34 Degrees 50', and then changed their Course till they were r30 Leagues West of Cape St. Vincent, when they stood for Cape Finisterre: That the 18th of last Month, O. S. about One in the Morning, being then about 50 Leagues West of Cape Finisterre, they met with a violent Storm which lasted 48 Hours, and 24 Hours after he saw the Commadore carrying 64 Brass Gunsa he faw the Commadore carrying 64 Brass Guns, which had lost all her Masts, and thrown overwhich had lost all her Masts, and thrown overboard the Guns of her Upper and Quarter-Deck, steering South West, being then about 80 Leagues to the West from Cape Finisterre, in the Latitude of 42 Degrees 30'. When they came from Cadiz they were in Number 29 Sail (of which a Sloop and another Vessel went for the West Indies): Besides the Commadore, they had another Man of War, and a French Ship, of 50 Guns each, the Greyhound (now called the Andalusia) of 20 Guns, and the Ferret: All the Andalusia) of 20 Guns, and the Ferret: All the Ships carried Soldiers; the whole Number of Soldiers was about 5000

Hague, April 28. On the 26.h Instant Prince Kurakin in a Conference with the Deputies of the States General, presented two Memorials; the one to renew a Declaration he made in the Czar's Name some Months ago, that if the Swedes could not be brought to allow a free Commerce to the Ports of Livonia and Ingria, his Czarish Majesty should be obliged on his Side to sieze all neutral Ships that he should find trading to the Kingdom of Sweden: The other is to acquaint the States with the Czar's Pretensions on the Dutchy of Courland, and the Concert he had made with the King of Prussia, for settling the Succession of the Markgrave of Brandenburg Swet in the States General returned an Answer to the Memorial presented to them on the 17th by M. Grus, the Danish Resident, norifying to them his Danish Majesty's Resolution to block up the Swedish Ports of the North Sea, for hindering all neutral Ships from entring the same, and furnishing the Swedes with Corn, Provisions or Stores of War: In which Answer their High Mightinesses fet forth, that this State has observed an exact Neutrality between the Parties engaged in the War in the North; that consequently living in Friendship with all those Powers that are at War, their Subjects, according to the Rights of Nations, are at Liberty to traffick in the Countries of any of those Powers, except in such Contraband Goods as are specified in the Treaties; that by the 12th and 13th Articles of the Treaty concluded the 15th of July 1701, between his Danish Majesty and their High Mightinesses, the Freedon of Navigation and Commerce, even to the Countries of his Danish Majesty's Enemies, was expresly stipulated: That their High Mightinesses cannot by any Means acquiefce in the Interruption of the Commerce of their Subjects norified by the faid Memorial, but infift upon the Right acquired by the faid Treaty, and defire to enjoy the Effects of it; and that they expect this from the Friend-fhip and Equity of his Danish Majesty. The States of the Province of Holland are now assembled herey as are also the Admiralties, and several Gonferences have been held touching the Means of maintaining the Liberty of Commerce in the North.
