Petersbourg, April 19, O. S.

M. Kizerling, who has been for some Time at this Court with the Prince of Bevern, has received the Character of Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Wolfenbüttel, and will soon have his first Audience in that Quality of the Czarina. M. Kune, a Swiss Merchant, is gone to Narva to hire a Ship or two, to transport to France about 200 French Soldiers, who were left last Year sick at that Place, when the others went from thence.

Warsaw, May 5, N. S. The Prince of Weissenfeldt arrived here the 28th past, and was very well received at Court; and as a Mark of it, he has been presented by King Augustus with a Diamond Ring of Value, and a Bill of 50,000 Crowns for his late Services. The 1st Instant, the Castellan of Cracow, the Palatin of Kiow, the Grand Marshal, and the Crown Master of the Horse, with their Families, came hither; and the next Day had Audience of King Augustus, and the Honour of dining with him. A Solemn Deputation of the Army that remained with the Palatin of Kiow, have also had an Audience. The Palatin of Culm, and others, are gone to Lublin, to open the great Tribunal of the Kingdom there, which was held some Months ago at Petrickow, and adjourned to that Place, as usual. The Stolnick of Lithuania Sapieha, is appointed to go with the Bishop of Warmia, who is already in that Diocese, to treat with the Lithuanians concerning their Accommodation with this Court, to which they now seem inclined, according to Accounts from thence. A General Meeting of the Palatinate of Podolia, was to be the 26th of last Month, to name Deputies for acknowledging King Augustus, according to the Account of the Storafta Belsh, a near Relation of the Primate, and of several others who have already been with the Prince of Hesse Hombourg at Leopold for that Purpose. General Lacy goes to Day or Tomorrow for Cracow, from whence, as is given out, he is to march with his Body of Russian Troops directly for the Rhine, according to his present Orders; and Commissaries from the Emperor are to meet him up on the Frontiers. That General says, that Orders were very lately come from his Court, for making up the Number 30,000 Men for the Emperor's Service as soon as possible. The Primate has writ to the Castellan of Cracow by the last Post, desiring him to answer for his Fidelity to King Augustus, and solicit his being set at Liberty, though he does not say he will immediately acknowledge him for his King; he has also writ to the Felt-Marshal Munich, begging to be released, but without mentioning King Augustus.
