WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the Seventeenth Year of his Majesty's Reign, it was enacted, That if the Eldest, or any other Son or Sons of the Person who pretended to be Prince of Wales in the Lifetime of the late King James the Second, and since his Decease assumed the Name and Title of James the Third, King of England, Scotland and Ireland, should, after the First Day of May, in the Year One thousand seven hundred and forty four, land, or attempt to land, or be found in Great Britain or Ireland, or any of the Dominions or Territories belonging to the Crown of Great Britain, or should be found on board any Ship, Vessel or Boat, being so on board with Intent to land in Great Britain or Ireland, or any of the Dominions or Territories aforesaid, he and they respectively should, by Virtue of the said Act, stand and be adjudged attainted of High Treason to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever. And whereas we have received Information, that the Eldest Son of the said Pretender did lately embark in France, in order to land in some Part of His Majesty's Kingdoms, we being moved with just Indignation at so daring an Attempt, and desirous that the said Act may be carried effectually into Execution, have thought fit, by the Advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, and do hereby, in His Majesty's Name, command and require all His Majesty's Officers, Civil and Military, and all other His Majesty's loving Subjects, to use their utmost Endeavours to seize and secure the said Son of the Pretender, whenever he shall land, or attempt to land, or be found in Great Britain or Ireland, or any of the Dominions or Territories belonging to the Crown of Great Britain; or shall be found on board any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, being so on board with Intent to land in Great Britain or Ireland, or any of the Dominions or Territories aforesaid, in order to his being brought to Justice, and to give Notice thereof immediately when he shall be so seized and secured, to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State. And to the Intent that all due Encouragement may be given to so important a Service, we do hereby further, in His Majesty's Name, promise a Reward of Thirty Thousand Pounds to such Person and Persons who shall so seize and secure the said Son of the said Pretender, so as that he may be brought to Justice. And His Majesty's High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, is and are hereby required to make Payment thereof accordingly. And if any of the Persons, who have adhered to or assisted, or who shall adhere to or assist the said Pretender, or his said Son, shall seize and secure him the said Son as aforesaid, he or they who shall so seize and secure him, shall have His Majesty's Gracious Pardon, and shall also receive the said Reward, to be paid in Manner aforesaid.

Given at Whitehall the first Day of August, in the Nineteenth Year of his Majesty's Reign.

GOD Save the KING.

(Price Four-pence.)

His Majesty's

Helsingbourg, July 24, O. S. His Swedish Majesty has been at General Düring's in this Neighbourhood, but as the House is too little for his and Prince William of Hesse's Retinue, his Majesty set out from thence on Monday last, for a House belonging to Count Meyerfeld, which lies about a Swedish Mile and a half from Ystadt, where Prince William is to land. According to the last Letters from Cassel, his Highness was to begin his Journey as this Day, so that if his Stay be not long at Hanover, he is expected in seven or eight Days.

From the Sardinian Camp at Montcadet near Alexandria in Italy, July 26, N. S.

OUR Army is reinforcing every Day; and the Austrians, with whom we are encamped here, are now 25,000 strong. They also expect to be reinforced with two Battalions of Palfi's Regiment, 2000 Recruits for their Foot, and 600 Horse to remount their Cavalry and Hussars. We have joined them with 15,000 Men; so that at present the Whole of our Force amounts to 40,000 effective Men, excluding five Battalions which were left at Tortona, and 10 Battalions that we have in Alexandria. In this last Place the Garrison is very numerous, well provided with Artillery, and with Provisions for six Months. We are encamped along the Tanaro, almost as far as Bassignano upon the Left, and our Right Wing extends to Pavon, a short Mile off Alexandria. The King's Quarters are at Montcadet. We have two Bridges over the Po at Bassignano, four over the Tanaro in our Front, and a fifth over the River near Alexandria. The Austrian Infantry and Light Horse were encamped in the Villages of Loby and Piovera, but this Morning they are moved to a Place between the Bourmida and the Tanaro, and are extended from the Confluence of these two Rivers quite to the Town. M. Gages marched the 24th to within two Miles of Tortona, his Right Wing reaching to near Garoffo, and his Left to St. Julien. He has sent a large Detachment of Foot to attack Serravalle, and we can hear the Cannon from that Town. If it holds out five or six Days, it is all that can be expected from it. It is reported here, that M. Gages would upon this Day advance nearer to Tortona, in order to invest it in Form, and to subvert his Cavalry in the Pavasan on the Side of Voghera, till he can receive the great Artillery, which the Genoese are to furnish him with from Gavi, in order to form the Siege. The advanced Guard of the Infant's Army was Yesterday reconnoitring along the Right Side of the Bormida, quite up to the rising Grounds near Alexandria, and a few Shot were exchanged between them and our Hussars and Waradins; but upon the Approach of some Companies of Grenadiers, which the King order'd to march out of Tortona, and which his Majesty and his Royal Highness accompanied, they thought proper to retire. This Morning we have received Advice, that the whole Army under the Infant is marched towards Ceriolo and Piovera, opposite to and almost within two Miles of our Camp, from which we conclude, that they will form an Army of Observation whilst Count Gages is carrying on the Siege of Tortona. It is also given out here, that M. Gages has avoided a Junction with the Infant, because he would not be subordinate to M. Maillebois. Their three Armies are at present supply'd with Field Pieces only, and the Genoese are to furnish them with 40 Battering Pieces from Gavi. The Division under M. Audybert, consisting of 10 Battalions, joined the Army upon the 21st. That under the Prince of Baden, consisting of seven Battalions, is to join us To-morrow. General Sinffan with 15 Battalions is still in Possession of the Eminencies of the Langhes upon Chierasco and the Mondovi, by Means of the Posts he has upon the Gaves and Bagnasco. The Gallicians, who remained on the Side of Oniglia, in order to preserve the Communication with Provence, have been twice repulsed from the Castles of Isola and Dolce Aqua, which they had twice attempted to retake. M. Lautrec has not yet got out of the Defiles to Barcelonette, as was reported. M. Sinffan has it in his Power still to join our Army, and act in Concert with us.

