Leghorn, Dec. 31, N. S. By Letters from Genoa of the 25th Instant, it had been resolved in the Grand Council to open a Loan of 150,000 Scudis of Silver, payable out of the Revenues of the French and Spanish Posts, their most Christian and Catholick Majesties having, in the late Treaty with the Republick, consented to the Abolishment of the two Post-Offices established hitherto by their Authority in the City. At the Request of the Court of Spain, the Republick has consented to raise a sufficient Number of Genoese Seamen to mann the Fleet at Carthagenas; and have actually begun, by giving them two Months Pay Advance, with Security to pay Half the Wages to the Families of those who enter voluntarily; and after their having been a certain fixed Time in the Service, if they desire it, they are to be discharged to return Home. It is said that a Resolution will be taken to discharge the People of three of their Gallies, to ease the present Expences of the State. The Vaudois keep Possession of the Defilé of the Carcari, and threaten the Western Riviera, belonging to the Republick, with a second Invasion; the Fears of which have determin'd the Republick to remove, into Places of Security, the Treasure that belongs to the Church called the

the Lady of Savona, which is situated about eight Miles from the City of that Name. Letters from Mantua of the 24th advise, that Don Philip made his Entry into Milan the 19th Instant, and that M. de Gages was making Preparations to besiege the Citadel. The same Letters confirm the Communication of the Imperial Army with the Milanese and Mantuan States being cut off by a strong Corps of Troops posted on the opposite Side of the Tesin, under the Command of M. de Vieuville. Letters from Madrid of the 1st Instant advise, that the Court had sent repeated Orders to expedite the Embarkation of the Troops at Barcelona, for reinforcing the Army in Italy, and enabling them to push on their Designs with Vigour. By the Spence Sloop arrived here two Days ago, in eight Days from Mahone, there is an Account, that a French Martinico Ship had been taken off Cadiz by some of his Britannick Majesty's Ships, and sent into Gibraltar.

Berlin, Jan. 15, N. S. The Peace was published here on the 12th Instant by a Herald. In the Evening there was a Ridotto, and the painted Temple of Peace was illuminated, as were likewise the Palaces of the Prince of Prussia and Margrave Charles. A triumphal Arch was raised and illuminated at the Expence of the French Burghers who inhabit a Part of this Town. Some Tables were prepared in the Opera House, where the Burghers had Liberty to eat. The whole Royal Family is at present here.

Inverness, Dec. 29. The March of Mr. Macleod with the Detachment of 700 Men, without the Grants, who returned from Strathbogie, forced the Rebels to retire to Aberdeen, and to send for a Reinforcement from Montrose, Dundee, &c. They marched out of Aberdeen on the 23d Instant with about 1200 Men, so secretly, that they came up with Mr. Macleod at Inverourie, where he lay with about 300 of his Men (the rest being cantoon'd in the Neighbourhood, at the Distance of a Mile or two) after Four o'Clock in the Evening, without being discovered, till they were ready to begin the Attack; Mr. Macleod however, and Captain Munro of Cullairn, got the Handful of Men they had in the Village immediately together, and notwithstanding the Surprise, and the great Inequality of Numbers, maintained their Ground for about 20 Minutes, until they had fired away the greatest Part of their Shot, and then made their Retreat in so good Order, that the Enemy did not think fit to pursue them one Yard. The Rebels do not pretend that we lost in this Scuffle any more than seven Men killed, and 15 so wounded that they could not be brought off. Their own Loss they took Care to conceal, by burying their Dead in the Night-time; but all the Reports from that Country agree, that it was much more considerable than ours. We have been obliged to retire to this Side the Spay, to prevent Surprizes of the like Nature, until we are reinforced. This Affair has however retarded the Rebels recruiting, and has forced them to detach from the South, which weakens them there.

