From Tuesday November 27. to Saturday December 1. 1733.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 29th Day of November, 1733.

P R E S E N T,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majesty in Council was this Day graciously pleased to deliver the Great Seal to the Right Honourable Charles Talbot, Esq; who was thereupon, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and likewise Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and accordingly took his Place at the Board.

Paris, Dec. 5, N. S. The Army on the Rhine being separated the 13th past, the Marshal Duke of Berwick went that Day to Strasbourg, and afterwards to Fort Louis and Huninghen, to see how the new Works which he had ordered to be made there were carried on: From thence he went to view Landau, and on the 29th returned to Versailles. Letters from Italy advise, that the King of Sardinia departing from Pavia with his Army, came to Malleo near Pizzighitone the 10th of last Month, and caused the Fort called Gerra d'Adda to be invested by a Detachment. On the 11th the Marshal de Villars arrived in the Camp. Some Days were spent in Preparations for the Siege of the said Fort, and in laying over the Adda Bridges of Communication with the Troops lying on the other Side of that River before Pizzighitone. The Night between the 17th and 18th the Trenches were opened against Gerra d'Adda, and the Approaches being made regularly till the Night between the 23d and 24th, the King of Sardinia ordered the Cover'd-Way of that Fort to be attacked, and the Besiegers were driven out of it, Three of our Captains of Granadiers being killed or wounded, 20 Men killed and 110 wounded.

Yesterday His Majesty was pleased to constitute and appoint, by Commission under the Great Seal, John Willes, Esq; to be His Attorney General; and also Dudley Rider, Esq; to be His Solicitor General.

His Majesty has likewise been pleased to grant to the said John Willes, Esq; Precedency in all His Majesty's Courts of Justice, during his Life, next after the Attorney General of His Majesty, His Heirs, and Successors.

Whitehall, Nov. 28, 1733.

Whereas on Monday the 5th of this Instant November, Christopher Best, one of the Peace Officers of the Hamlet of Mile-End Old-Town, in the Parish of Stepney, in the County of Middlesex, with Mathew Davis, a Watchman, going their Rounds about Three of the Clock in the Morning, were violently assaulted by Four Persons, (to whom they gave no Provocation) who cut the said Christopher Best over the Head in divers Places with a Hanger, and a Pistol being fired at the same Time, shot the said Mathew Davis into the Head, of which Wound he died about Thirty Hours after: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Murder, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement Edmund Wright, Church-Warden of the said Parish, does hereby promise (by Order of the Inhabitants of the said Hamlet) a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any one of them, or to any other Person or Persons who shall make such Discovery, as aforesaid; to be paid by me Edmund Wright, upon Conviction of any one of the Persons concerned in the said Murder.

Edm. Wright.

Treasury, Dublin, 2d of October, 1733.

This is to give Notice to the several Proprietors of the Orders or Receipts for the Loan of Three Hundred Thousand Pounds, that on Tuesday the 4th Day of December next, between the Hours of Ten and Twelve in the Forenoon, the Numbers of the said several Orders or Receipts will be put into a Box or Urn, in order to draw out as many of the said Numbers as shall amount to the Sum of Twenty Thousand Pounds, which said Sum of Twenty Thousand Pounds, with all the Interest due thereon, shall be paid off and discharged at His Majesty's Treasury on the 24th Day of December next; from which Time the Interest on the said Twenty Thousand Pounds is to cease and determine.

Lu. Gardiner, Dep. Rec. Gen.

Whitehall, Nov. 15, 1733.

Whereas on the First Day of this Instant November, between One and Two o' Clock in the Morning, several Persons on Horseback, armed with Guns, Pistols, and Axes, cut down the Over Turnpike, near the City of Gloucester, threatening the People in the Neighbourhood with Death, if they looked at them from their Windows: His Majesty, for the better Discovery of the Persons concerned in the said Crime, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them who shall discover his Accomplices, so as they or any one of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof; and also a Reward of Fifty Pounds to such Person, or to any other Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, payable upon Conviction of such Offender or Offenders.
