From Tuesday July 18. to Saturday July 22. 1738.

AT the Court at Kensington, the Twentieth Day of July, 1738.

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This Day the Right Honourable James Earl of Abercorne was, by his Majesty's Command, sworn of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council; and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to order, that the Parliament which stands prorogued to Thursday the Twenty-seventh of this Instant July, should be further prorogued to Friday the Thirteenth Day of October next.

Kensington, July 21.

The following humble Address having been transmitted from Dublin to his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been presented to his Majesty; by whom it was very graciously received.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Provost, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Provost, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the late happy Increase of your August Family.

The Birth of an Heir hath ever been esteemed as well an additional Strength to a Prince, as a Pledge of Peace to his People. But this which would be a Happiness to every Nation, is more peculiarly so to your Loyal Subjects of these Realms; in as much as not only the Publick Tranquility, but our Civil Rights and Holy Religion can only be secured by a constant Succession to these Crowns in your Illustrious Family.

May God prosper and maintain both, by preserving long your Sacred Life, and conveying with your Crown the far better Inheritance of your Royal Virtues to all your Posterity.

Hague, July 25, N. S. We learn by Letters from Vienna of the 16th Instant, that after the Engagement at Cornia on the 4th Instant, the Turks kept retiring, as the Imperialists advanced, without coming to Blows, except some few exchanged between the foremost and hindmost of the two Armies, till on the 9th the Grand Duke, presenting himself before Meadia, that Place capitulated upon the first Summons, though its Garrison is said to have been above 2000 Men strong, and well provided with Artillery, Ammunition, and every thing necessary: and his Royal Highness pursuing his March towards Orsova, was met on the 10th by an Officer, whom the Governour of that Place had dispatched to meet him, with the welcome News of the Turks having entirely abandoned that Siege, and retired with great Precipitation on both Sides the Danube towards Widdin: 'Twas said they left behind them in their Works and Camp, 30 Pieces of Cannon for Battery, 10 Mortars, and 1500 Waggon or Carts, with all their Tents, Provisions, and Ammunition.

Hague, July 29, N. S. The King of Prussia is at Wesel, daily reviewing the Troops he has in that Neighbourhood. He is expected with the Prince Royal his Son at Loo, where the Court of Orange is at present, on Friday next. As to his Journey to Holland, it is now doubted. The States of Holland continue their Assembly. The Minister of Poland has delivered to the States a Letter from the King his Master, notifying the Birth of a Prince his Son. The said Minister is preparing to entertain to Morrow a great many Persons

(Price Two Pence.)

Persons of Distinction with a Supper and Ball, on Occasion of the Marriage of the King of the Two Sicilies with the Princess of Poland.

Whitehall, July 21, 1738.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that in the Month of March last, a Dutch Ship, called the Anna and Helena, was stranded in Bigbury Bay in the County of Cornwall, laden with Wine, Brandy, and other Goods, the greatest Part of which Cargo was plundered and carried off by great Numbers of Persons, who assembled in a riotous and tumultuous Manner to His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Robbery and Plunder, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any Four of the Offenders, who shall first discover Three or more of their Accomplices, so that they be apprehended and convicted of the said Offence.

HARRINGTON.

Whitehall, May 20, 1738.

It having been represented to His Majesty, That a most notorious and wicked Practice has of late Years prevailed, and does now particularly prevail, to a very high Degree, in His Majesty's Forest, called New Forest, in the County of Southampton, for Persons unknown, not only to cut down Trees, and Part of Trees, fit for the Service of His Majesty's Navy, but likewise to steal and take away from the said Forest, Timber, after it has been squared into proper Lengths for that Service; and it being apprehended, that the Persons guilty of the said Theft are chiefly encouraged thereto by Persons in the Neighbourhood, who receive the same from them to His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the said Offenders, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of them, who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. And as a farther Encouragement thereto, His Majesty is pleased to promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds to any Person or Persons, who shall discover any Person or Persons, that have stolen, or may hereafter steal, any Timber from the said Forest, as aforesaid, or that have received, or may hereafter receive, any such Timber, knowing the same to be stolen, so that the said Offender or Offenders may be apprehended and convicted thereof; the said Reward to be paid by the Surveyor General of his Majesty's Woods for the Time being, on the Conviction of any of the said Offenders.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Victualling Office, July 19, 1738.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy give Notice, That on Wednesday the 23d of August next, in the Forenoon, they will be ready to receive Proposals in Writing, sealed up, at their Office on Tower-hill, from all such Persons as are willing to serve His Majesty's Navy with Butter, Suffolk and Cheshire Cheese, for the Year ensuing, ending at Michaelmas 1739.