Edinburgh, Jan. 11. Yesterday Morning about 3 or 400 of the Rebels went off in great Hurry from Falkirk towards Airth, to assist their Party there, in mounting their Cannon to cover their Passage over the River. It is said that the Rebels have demanded 600 l. Sterling Contribution from the Inhabitants of Falkirk.

Captain Faulkener, in the Vulture Sloop, being arrived at Inverkeithen Road, sent the Cutter and Boats before, who, upon their Arrival in Kincardin Road, saw a Brig come out of Airth, which the Rebels had seized in order to transport their Cannon from Allowa up the Firth, to batter Stirling Castle. The next Morning Captain Faulkener arrived in the Road likewise, and upon the Lieutenant of the Pearle's informing him of this, and of there being two more Vessels in Airth that were liable to be seized by the Rebels for the same Purpose, he sent the Boats manned and armed to burn them, which they effectually performed without the Loss of a Man, though the Rebels fired some Platoons from the Town. While this was doing the Tide fell so low, that he could not return to the Road that Night, upon which the Rebels in Airth opened a Battery of three Pieces of Cannon, and in the Morning began to play upon him very unexpectedly, but did him no Damage. The Fire from the Sloop dismounted two of their Cannon, killed their principal Engineer, as they heard by a Man of the Town, with some others, and drove the Rebels all out of the Town, and from their Battery; after which they drew off their Cannon to Elphinstone, and at the same Time got one more from the Body of their Army at Falkirk, and erected with them a Four Gun Battery on the Point of Elphinstone, in order to guard the Pass.

Colonel Leighton join'd them the 9th with 300 Men, and it was agreed to attack the Brig at Allowa, which had on board the Rebels Cannon; and for that Purpose to send 50 of Colonel Leighton's Men in a large Boat, with the Ship's Boats manned and armed, to lie all Night a Mile above Allowa, to prevent the said Brig's going up the Firth that Night, and Captain Faulkener and Colonel Leighton agreed to go up in the Morning Tide to attack the Town, and take her from under the Guns of Allowa, all which might have been executed, but the Boats, after they had passed the Town, unluckily grounded, which discovered the whole; upon which the Rebels beat to Arms, and fired from Right to Left very near Half a Mile, and obliged the Boats to retreat, with the Loss of one Man, and another's Leg shot off, but it prevented the Brig's going up that Tide; however it was resolved to go up in the Morning with the Ships, and Colonel Leighton's Men were landed at Kincardine, in order to attack them by Land; but while this was doing, the Brig took the Opportunity of the Tide, and sail'd up the Firth. According to Accounts since received, she had only two large Pieces of Cannon on board with Ammunition. There remains at Allowa five Pieces more, three of which are mounted on the Key.

Whitehall, Jan. 17, 1745-6.

Whereas an anonymous Letter directed to Sir Bouchier Wrey, Bart. at Exeter, and dated Moorfields, was about the End of last Month, received by the said Sir Bouchier Wrey, threatening him for promoting an Association of his Majesty's Subjects for the Publick Defence. His Majesty, for the better discovering, and bringing to Justice, the Person, or Persons, who wrote the said Letter, is graciously pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he, she or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a farther Encouragement, I do hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, upon the Conviction of the Offender, or Offenders.

Bouchier Wrey.

Navy-Office, Dec. 20. 1745.

The Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy hereby give Notice, that on Monday the 13th of January they will begin to recall, at the Pay Office in Broadstreet the Ships Books paid by the Right Honourable Mr. Clutterbuck and Sir Charles Wager, late Treasurers of his Majesty's Navy; as also those paid by William Corbett, Esq; and will continue the same from Week to Week, till all Claims shall be satisfied; they therefore desire all Persons who have Demands on the said Gentlemen, will forthwith apply for the same, that the said Pay Books may be closed as soon as possible.

Navy-Office, Dec. 20, 1745.