Journal of the Saxon Auxiliary Army in Bohemia, from the 3d to the 5th of August, N. S. dated from their Head Quarters at Johannisberg near Konigingratz.

August 3. THE Prussians have formed a Corps of 14000 Men behind the Mettau, between Zwol and Richnuweck, including those who were before posted near Wesselitz upon the same River. They continue in their old Posts along the Banks of the Elbe, and have lately taken Possession of the Angle formed by the Aupa and the Mettau near Jaromirz. A Corps of 4000 Men, whom they had detached Yesterday towards Hottziz, is returned to their Camp. By the Reports of Deserters, this Detachment was sent out in order to escort a Convoy of Money sent from Silesia, and which they conducted to the Army.

Prince Charles gave a grand Entertainment to the Officers of our Army, on Account of the Nameday of the King of Poland.

Upon the 4th, a Prussian Deserter from the Regiment of Life-Guards informed us, that the King of Prussia had detached 5000 Horse and Foot under the Command of the Prince Dietrich d'Anhalt Dessau, into Silesia.

We

We had Advice from Colonel Wilczewski, that a Corps of 6000 Prussians was again arrived in the Neighbourhood of Hertziz, design'd probably to escorte the Convoys which were expected at the Prussian Army by that Road.

This Morning Part of the Prussian Right Wing foraged at Stratschow.

A Battalion, consisting of three Companies, amounting in the whole to 500 Men, arrived at Prince Charles's Quarters from Transilvania. They are called Saxons, and the greatest Part of them are originally from Hermanstatt.

Upon the 5th a Transilvanian Regiment of 1000 Horse also came in to the Austrian Camp, commanded by Colonel Sinkerefti. They will be sent to join the Corps under General Nadafti, who is still posted on this Side the Metau to observe the Motions of the Prussians, who are considerably reinforced on the other Side of the said River.

Prince Charles also expects 2400 Pandours, and a like Number of other irregular Troops, who are upon the Road from Upper Silesia, in order to join the Army here.

Berlin, August 10, N. S. We are making Preparations here for an Expedition of the utmost Consequence. Sixteen Pieces of Cannon of 24 Pounds, besides several others of a smaller Bore, and some Field Pieces, were taken out of the Arsenal Yesterday. The sixteen Pieces were embarked, together with a great Quantity of warlike Stores, and are to be transported down the Elbe towards Magdebourg; the others are to be sent to Franckfort upon the Oder and Crossen. The four Battalions from the Dutchy of Cleves are already in March, and the Reigning Prince of Dessau will remain here till the 20th, when every Thing will be in Readiness. A considerable Corps of our Troops is posted at Buntzlau in Silesia, upon the Frontiers of Upper Silesia.

Hambourg, August 11, N. S. Baron Korff is arrived here from Kiel, where, it is said, his Commission has been to declare the Majority of the young Duke of Holstein, and to prepare Matters for regulating a new Administration. The Prince Successor to the Crown of Sweden has been ill, and reported to have been in Danger, but it is now written from Stockholm, that he is perfectly recovered from his late Indisposition, and that his Princess is six Months gone in her Pregnancy.

