GEORGE R.

WHEREAS in and by an Act of Parliament made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of our late Royal Father of Glorious Memory, intituled, An Act for the more effectual punishing wicked and evil disposed Persons going armed in Disguise, and doing Injuries and Violences to the Persons and Properties of his Majesty's Subjects, and for the more speedy bringing the Offenders to Justice, it was amongst other Things enacted, That if any Person or Persons, from and after the first Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, being armed with Swords, Fire-Arms, or other offensive Weapons, and having his or their Faces blacked, or being otherwise disguised, should appear in any Forest, Chase, Park, Paddock, or Grounds inclosed with any Wall, Pale, or other Fence, wherein any Deer had been or should be usually kept, or in any Warren or Place where Hares or Conies had been or should be usually kept, or in any high Road, open Heath, Common, or Down; or should unlawfully and wilfully hunt, wound, kill, destroy, or steel any Red or Fallow Deer, or unlawfully rob any Warren or Place where Conies or Hares are usually kept; or should unlawfully steal, or take away any Fish out of any River or Pond; or if any Person or Persons, from and after the said first Day of June, should unlawfully and wilfully hunt, wound, kill, destroy, or steal any Red or Fallow Deer, fed or kept in any Places, in any of his Majesty's Forests or Chases, which were or should be inclosed with Pales, Rails, or other Fences, or in any Park, Paddock, or Grounds inclosed, where Deer had been or should be usually kept; or should unlawfully and maliciously break down the Head or Mound of any Fish-pond, whereby the Fish should be lost or destroyed; or should unlawfully and maliciously kill, maim, or wound any Cattle, or cut down, or otherwise destroy any Trees planted in any Avenue, or growing in any Garden, Orchard, or Plantation, for Ornament, Shelter, or Profit; or should set Fire to any House, Barn, or Out-house, or to any Hovel, Cock, Mow, or Stack of Corn, Straw, Hay, or Wood; or should wilfully and maliciously shoot at any Person in any Dwelling-house or other Place; or should knowingly send any Letter without any Name subscribed thereto, or signed with a fictitious Name, demanding Money, Verisod, or other valuable thing; or should forcibly rescue any Person, being lawfully in Custody of any Officer or other Person for any of the Offences before mentioned; or if any Person or Persons should by Gift, or Promise of Money, or other Reward, procure any of our Subjects to join him or them in any such unlawful Act; every Person so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, should be adjudged guilty of Felony, and should suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy. And for the more easy and speedy bringing the Offenders against the said Act to Justice, it was thereby enacted, That if any Person or Persons should be charged with being guilty of any of the Offences aforesaid, before any two or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the County where such Offence or Offences should be committed, by Information of one or more credible Person or Persons, upon Oath by him or them to be subscribed, such Justices before whom such Information should be made as aforesaid, should forthwith certify under their Hands and Seals, and return such Information to one of the Principal Secretaries of his said late Majesty, his Heirs, or Successors, who was thereby required to lay the same (as soon as conveniently might be) before his said late Majesty, his Heirs, or Successors, in his or their Privy-Council,

Council, whereupon it should and might be lawful for his said late Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, to make his or their Order in his or their Privy-Council, thereby requiring and commanding such Offender or Offenders to surrender himself or themselves, within the Space of Forty Days, to any of the Justices of the Court of King's Bench, or to any one Justice of the Peace, to the End that he or they might be forthcoming to answer the Offence or Offences wherewith he or they should so stand charged, according to the due Course of Law; which Order should be printed and published in the next London Gazette, and should be forthwith transmitted to the Sheriff of the County where the Offence should be committed, and should within Six Days after the Receipt thereof, be proclaimed by him or his Officers, between the Hours of Ten in the Morning, and Two in the Afternoon, in the Market Places, upon the respective Market Days of two Market Towns in the same County, near the Place where such Offence should be committed, and a true Copy of such Order should be affixed upon some publick Place in such Market Towns; and in case such Offender or Offenders should not surrender himself or themselves pursuant to such Order of his said late Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, to be made in Council as aforesaid, he or they so neglecting or refusing to surrender himself or themselves as aforesaid, should from the Day appointed for his or their Surrender as aforesaid, be adjudged, deemed, and taken to be convicted and attainted of Felony, and should suffer Pains of Death, as in case of a Person convicted and attainted by Verdict and Judgment of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy; and that it should be lawful to and for the Court of King's Bench, or the Justices of Oyer and Terminer, or general Goal Delivery for the County where the Offence is sworn in such Information to have been committed, upon producing to them such Order in Council, under the Seal of the said Council, to award Execution against such Offender and Offenders, in such Manner as if he or they had been convicted and attainted in the said Court of King's Bench, or before such Justices of Oyer and Terminer, or general Goal Delivery respectively: And it was by the said Act enacted, That all and every Person and Persons, who should after