

the Protestant Kingdoms and States in Europe; and that you may transmit these invaluable Blessings under you Illustrious House, to our latest Posterity.

The following Address of the Officers of the two Battalions of the Norfolk Regiment of Militia, has been presented to His Majesty by Lord Orford, Lord Lieutenant of the said County, and one of the Lords of His Majesty's Bed Chamber: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Officers of the two Battalions of the Norfolk Regiment of Militia.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Officers of the two Battalions of the Norfolk Regiment of Militia, humbly beg Leave to lay at your Majesty's Feet the earliest Assurances of our Zeal and Affection for your Sacred Person and Government. The Happiness which this Nation hath enjoyed during your Majesty's glorious Reign, intitles you to every possible Instance of Duty from all your Subjects. But we rejoice in the Hopes of having it in our Power to realize those Professions of Allegiance, with which we humbly approach your Throne. The Arms, with which we are intrusted by your Majesty, shall never be employed in any other Cause than the Defence of your Royal Person and Government, which is the Defence of the Religion and Liberties of this Country. We are impatient to manifest our Zeal in so glorious a Cause, and shall be ready to obey your Majesty's Commands, in any Part of the Kingdom, with the Alacrity and Vigour of Subjects who have no Interest separate from that of their Prince, and of Soldiers who are determined to hazard their Lives in opposing all Attempts that shall be made against your Majesty, your Royal House, and the happy Constitution upon which your Throne is established.

Whitehall, June 16.

Whitehall, June 11, 1759.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, a Stable, belonging to the late dwelling House of Henry Bates, Esq; deceased, and which now belongs to Edward Richardson, Gent. at Datchet, near Windsor, in the County of Bucks, was, on Sunday the 11th of February last, in the Night, broke open; and that a Black cropt Mare, with a bald Face, about Fourteen Hands high, and also a Saddle, and double rein'd Curb-Bridle, were feloniously taken thereout, and have not since been heard of, or discover'd, by the said Edward Richardson, the Owner of them, though a Reward has been offered, and published, in the News Papers, by him, for that Purpose; and, that, it is supposed there were several Confederates in the said Robbery, as, in the Evening of the said Sunday, on which it was committed, as aforesaid, several Persons were seen, near the said Stable, armed with Fire Arms, Cutlasses, and other offensive Weapons, some of whom threatened the Lives of the Servants of the said Edward Richardson: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in breaking open the said Stable, and committing the said Robbery, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon, to any One of them, (except the Person principally concerned therein,) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Facts, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof. HOLDERNESSE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Edward Richardson, of Datchet aforesaid, does, hereby, promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except the Person principally concerned in the Robbery,) to be paid by him, upon the Conviction of One or more of the Offenders.
