St. James's, September 9.

THE following humble Address of the Archbishop of York, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Loyal Clergy of that Diocese, has been presented to His Majesty by his Grace the Archbishop, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

AS your Majesty's rightful and peaceable Accession to the Throne of your Kingdoms was the only adequate Consolation for the sudden Loss of your Royal Father, which the good Providence of God had laid up in Store for your obedient and loyal People; we humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon it, with Hearts truly sensible of the Divine Goodness to us all in that important Blessing, and of the strictest Obligation, which both the Laws of God and Man have laid us under, to make all possible Returns of the most affectionate Duty and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's most Sacred Person and Government.

Your Majesty's well known Royal Virtues, your Strength and Vigour of Body and Mind, your gracious and most endearing Expressions of an affectionate Concern for the Preservation of the Laws and Liberties of your People, and of (that which is their necessary Security) our present happy Constitution in Church and State, give us justly, under God, the strongest Confidence that a free Nation could desire and wish for, that your Majesty's Reign over us will be long and prosperous; and we earnestly beg your Majesty to be assured of our most hearty Prayers to Almighty God, by whom Kings reign, joined with our sincere and strenuous Endeavours, in our several Stations, that it may be so; to alleviate as much as in us lies, the heavy Weight of Government which your Majesty's long experienced Love to our Country has so happily for us, induced your Majesty to take upon you. For we are, with the most inviolable Affection and Duty, and with the utmost Abhorrence of all contrary Attachments whatsoever, May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most humble, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects and Servants.

The following humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, and Freeholders, assembled at the Assizes held for the Body of the County of York, at the Castle of York, the 22d Day of July 1727, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Burlington and the Right Honourable William Pulteney, Esq; Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that it is with the utmost Satisfaction we behold you thus happily seated on the British Throne; and whatever Loss we have sustained in the Death of our late most excellent King your Royal Father, we promise ourselves will be sufficiently made up to us in the auspicious Government of his illustrious Successour.

It seems to have been a Happiness peculiarly reserved for your Sacred Majesty, that your Accession to these Realms should be as universally applauded, as the Death of your Predecessour was lamented.

When we see this Kingdom make so glorious a Figure Abroad, by giving Peace to Europe, whilst our Publick Credit does so eminently flourish at Home, we cannot help thinking that these Blessings could only be derived from that brave and resolute Steadiness which was the Glory of your Royal Father's Government, and will perpetuate his Memory to the latest Posterity: And it fills our Hearts with inexpressible Joy, when we consider that the same Transactions which cast a Brightness on the Close of his late Majesty's Reign, should be thus happily perfected in the Opening of your's.

The gracious Declaration which you were pleased to make at your Accession, and since repeat from the Throne, that our Religion and Laws shall be ever dear to you, has every way answered the Expectation of your Subjects; and as there is nothing great or good which we did not hope from your Majesty's Reign,

[Price Three Pence.]

Reign, so your Majesty has taken all proper Methods to confirm us in those Hopes.

But unspeakable is the Transport of every true Protestant, to behold so many Guardians of our Religion in your Royal Family, when we remember they are sprung from that Queen who refused Diadems for her Faith; a Faith which Providence protected in so distinguished a Manner by the Arms of the immortal King William, whose Memory will be ever beloved by us, especially at this Time, when we feel the happiest Effects of his Goodness in your Majesty's Administration; and we cannot send your Majesty a better Prayer, than that your Name may be as dear to Posterity as his, and your Reign as successful as your Royal Father's.

The following humble Address of the Town and Borough of Great Torrington, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Walpole, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen and Capital Burgesses, with the Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Great Torrington, humbly crave Leave to joyn with our Fellow Subjects in the general Condolance on the late melancholly Occasion by the Death of your Royal Father, and in the universal Congratulation in your Majesty's peaceful Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

Your Majesty's ardent Desire to make us a great and happy People; your fix'd Resolution to preserve the Constitution of this Kingdom inviolable in all its Parts, and to reduce in proper Time the publick Expences; the Honour you have done our Native Language by graciously conforming to it, and making it the settled Language of your Court; the great Encouragement you have, by your Royal Influence and Example, both formerly and lately given to the English Trade and Manufactures; and the Approbation you are now pleased to shew of the Measures that were so seasonably taken for the Defence of the Rights and Possessions of this Nation, must fill the Hearts of all true Englishmen with the liveliest Sentiments of Joy and Gratitude, and highly merit the Love and Affection of your People, which your Majesty in your great Wisdom justly esteems the best Support and Security of your Crown.