the Time appointed as aforesaid, for the Surrender of any Person or Persons, so charged upon Oath with any of the Offences aforesaid, be expired, conceal, aid, abet, or succour such Person or Persons, knowing him or them to have been so charged as aforesaid, and to have been required to surrender himself or themselves by such Order or Orders as aforesaid, being lawfully convicted thereof, should be guilty of Felony, and should suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy; and it was thereby further enacted, That if any Person or Persons should apprehend, or cause to be convicted, any of the Offenders before mentioned, and should be killed, or wounded so as to lose an Eye or the Use of any Limb, in apprehending or securing, or in endeavouring to apprehend or secure, any of the Offenders before mentioned, upon Proof thereof made at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, for the County, Liberty, Division, or Place, where the Offence was or should be committed, or the Party killed or receive such Wound, by the Person or Persons so apprehending and causing the said Offender to be convicted, or the Person or Persons so wounded, or the Executors or Administrators of the Party killed, the Justices of the said Sessions should give a Certificate thereof to such Person or Persons so wounded, or to the Executors or Administrators of the Person or Persons so killed, by which he or they should be entitled to receive of the Sheriff of the said County the Sum of Fifty Pounds, to be allowed the said Sheriff in passing his Accounts in the Exchequer; which Sum of Fifty Pounds the said Sheriff was thereby required to pay within Thirty Days from the Day in which such Certificate should be produced and shown unto him, under the Penalty of forfeiting the Sum of Ten Pounds to the said Person or Persons to whom such Certificate should be given; for which said Sum of Ten Pounds, as well as the said Sum of Fifty Pounds, such Person might and was thereby authorized to bring an Action upon the Case against such Sheriff, as for Money had and received for his or their Use, as by the said Act (amongst other Penalties and Provisions therein contained) may appear: And whereas the said recited Act, being Temporary, was, by an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, continued from the Expiration thereof for Five Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and by one other Act passed the last Session of Parliament, was further continued until the First Day of September, which shall be in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and thirty-six, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament: And whereas We are deeply sensible of the many mischievous Consequences that must inevitably ensue to the Peace of this our Kingdom, and the Properties of our loving Subjects, from the wicked and detestable Practices in the said recited Act mentioned, and are therefore firmly resolved to cause the said Act to be effectually put in Execution; but being also desirous, out of our fatherly Tenderness for our People, that none of them should be ignorant of the same, nor unwarily subject themselves to the Punishments thereby inflicted, We have thought fit, with the Advice of our Privy Council, to issue this our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby strictly charge and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever do do presume to commit or attempt any Act, Matter, or Thing whatsoever, contrary to the said, recited Act, and the true Intent and Meaning thereof, and that the said Act be in every particular punctually observed and kept, upon pain of the several Penalties by the said Act inflicted upon Offenders against the same. And We do further strictly command and require all our Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Under-Sheriffs, and Civil Officers whatsoever, and all other our Subjects, that they do use their utmost Endeavours to discover and apprehend all such Persons as have been or shall be guilty of, or in any wise concerned in, any of the Offences before mentioned; and that they do effectually put in Execution the said recited Act, and all other Laws and Statutes made against any of the Offences before mentioned. And whereas We have received Information, that great Numbers of disorderly and evil disposed Persons armed with Fire-Arms and other offensive Weapons, have of late, in open Contempt of our Laws, assembled together, and entred divers of our Forests and Chases, and killed and carried off great Quantities of Red and Fallow Deer, in Defiance of the Keepers of our said Forests and Chases; now as an Encouragement to all Persons to be diligent and active in bringing all such Offenders to condign Punishment, We do hereby promise and declare, that any Person or Persons who shall apprehend or cause to be apprehended any Person, who since the Twentieth Day of May last past, hath unlawfully killed, destroyed, or stolen, or before the Twentieth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and thirty-four, shall unlawfully kill, destroy, or steal, any Red or Fallow Deer in any of our Forests, Chases, or Parks, so as he be convicted thereof, shall have and receive, for every such Offender so apprehended and convicted, the Sum of Fifty Pounds (being the same Reward mentioned in the London Gazette, published by Authority on Saturday the Twentieth Day of June last) over and above all other Rewards to which such Person or Persons may be entitled; which Sum the Commissioners of our Treasury, or High Treasurer of Great Britain for the Time being, are hereby directed and required to pay accordingly, without any further Warrant in that Behalf. And We do hereby further strictly charge and command all our Officers, and all other our loving Subjects, that they be aiding and assisting in the Execution of our Commands herein, and in the apprehending and taking all such Offenders as aforesaid, to the Intent that they may be prosecuted with the utmost Severity and Rigour of Law.