As the Passing the Accounts of the Right Honourable Mr. Clutterbuck, and Sir Charles Wager, late Treasurers of his Majesty's Navy; as likewise the Accounts of William Corbett, Esq; are carrying on at this Office with all the Expedition that may be, it is recommended to such Persons as have had Bills assigned upon them by the Navy Board, and have not received their Money for the said Bills, forthwith to call for the same; and all Persons who have any Imprests standing out against them, and have not any Bills or Accounts in this Office to clear the said Imprests, are desired forthwith to bring in their Bills or Accounts to discharge them, that so the said Imprests may not be brought to Account, and returned into the Exchequer, as otherwise they will be: And such Persons as have passed their Accounts, and have not taken up their Imprests, are required to carry their Perfect Bills to the late Treasurers Office, and to take up their Imprests.

Navy Office, January 17, 1745.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice to such Persons as are possessed of Bills carrying Interest, made out in the Months of May and June last, and payable on the Course of the Navy, Victualling, or Transports, that they may, on bringing the said Bills to the Office of the Treasurer of his Majesty's Navy in Broad Street, on or before the 3d of February now next ensuing, receive Tallies and Orders on the Land Tax for the Year 1746, carrying Interest at the Rate of 4 l. per Cent. per Annum, to the Amount and in Discharge of what shall be due on their said Bills respectively.

Victualling Office, January 16, 1745.

The Commissioners for Victualling his Majesty's Navy give Notice, that on Friday the 24th Instant, in the Forenoon, they will be ready to treat for Oxen and Hogs for Sea Store for the Port of Plymouth, for the Service of his Majesty's Navy.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of his Majesty's Ship Sapphire, who were on board at the taking a French Prize call'd La Talante, that they may receive their several Shares of the said Prize, on Wednesday the 5th Day of February next, at the Baptist Head Tavern, the Corner of Aldermanbury; and that the Shares which are not then demanded, may be received at the same Place the first Wednesday in every Month till they are all paid.

Notice is hereby given, that the Captains and Officers, who by Agreement are entitled to Shares in the La Chamfleur, a French Prize, taken by His Majesty's Ship Augusta, the Honourable John Hamilton, Esq; Commander, that a Dividend of the Ship and Cargo, exclusive of the Silver, will be made on Friday the 24th of January Instant, at the Antwerp Tavern behind the Royal Exchange, from Ten to Two; and the Shares not then demanded, will be paid at the same Place on the first Friday of every Month, and at Mr. Morebreads, Merchant in Plymouth, the third Thursday in every Month, for three Years to come.

Whereas the private Ship of War called the Ruby, (Robert Saunders Commander) did in or about the Months of July and August, 1744. take and seize three French Vessels, called Le St. Francois de Paule, (Antoine Martin, Master,) Le Pestillon du Salonique, (Antoine Fougasse, Master) and Le St. Laurent, (Jean Jacques Masser, Master) the first of which was carried into Malta, the second into Rhodes, and the third into Zant. And whereas the said three French Vessels, together with the several Goods, Wares and Merchandizes, therein laden, and therewith taken and seized, were on the sixth Day of December, 1744, condemned in the High Court of Admiralty of England as the Ships and Goods of Enemies, and as good and lawful Prize to the Captors: Now this is to give Notice to all and every the Officers and Mariners then on board, and in the Service of the said private Ship of War the Ruby, Robert Saunders Commander, that the Owners thereof, do intend to make a Distribution of the Produce of the said Prizes, according to the Terms of the Agreement entered into by the said Officers and Mariners, and that the said Owners will meet at the Cross Keys in Cornhill, on Wednesday the 26th Day of February next, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, in order to pay to the said Officers and Mariners of the said private Ship of War the Ruby, Robert Saunders, Commander, their several and respective Shares and Proportions of the said French Prizes; at which Time and Place they are desired to attend in order to receive the same.

At a General Court of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, held at their publick Office, in Threadneedle-street, on Wednesday the 15th of January, 1745.

Resolved,

THAT a General Court be held on Monday the 20th of January instant, at the usual Hour.

Robert Lewin, Secretary.

This Day is Publish'd,