From such your Royal Declarations and tender Regard for the Welfare of your People, we are more particularly encouraged to hope, that your Majesty's undoubted Right to Gibraltar and Port Mahon, so solemnly given up to the Crown of Great Britain by the Treaty of Utrecht, and so beneficial to the carrying on the Trade of your Kingdoms, will not so much as be questioned in any future Congress.

We can't but reflect with the greatest Pleasure at this Time, (and with due Thankfulness to the good Providence of Almighty God, by whom Kings reign) on the unspeakable Happiness we now enjoy, and further promise ourselves under your Majesty's auspicious Government, which (as in Duty bound) we shall ever pray may be long and prosperous, undisturb'd by Foreign Enemies or Civil Commotions; on the additional Blessing vouchsafed unto us in your Royal Consort our most gracious Queen, whose exemplary Piety and Prudence, and immoveable Attachment to the Protestant Interest, confirm and increase our Hopes of the Happiness and Stability of your Reign; and on the pleasing Prospect we have withal, that there never will be wanting one of your Royal Issue to fill and adorn the Throne of Great Britain.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Burgesses, High Steward, Under Steward, Gentlemen, and other the Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windsor, in the County of Berks, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Vere Beauclaire, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Herbert Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AFTER having paid our just Tribute of Sorrow to the Ashes of our late most gracious Prince, your Majesty's Royal Father, (of blessed Memory) permit us, Great Sir, to appear in your Royal Presence with Hearts full of Joy and Comfort, to see his Crowns and Virtues descend upon your most excellent Majesty, and to hear that most pathetick and gracious Declaration your Majesty was pleased to make on a late solemn Occasion.

The many and great Convulsions this free Nation hath formerly undergone and suffered; that immense Expence of Treasure and Blood they have been forced to, in rescuing themselves, Age after Age, from both Civil and Religious Violence and Oppression, hath now received an ample Recompence in the immediate peaceable Succession of your most gracious Majesty to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors; and in that long Train of Protestant Hopes the British Nation now enjoys from the glorious Sight of your Majesty's numerous and beautiful Progeny; a Race of Princes born, we assure ourselves, to give Blessings to the present Age, and to continue the same to all succeeding Generations.

These happy Prospects we enjoy in common with our Fellow-Subjects; but as our Situ-

Situation in the Neighbourhood of your Royal Palace of Windsor, hath thrown us more immediately under the Inspection of your Majesty and your Royal Predecessors, and we have frequently found Favour in your Sight, we humbly beg Leave, on this happy Occasion, to assure your Majesty, that we are firmly resolved, by our dutiful and loyal Behaviour, to convince the World how sensible we are of that peculiar Honour.

That your Majesty may very long continue to reign the Delight of your Subjects, the Terror of all your open and concealed Enemies, the Protector of our Civil and Religious Constitution, as by Law established, and the Head of the Protestant Interest upon Earth, and may at last transmit all these glorious Titles to latest Posterity, by a Series of Princes of your own Royal Blood, are the incessant Wishes and Prayers of,

May it please your most excellent Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and obedient Subjects.

The following humble Address has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Thomas Colby, Bart. introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bed-Chamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Master, Wardens and Assistants of the Trinity-House of Deptford Strand, being the Body Corporate of the Mariners of this Kingdom, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, humbly to condole with your Majesty on the Loss of our late most gracious Sovereign, of glorious Memory; and at the same Time to congratulate your Majesty's happy Accession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms.

Your Majesty's most gracious Declaration, that the Religion, Laws and Liberties of the Kingdom are most dear to you, and that the Preservation of our Constitution in Church and State, as it is now happily established, shall be your first and always your chief Care, fills our Hearts with a just Sense of your Majesty's Goodness, and devotes us with the most ardent Zeal to your Person and Government, and will engage us in Interest, as well as Duty, to exert ourselves in your Majesty's Sea Service whenever we shall be wanted.

