

The London Gazette.

published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 18, to Saturday June 22, 1754.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 21st Day of June 1754,

P R E S E N T,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable Wills Earl of Hillsborough, Comptroller of His Majesty's Household; the Right Honourable George Grenville, Esquire, Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; the Right Honourable Sir Dudley Ryder, Knight, Lord Chief Justice of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench; the Right Honourable Sir Thomas Clarke, Knight, Master of the Rolls; and the Right Honourable Sir George Lyttelton, Baronet, Cofferer of His Majesty's Household, were, by His Majesty's Commands, sworn of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took their respective Places at the Board accordingly.

Kensington, June 20.

This Day the Chevalier d'Abreu, charged with the Affairs of the King of Spain, had his first private Audience of His Majesty; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable Sir Thomas Robinson, Knight of the Bath, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Charles Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

Constantinople, May 5. The Grand Seignior has not only ordered all the Treasure of the Governor of Damascus to be seized, but also turned him out of his Post, and confined him in a Tower on the Borders of the Black Sea. The Reason given for his Sublime Highness's acting in this severe Manner, is, the repeated Complaints he has received of the extravagant Demands and Extortions exacted by that Governor from the Christians who passed through his Province in their Way to Jerusalem, or any other Part of Palestine.

Moscow, May 13. On Saturday last her Imperial Majesty returned to this City from Troitzka, and this Morning she went to the Monastery of Jerusalem, where she proposes to spend some Days. The Great Prince and Great Princess intend to set out for Peterbourg towards the End of this Week, but the Day of the Empress's Departure is not absolutely fixed. The Regiments of Foot of Ouglitzkoi and Tschernigoffskoi, are on their March from Nerva to Peterbourg, in order to embark in the Gallies that are equipping there by her Imperial Majesty's Order.

Naples, May 21. Their Majesties and the whole Court continue at Portici, where several extraordinary Councils have lately been held upon Dispatches received from Madrid and Parma. Cardinal Serfale, our new Archbishop, is daily expected here from Rome, several of his Domesticks, and great Part of his Equipage, being already arrived.

Milan, May 28. Count Christiani, Great Chancellor of this Dutchy, proposes to set out in a few Days for Vaprio, where he is appointed to regulate, with the Venetian Commissary, certain Limits in Dispute in Istria and Frioule. The Duke of Modena is expected here towards the Middle of next Month, and they are already making Preparations for his Reception.

Dresden, June 4. The King's Departure for Poland being fixed for the 17th Instant, most of the Foreign Ministers are preparing to follow his Majesty.

Bonn, June 10. The Elector our Sovereign has received an Account from Munich, that the Princess, Spouse to Duke Clement of Bavaria, was delivered of a Prince on the 1st Instant, who died within half an Hour after its Birth: She had gone but seven Months of her Time.

Brussels, June 10. The Canal from Bruges to Ghent is almost finished, and will certainly be very advantageous, not only to those two Places, but to all the neighbouring Country. The Duke of Ahrenberg, who went lately to Luxembourg, to assist at the Assembly of the States of that Dutchy, and to make some Propositions to that Assembly on Behalf of the Empress Queen, is returned here from thence, extremely satisfied with the Execution of the Commission with which he was charged.

Paris, June 14. The King, who has been for some Time at Crecy, went from thence to Versailles

[Price Two-Pence.]