And whereas by the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, the Orders and Regulations made thereunder and the Irish Free State (Consequential Provisions) Act, 1922, references to the Lord Lieutenant in their application to Northern Ireland are to be construed as references to the Governor of Northern Ireland, and references to the Treasury in their application to Northern Ireland are to be construed as references to the Ministry of Finance for Northern Ireland:

Now we, the Lords Justices of Northern Ireland, in pursuance of the powers conferred on Us by the said Act and all other powers Us thereunto enabling with the concurrence of the Ministry of Finance for Northern Ireland, do hereby order and prescribe that the following rates and scales of salaries and allowances shall be paid to Resident Magistrates, instead of the rates and scales hitherto prescribed and in force:—

(1) A scale of salary, rising from £550 a year by annual increments of £20 to £690 a year, and then by annual increments of £25 to £900 a year, with effect as from the first day of April, 1923.

(2) An allowance of £100 a year in respect of travelling expenses for journeys undertaken on official duty, within a distance of 10 miles from Headquarters.

(3) Subsistence allowance at the rates sanctioned for Civil Servants on a similar scale of salary.

(4) An allowance of £8 a year for postage, stationery and incidental expenses.

Provided that a Resident Magistrate who has been transferred from the Government of the United Kingdom to the Government of Northern Ireland under the provisions of the Constabulary (Ireland) Act, 1922, or who has been appointed by the Government of Northern Ireland, after having previously served as a Resident Magistrate under the Government of the United Kingdom, shall be entitled as from the 1st April, 1923, or from the date of appointment, if later, to payment of salary at the rate which would have been payable to him if the above scale had been in operation from the time of his permanent appointment by the Government of the United Kingdom.

This Order shall have effect as from 1st April, 1923, and the Order of the Lord Lieutenant, dated 10th day of December, 1920, is hereby revoked.