Your Majesty's Royal Assurances leave us nothing now to wish for, but that your Majesty may enjoy a long and prosperous Reign over us, blessed with your Royal Confort, ever memorable for her Firmness to the Protestant Religion; and that there may never be wanting a Prince of your illustrious Line to reign over these Kingdoms.

Given under our common Seal this 12th Day of July 1727.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgesles of the Borough of Newcastle under Lyme, has been presented to His Majesty by the Hon. Thomas Leweson Gower, Esq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord William Manners Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Capital Burgesles of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Newcastle under Lyme, do beg Leave to condole with your Majesty upon the Death of your Royal Father our late most gracious Sovereign, and to congratulate your Majesty upon your Majesty's peaceable and happy Accession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms.

As your Majesty is possessed of, and enjoys in an eminent Manner, all the good Qualities requisite to make your Subjects a great and happy People, together with an Inclination to make them such, and a Resolution to secure them in the full Enjoyment of all their Religious and Civil Rights; we do promise ourselves not only the Continuance of these Blessings, which at present we enjoy and are sensible of, but likewise an Addition of all such (if any be wanting) that may be expected from a wise and prudent Administration and Government. It is an unpeakable Pleasure that we see your Majesty surrounded with such a numerous Royal Issue, and happy in a Queen, ever to be esteemed for her Sincerity and steady Adherence to the Protestant Religion, and who is so great an Exemplar of Virtue and true Piety.

We beg Leave most solemnly to assure your Majesty, that we will ever stand up in the Defence of your Majesty's Person, and will be always ready to maintain and support, to the utmost of our Power, your Majesty's just and undoubted Right and Title to the Crown of these Realms, and the Dominions thereto belonging, against all Attempts whatsoever.

Given under our common Seal the 15th Day of July, in the first Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following humble Address of the Borough of Banff, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Finlater and Seafield, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Chesterfield Lord of the the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the Borough of Banff, beg Leave in the most humble Manner to approach your sacred Person, and with the most sincere Hearts to condole with you for the Loss of our late most gracious Sovereign your Royal Father, whose mild Administration and wise Government must render his Memory dear to all who are Lovers of Liberty, and truly wish well to their Country.

Under this great Affliction, your Majesty's Accession to the Throne is the greatest and only Comfort we could receive; it cannot but fill the Hearts of all your Subjects with Joy, to see the Throne of these Realms supplied with a Prince truly equal to the Weight of a Crown.

Your Majesty's known Valour and Conduct render us secure against all Attacks of our Enemies abroad; and your intimate Knowledge of the Laws, Customs and Constitutions of this Kingdom, your known Love to this your Country, and the Encouragement you have always shewn to the truly virtuous and deserving, make us certain of a wise and benign Government at home.

That your Majesty may long reign the Terror of your Enemies, the Darling of your People, and in the Possession of your Royal Consort our Gracious Queen, whose Vertues has made her beloved and admired by all, and has shewn her Sex the most refin'd Pattern of Conduct they can follow in every Condition of Life.

That your Majesty may live to see all your Royal Family grown up in the Virtues of their Parents, so that after a long and glorious Reign, you may leave this a happy and flourishing Kingdom to be govern'd by a Prince who inherits his Father's Valour and Virtues, is the earnest Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most loyal, most faithful and dutiful Subjects and Servants,

The Lord Provost, Magistrates and Council of your Borough of Banff.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, Clergy, and other principal Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Barnestaple, in the County of Devon, has been presented to His Majesty by Thomas Whetham, Esq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Page Lord of the Bed-Chamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

WE beg Leave to joyn with your Majesty's loyal Subjects, in Condolance for the Death of your Majesty's Royal Father our late most gracious Sovereign, of happy Memory, and in most hearty and dutiful Congratulations for your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne.

As we are touch'd with a tender Regret for a Loss so great, so universal; so with the utmost Joy and Gratitude we acknowledge the Bounty and Care of Providence over us, in giving us a Successour, whose Title to the Crown has been established by Laws, and recognized by a dutiful loyal People. A Throne no less due to your sacred Majesty's consummate Virtues, than to the Privilege of your most illustrious Birth.

