From Tuesday January 9. to Saturday January 13. 1727.

St. James's, January 13.

THE following Address having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive it very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty, The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Assistants of your Majesty's City and Corporation of New-York in America, convened in Common-Council.

THE Loss of our late Sovereign your Majesty's Royal Father, of glorious Memory, made the deepest Impressions of Sorrow upon our Hearts. We were sensible that Heaven had deprived us of a Prince of most eminent Virtue and consummate Wisdom; and that to his Arms and Counsels we owed the Preservation of our Religion and our Liberties, when both were attacked by the most formidable Power in Europe. Your Majesty then (we most humbly hope) will conceive how great our Joy was, how much our Hearts were exalted, when we saw your Majesty, his Son and rightful Successor, advanced to the quiet and secure Possession of the Throne of your Ancestors, receiving the earliest Proofs of the Affections of your loyal Nobility and Commons; the zealous Prayers of those Churches of which your Majesty is the Defender; and the glad Acclamations of a People devoting their Lives and Fortunes to your Majesty's Service.

May it please your Majesty, though we are far removed from the happy Place of your Royal Residence, yet none of your Majesty's Dominions are more truly sensible of the Blessings which all enjoy under the Administration of a good, a great, and a just Prince.

We therefore most devoutly pray, that your Majesty may long reign over us; that your Royal Comfort the Queen may be blessed with long Life, and a numerous Offspring; and that together with your Majesty's Person, your great and princely Virtues may for Ages to come continue to be truly represented in this your Majesty's Province.

We are, May it please your Majesty, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 10th Day of January, 1727.

P R E S E N T.

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.
