A^T the Court at St. James's, the Nineteenth Day of January, 1743.

PRESËNT,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majefty having been gracioufly pleafed to deliver the Cuftody of the Seals of the Dutchy and County Palatine of Lancafter, to the Right Honourable Richard Lord Edgcumbe, the Oath of Chancellor of the faid Dutchy was this Day, by his Majefty's Command, administred to his Lordfhip.

This Day the Right Honourable Sir John Rufhout, Baronet, was, by his Majefty's Command, fworn of his Majefty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

Petersbourg, Dec. 20. Sunday last being the Empress's Birth-Day, her Imperial Majesty went in State to the Cathedral Church; after Divine Service there was a very numerous Appearance at Court of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction, to compliment her Majesty on the Occasion. The Empress dined in Publick on a Throne, and the Nobility, Ladies of the Court, the Senate, Synod, Generals of the Army, and Officers of the Guards, and the Honour to dine in the fame Room. The Vice-Chancellor, Count Beftucheff, gave an elegant Entertainment to all the Foreign Ministers. In the Evening there was a Balt at Court, and a grand Illumination upon the Ice, on the River over against the Palace, representing a Garden with Trees, Parterres, &c. There were alfo Illuminations, and other publick Demonstrations of Joy throughout the City. The fame Day the Empress was pleased to appoint the Grand Marshal, Count Bestucheff, to be her Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of Berlin.

Petersbourg, Dec. 27, M. de la Chetardie, the French Ambaffadour, continues to frequent the Court as a private Gentleman, and cannot take his publick Character, nor enter upon any Buliness with the Ministers of this Court, till the Point of giving the Title of Empress to the Czarina is fettled. We hear that M. Holsten, the new Danish Minister, has passed thro' Berlin in his Way to this Court, and he is expected here in a few Days.

His Excellency the Lord Tyrawley fet out last Sunday Morning for Amsterdam, on his Way to Petersburg. The fame Day we had a fuffocating Fog here, which was for excessively thick, that People were confined to their Houses for a great Part of the Day, the Town being as it were buried in a Cloud, and every Thing invisible. Those who had ventured to Church in the Morning, before it camé to that Height, could not find the Way home again, but were obliged to stay in Church till it diffipated. As there are but few Canals here, we had none of the Accidents which are but too common on the like Occasions in the other Cittes, by Peoples running jnto the Water; and hithetto we don't hear of its having extended farther than this Place.