The Experience we have had of your Majesty in a more private Capacity, gives us such sure Presages of a most glorious prosperous Reign, as already fills our Hearts with Joy, and almost anticipates the Blessing.

A Prince so entirely English, will reign in every English Heart that has any Sense of Gratitude, any Love for his Country, any Conscience of Oaths, any Concern for our holy Church established by Law.

Admit us, most gracious Sovereign, on this Occasion also to congratulate your Majesty's Royal Consort, whose steady Zeal for the Protestant Religion made her refuse the brightest Splendors of a Popish Diadem, the Wisdom and Piety of whose Choice is gloriously justified in her being Britain's Queen.

May Heaven long preserve your sacred Majesties to be a mutual Comfort to each other under the Weight of publick Cares, to be the Glory and Safety of your Majesty's Dominions, the nursing Father and nursing Mother of God's Church, and the happy Parents of a numerous illustrious Issue, to perpetuate the Blessings we enjoy to latest Posterity.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants, Common-Council, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Colchester, in the County of Essex, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Thomas Webster and --- Martins, Esq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord William Manners Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE presume to approach your sacred Person, not only to express our deep Concern for the Loss of our late dread Sovereign your Royal Father, the greatest and best of Kings, whose Memory will be ever dear to us, but also to congratulate your Majesty (as we do each other) upon your happy and peaceable Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms, with the universal Joy and Acclamations of all your People.

The Experience we have long had of your Majesty's princely Care and consummate Virtues, which have shined in every Instance of Life,

Situation in the Neighbourhood of your Royal Palace of Windsor, hath thrown us more immediately under the Inspection of your Majesty and your Royal Predecessors, and we have frequently found Favour in your Sight, we humbly beg Leave, on this happy Occasion, to assure your Majesty, that we are firmly resolved, by our dutiful and loyal Behaviour, to convince the World how sensible we are of that peculiar Honour.

That your Majesty may very long continue to reign the Delight of your Subjects, the Terror of all your open and concealed Enemies, the Protector of our Civil and Religious Constitution, as by Law established, and the Head of the Protestant Interest upon Earth, and may at last transmit all these glorious Titles to latest Posterity, by a Series of Princes of your own Royal Blood, are the incessant Wishes and Prayers of,

May it please your most excellent Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and obedient Subjects.

The following humble Address has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Thomas Colby, Bart. introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bed-Chamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Master, Wardens and Assistants of the Trinity-House of Deptford Strond, being the Body Corporate of the Mariners of this Kingdom, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, humbly to condole with your Majesty on the Loss of our late most gracious Sovereign, of glorious Memory; and at the same Time to congratulate your Majesty's happy Accession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms.

Your Majesty's most gracious Declaration, that the Religion, Laws and Liberties of the Kingdom are most dear to you, and that the Preservation of our Constitution in Church and State, as it is now happily established, shall be your first and always your chief Care, fills our Hearts with a just Sense of your Majesty's Goodness, and devotes us with the most ardent Zeal to your Person and Government, and will engage us in Interest, as well as Duty, to exert ourselves in your Majesty's Sea Service whenever we shall be wanted.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Newcastle under Lyme, has been presented to His Majesty by the Hon. Thomas Leweson Gower, Esq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord William Manners Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Capital Burgesses of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Newcastle under Lyme, do beg Leave to condole with your Majesty upon the Death of your Royal Father our late most gracious Sovereign, and to congratulate your Majesty upon your Majesty's peaceable and happy Accession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms.

As your Majesty is possessed of, and enjoys in an eminent Manner, all the good Qualities requisite to make your Subjects a great and happy People, together with an Inclination to make them such, and a Resolution to secure them in the full Enjoyment of all their Religious and Civil Rights; we do promise ourselves not only the Continuance of these Blessings, which at present we enjoy and are sensible of, but likewise an Addition of all such (if any be wanting) that may be expected from a wise and prudent Administration and Government. It is an unpeakable Pleasure that we see your Majesty surrounded with such a numerous Royal Issue, and happy in a Queen, ever to be esteemed for her Sincerity and steady Adherence to the Protestant Religion, and who is so great an Exemplar of Virtue and true Piety.

