The Lord Marshal's Order for a General Mourning for his late Royal Highness Frederick Prince of Wales.

IN Pursuance of an Order of Council, dated the 22d Day of March, 1750, These are to give Publick Notice, That it is expected that all Persons, upon the present Occasion of the Death of his late Royal Highness Frederick Prince of Wales, do put themselves into the deepest Mourning, (long Cloaks only excepted;) the said Mourning to begin upon Sunday the 31st of this Instant March.

Effingham, M.

Constantinople, February 7. Since the Disgrace of the three principal Officers of this Empire, every Thing has been very quiet, and no further Changes have been made, as were expected. A few Days ago Baron Penckler received an Express from Vienna, with Advice of the Death of the Empress Dowager, which he immediately notified to all the Ambassadors and Ministers residing at this Court from the Christian Powers, and they are all accordingly preparing to go into Mourning on that Occasion.

Algiers, Feb. 12. Three of our Corsairs are returned this Day into Port from a Cruize, and have brought in with them some rich Prizes. The late Success of our Cruizers has encouraged them to fit out more Ships, some of which are in such Forwardness, as that they will be soon able to put to Sea. The Corsairs of Tunis have likewise been very successful in some of their late Cruizes, and are getting ready to put to Sea again with all Expedition.

Naples, March 2. It having been represented to the King, that the Pirates from Barbary greatly obstruct the Navigation upon the Coast of Calabria, Orders have been given for the fitting out, with the utmost Expedition, several Vessels and Xebecs, which will be ready to put to Sea very soon to cruize against them. On the 3d Instant anchored in this Port, from the different Ports of this Kingdom, a Convoy of 40 Vessels, loaden with Provisions for this City. The King has nominated Ten Governors for the Direction of the large Workhouse that is building for the Poor, and has declared himself Prior thereof. Some of the Gentlemen of the Bed-Chamber having neglected their Attendance at Court, his Majesty has strictly ordered, that for the Future, those who neglect their Duty shall not be admitted at Court for four Months.

Petersbourg, March 6. The Empress, in Consideration of the good Services of Count Alexander Iwanowitz Schuwalow, has bestowed on him and his Heirs, the sole Property in the Iron Mines situate in the Districts of Istizsky and Ugosky, and all the Lands belonging to the Imperial Domains in the District of Veronitz, and known by the Name of Wischagorod, which 'tis said will bring him in an annual Revenue of Six Thousand Rubles.

Bologne, March 9. Prince Frederick of Deux Ponts, accompanied by a Retinue of about twenty Persons, arrived here last Saturday Night from Florence. On Sunday his Highness saw every Thing remarkable in this Town, and on Monday Morning early continued his Route for Germany.

Florence, March 12. On the 10th Instant, agreeable to the Directions from the Court of Vienna, the Funeral Obsequies were performed at St. Lawrence's Church, for the late Empress, by the Archbishop of Florence, and four Bishops of the State; at which Ceremony the Regency, the Foreign Ministers, the Chamberlains, the Senate, the Magistrates, the Military Officers, and the Nobility, were present. On the 9th arrived here from Lucca, on his Journey to Vienna, M. Sardini, Minister from that Republick to their Imperial Majesties.

Genoa, March 13. The Beginning of last Week a French Ship bound for the Morea was drove, by a violent Storm of Wind, against some
