AT the Court at Kenfington, the 12th Day | Chasseurs had drove Part of the Army of the of September, 1759,

PRESENT,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IS Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to a point Jeffery Amherst, Esq; to be Captain General and Governor in Chief of His Majesty's Colony of Virginia.

Hague, Sept. Q. We have received certain Advices from Prince Ferdinand's Army, That his Serene Highness had at last obliged the French to abandon their strong Camp in the Neighbourhood of Marbourg, which they did on the Morning of the 4th, seeming to take the Route of Giessen; and on the 5th the Troops of the Allied Army took Possession of the Town, a French Garrison still remaining in the Castle, which has not yet surrendered. The Prince of Bevern however, who is posted on some Heights which Command the Castle, was preparing to raise some Batteries, in order to force them to a Surrender.

It appears that General Imhoff opened the Trenches before Munster on the 29th past; and his Batteries having been all ready on the 2d Instant, that he began to cannonade and bombard the Town on the 3d, by Day-break; but, the next Day, having received certain Intelligence that M. d'Armentieres was advancing with Ten Battalions, detached from before Lipstadt, and also with some Regiments of Militia drawn from the Garrisons of Cologne, Dusleldorp, and Wesel, General Imhoff did not think it adviseable, with the small Force he had, to continue the Siege: It was accordingly raifed on the 6th Instant, in the Morning; and General Imhoff retired, with his Corps, between Nobifbruck and Tellight.

Hague, Sept. 11. No direct News has been received from Prince Ferdinand's Army fince the 5th Instant; but private Accounts say, that his Serene Highness was marched with his Army towards Giessen, and that it was not expected the French would make a Stand at that Place. By authentick Letters of the 4th Instant from Berlin, we are informed, the King of Prussia marched the 2d Instant to Waldo between Luben and Mulhrose, at which last Place the Rusfians had a confiderable Detachment which was dislodged, and several Hundreds taken Prison-Prince Henry was at Spremberg; and Marshal Daun's Army at Forst and Pforten. It was thought there would be another Battle: The Prussians seem full of Hopes; and their two Armies are abundantly supplied with Provisions.

We likewise hear from Brunswick of the 7th Inflant, That a Detachment of 216 Hanoverian

Empire from Rosla near Sondershausen, as far as Langensaltza, and taken many Officers Prifoners.

Whitehall, September 15.