We beg Leave most solemnly to assure your Majesty, that we will ever stand up in the Defence of your Majesty's Person, and will be always ready to maintain and support, to the utmost of our Power, your Majesty's just and undoubted Right and Title to the Crown of these Realms, and the Dominions thereunto belonging, against all Attempts whatsoever.

Given under our common Seal the 13th Day of July, in the first Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following humble Address of the Borough of Banff, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Finlater and Seafield, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Chetterfield Lord of the Life, and have been the constant Subjects of our Trust and Delight: gave us early Presages of our future Happiness, and the happy Days we might expect under the Reign of a Prince form'd for the Good of Mankind.

Nor were our Expectations vain, for no sooner was your Majesty ascended the Throne, but you was pleas'd to give us an agreeable Assurance of your Royal Intentions in every thing of the last Importance to us, which has exceedingly added to the general Joy, and given all your People an inexpressible Delight, and which, whilst our Religion and Liberties, and our most excellent Constitution are dear to us, will always call for our loudest Acknowledgements, and our steady Loyalty and Affection to your sacred Person and Government.

Permit us, therefore, Dread Sovereign, to tender our sincerest Wishes, that your Majesty, accompanied with your Royal Consort, the Delight of your People, may long sway the British Scepter, and reign in the Hearts of all your Subjects; and when full of Days and Glory you shall be received to an unshaken Kingdom, that your Crowns and Virtues may descend to your illustrious Progeny, those delightful Pledges of our future Happiness, till latest Posterity.

The following humble Address of the Lord High Sheriff, Nobility and Heretors of the Shire of Haddington or East Lothian, has been presented to His Majesty by John Cok-burne, Esq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Herbert Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleas'd to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to express the just Sense we have of the Goodness of Almighty God, who upon calling to his Mercy your Royal Father our late most gracious Sovereign, of glorious Memory, has rais'd your Majesty to the Throne, and thereby prevented all those Inconveniencies, that even the most timorous could figure to themselves upon so sudden and unexpected a Stroke of Providence.

Your Majesty's many conspicuous and royal Virtues, and the sincere Regard and Concern you have on all Occasions shewn for our Religion, Liberties and Properties, by Law esta-blish'd, give us full Assurance of the Continuation of all the Blessings we enjoyed under your Royal Father's most mild Government: And as the settling the general Peace of Europe was his principal View in all his Actions, so it has pleas'd Almighty God to reserve to your Majesty the Glory of finishing that great Work which he had so happily begun, and to give us the agreeable Prospect of seeing it improved by your Royal Wisdom, to the Advantage of your own People.

As the Divine Providence has hitherto bestow'd on us all the Blessings and Advantages we could propose to ourselves from the happy Succession of your Royal Family to the Crown of these Realms; so we assure your Majesty of our hearty, sincere and unalterable Resolutions to preserve these inestimable Blessings, by maintaining and defending, with our Lives and Fortunes, your Majesty's sacred Person, Family and Government, against all your open or secret Enemies, and against the treacherous Attempts of a Popish Pretender to your Crown, and all his Abettors.

May Almighty God prolong your Days and make your Reign Prosperous: May He pour down His best Blessings on your Royal Consort our most gracious Queen: May his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales and all your Royal Family be ever under the Divine Care and Protection; and may it be the Happiness of these Lands to have one of your Royal Progeny to reign over them to latest Posterity.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of the City of Corke, having been transmitted to his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been presented to His Majesty. Which Address His Majesty was pleas'd to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE were unworthy of the many Blessings we enjoyed under the auspicious Reign of your Royal Father, if we did not lay hold of this first Opportunity of expressing the deep Regret with which we feel the Death of that excellent Prince, in our Condolance with your Majesty upon the melancholly Occasion; at the same Time we beg Leave with Hearts full of the most sincere and unfeigned Joy, (a Joy that would admit of no other Allay) to congratulate your Majesty on your peaceable Accession to the Throne, which alone can alleviate the otherwise irreparable Loss which we, in common with the rest of your Subjects, must have sustained by the Death of our late gracious Sovereign.