Hague, August 17, N. S. An Officer arrived here To-day with the News of the Reddition of Dendermonde, after a Resistance of less than one Day. The whole Garrison is by the Capitulation incapacitated to serve in any Shape or Place till January 1747. Prince Waldeck being on a reconnoitring Party towards Affche, on the 12th Instant, with about 900 Dutch, fell in with a Detachment of French Dragoons, Grassins, and Uhlans, almost double the Number of his Escorte, and had the good Luck to beat them off, with the Loss only of one Officer and three or four Men on his Side; after having killed a Colonel and a good Number of the Enemy, and taken a Captain, of Dragoons, and about a Score of private Men Prisoners. The little Castle of Serravalle defended itself on the 2d Instant, though the whole Allied Army lay round it, and the Trenches had been opened twelve Days before it.

Whitehall, August 10.

Yesterday arrived here from Hanover, one of his Majesty's Messengers with Orders for the immediate Departure of the Yachts to Helvoetsluys, his Majesty having been pleased to declare his Intention to return speedily to England.

The King has been pleased to grant unto William Pepperell, Esq; of the Province of New England, in North America, the Dignity of a Baronet of the Kingdom of Great-Britain.

Admiralty-Office, August 10.

In Pursuance of His Majesty's Pleasure, the Lords of the Admiralty have appointed Peter Warren, and the Honourable John Byng, Esqrs. Rear Admirals of the Blue.

Admiralty Office, August 10.

The following Advices from East India are certain, and may be depended on, being given by an Officer of the East India Company's, just arrived in England.

The Deptford, Capt. Barnet, Commodore, and the Preston, Lord Northesk, of 60 and 50 Guns, separated from the Medway, Capt. Payton, and the Diamond, Capt. Moore, of 60 and 20 Guns, sometime after they left Madagascar, where they had been for Water and Provisions; the two first went for the Streights of Sunda, and thence to the Streights of Banca, and the two last proceeded for the Streights of Mallacca; the Commodore and his Consort disguised their Ships by painting, &c. after the French and Dutch Manner; after being some Time at Anchor in the Streights of Banca, appeared the three French Company's Ships, laden from Canton for Europe, the Dauphin Capt. Butler, the Hercules Capt. Dufrein, Le Jason Capt. Delametrie; the English Ships hoisted Dutch Colours, and, as soon as the French came near, they lowered the Dutch Colours and hoisted English, calling at the same Time to strike theirs for the King of England, which not being done, the Commodore gave the French Capt. Butler a Broadside, which he and his Consorts returned, and a sharp Engagement ensued for the Space of three Hours, during which the Dauphin with a Cannon Shot carried away Commodore Barnett's

Tillex

Tiller Rope, which disconcerted him for some Time.

The Hercules and Jason, by Reason of the little Breeze and their Distance, could not in Time come to the Dauphin's Aid, and jointly attack the 50 Gun Ship, while the other could not for some Time steer, which Circumstance it is said might have given Occasion to the Hercules to escape, sailing better than the rest; after a brave Resistance they were forced to strike; then the Commodore sent Officers and Men to take Possession, and to bring the French Officers on board his Ship, where he received them like a gallant generous Officer, shewing them all the Favour and Friendship depending on him, and usual in such Cases; the like good Treatment received the rest of the Gentlemen sent on board the Preston, Lord Northesk.

The St. Louis, Captain Johannes, laden from Canton and bound to Mauritius, was taken some Days afterwards by Captain Cumming in a Privatier of 30 Guns from England.

The two Chief Supra Cargos, Messieurs Margrin and La Val, with the three second Captains, and two Officers, were, by Order of the Commodore, put on Board the English China Ships, and the rest, with the Ships, carried to Batavia.

The other two Ships in their way to the Streights of Malacca called at Achin, where they found a French Privatier, fitted out and sent by the Company to cruize in the China Seas; they carried her with them through the Streights of Malacca, and in the Way took a French Ship from Manilla, said to be rich. When we came through the Streights of Banca, these two Ships were lying with the two Prizes disguised like their Consorts who took the three French China Men, of which they had no Account, but being told by us, that the French Ships had left Canton long before us, they thereupon resolved to go to their Rendezvous at Batavia.

Admiralty-Office, August 6, 1745.

Several of His Majesty's Ships, fitting out for the Sea in the Ports of this Kingdom, being in immediate Want of a Supply of Seamen for present Service, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have, with the Approbation of their Excellencies the Lords Justices, ordered every Sixth Seaman to be taken from the Crew of all Ships or Vessels having Protections, Boys under Eighteen Years, and old Men exceeding Fifty-five Years not being esteemed in the Number of the Crew. But their Lordships do hereby declare, that all Seamen so taken, shall be discharged when-ever they desire it after the 30th Day of November next coming, and shall have a Ticket made out for their Wages; and their Lordships are authorized by their Excellencies the Lords Justices to declare, that the Wages due on such Tickets shall be forthwith paid by the Treasurer of the Navy: And they shall besides have a Protection from their Lordships to secure them for one Month from the Press.