The early, the tender and paternal Regard which your Majesty has express'd for our Constitution in Church and State, demand from us the highest Returns of Gratitude and Loyalty; of which, as the first Instance, we beg your Majesty will graciously accept our most solemn Assurances, that we will, to the utmost of our Power, with our Lives and Fortunes, stand by and support your Majesty against all Attempts of your Enemies: Nor is this Profession large, since your Majesty can have none such but who of Consequence are irreconcilably ours.

As your Majesty is our present, so we look upon your numerous Royal Issue as the Pledges of our future Happiness; from them we enlarge our Prospects, and receive a Confidence, that the Blessings of your Majesty's Administration will be perpetuated to our latest Posterity, under Successors of your Royal and illustrious Family: And this Confidence we are the more confirmed in, when we consider the many high and shining Vertues and Qualities of your Royal Consort, which lineally descending to her Issue, cannot fail to answer our most sanguine Expectations.

Late, very late, may we receive those Advantages: Long may you continue to reign over the Hearts of a willing People, a People not more bound to your Majesty by their Duty than by their Affection.

In Testimony whereof the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Burgeses, Grand Jury, Merchants, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the said City, have hereunto subscribed their Names, and affixed the Common Seal of the said City, at a General Assizes held for the County of the said City, the 21st Day of July, in the First Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Grand Jury of the City of Waterford, having been transmitted to his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been presented to His Majesty. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Grand Jury of the City of Waterford, being sensibly affected with unfeigned Sorrow and Concern, beg Leave to condole with your Majesty the sudden and unexpected Death of our late most gracious Sovereign, of glorious Memory, whose Loss had been insupportable, if our Hopes were not revived by your Majesty's quiet and happy Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors.

As your Majesty's most gracious Declaration gives us the strongest Assurance of the Preservation of our Religious and Civil Rights, so we hope that Affection, as well as Duty, will ever bind the Hearts of grateful Subjects to your Majesty's Person and Government.

From your Majesty's consummate Wisdom and Experience, as well as perfect Knowledge of the Constitution and true Interest of these Kingdoms, we promise ourselves an Increase of Happiness; and we pray that your Reign may be long and glorious; and that, by the Succession in your Royal House, the invaluable Blessings of it may be continued to our latest Posterity.

Given under our Common Seal of the said City, this 14th Day of July, Anno Dom. 1727.

The following humble Address of the Sovereign, Recorder, Burgeses, and Commonalty of the Town of Kinsale, in the Kingdom of Ireland, having been transmitted to his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of that Kingdom, has by him been presented to His Majesty. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty's Accession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms.

The grateful Sense of the many Blessings we enjoyed under the most auspicious Reign of our late Sovereign, puts us under the highest Obligations to condole with your Majesty on the Death of your Royal Father; a Loss so very surprizing, and at so critical a Juncture, as might have proved fatal; had it not been fully repaired by your Majesty's immediate Succession.

The long Experience we have had of your Majesty's consummate Wisdom, and the tender Regard you have always shewn for our happy Constitution in Church and State, fills us with sure and certain Hopes that we shall be a happy and free People under a wise and gracious King; and we cannot doubt but that all your Subjects will unite in Zeal and Affection for your Majesty's Person and Government, and distinguish themselves by their faithful Endeavours to serve your Majesty and their Country.

The Blessings we at present enjoy, and the Prospect we have of their being continued to us, receive no small Addition from the unparalleled Character of our good Queen your Royal Consort; and the numerous and hopeful Issue of your Royal Line, give us the delightful Prospect of transmitting our happy Establishment to latest Posterity. And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our sincere and unfeigned Fidelity to your Majesty's Person and Government, and that we shall be always ready to maintain and defend the Protestant Succession, as by Law established; to the utmost of our Power, against all Attempts whatsoever.

And we humbly pray, that your most sacred Majesty, your Royal Consort the Queen, and your illustrious Issue, may ever be the peculiar Care of Heaven, and the Delight of all your Subjects.
