

FISHERIES—NORTHERN IRELAND.

26 and 27 Vic., c. 114; 32 and 33 Vic., c. 92; and the Acts incorporated therewith; 62 and 63 Vic., c. 50; 10 and 11 Geo. V., c. 67, and the Provisional Government (Council of Ireland) Order, 1922.

No. 151, or LONDONDERRY DISTRICT.

Tidal and Freshwater Definition of the River Roe, Co. Londonderry.

I, The Right Honourable William Clive Bridgeman, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by virtue and in exercise of the powers and authorities vested in me by the above-recited Acts, and of every other power enabling me in this behalf, have defined and determined, and do hereby define and determine and mark out the boundary between the tidal and freshwater portions of the River Roe in the No. 151, or Londonderry District to be a straight line drawn from the townland of Bellarena in the Parish of Magilligan to the townland of Ballyhenry East, in the Parish of Aghanloo (both in the Barony of Keenaght) along the down stream extremities of the piers of the road bridge known as Roe Bridge.

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this eleventh day of December, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Twenty-three.

(Signed) W. C. BRIDGEMAN,
One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Home Office,
Whitehall, London.

NOTE.—The 24th Section of the 26th and 27th Vic., cap. 114, provides that it shall not be lawful for any person to use any Net, except a Landing Net, for the capture of Salmon or Trout in the Freshwater portion of any River, as defined, between the hours of 8 o'clock in the evening and 6 o'clock in the morning, except so far as the same may have heretofore been used within the limits of a several fishery next above the tidal flow, and held under Grant or Charter, or by immemorial usage; and every person offending against the provision of this Section is subject to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds, and to the forfeiture of all Boats, Nets and Gear, used in such illegal fishing.

ORDER.

CIVIL AUTHORITIES (SPECIAL POWERS) ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1922.

WHEREAS by an Order made by me on the 6th day of April, 1923, all persons within the area of Northern Ireland were ordered and required to remain within doors between the hours of 12 o'clock midnight and 5 o'clock a.m., unless provided with a permit in writing from an Officer of the Royal Ulster Constabulary as therein specified, and the said Order is still in force:

Now I, The Right Honourable Sir Richard Dawson Bates, Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland, being the Civil Authority under the Civil Authorities (Special Powers) Act (Northern Ireland), 1922, by virtue of the powers vested in me by the said Act and the Regulations made thereunder, and of all other powers enabling me in this behalf, do hereby vary the said Order in so far that on the 25th, 26th, and 27th days of December, 1923, and on the 1st day of January, 1924, the hours during which all persons are required to remain within doors unless provided with a permit in writing as aforesaid shall be the hours between 2 o'clock a.m. and 5 o'clock a.m.;

AND all other provisions of the said Order of the 6th day of April, 1923, shall remain in force during the days specified in this Order;

AND on the 28th, 29th, 30th and 31st days of December, 1923, and from midnight following the 1st day of January, 1924, the hours during which all persons are required to remain within doors unless provided with a permit in writing as aforesaid shall be the hours between 12 o'clock midnight and 5 o'clock, a.m.

Given under my hand at Belfast this 20th day of December, 1923.

(Signed) R. DAWSON BATES,
Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland,
Civil Authority.

COLLECTIONS IN STREETS OR PUBLIC PLACES.

REGULATIONS MADE PURSUANT TO 6 AND 7 GEO. V., Ch. 31, SECTION 5.

WHEREAS in pursuance of the powers vested in the Inspector-General of the Royal Irish Constabulary by an Act passed in the 6th and 7th years of the reign of His Majesty George V., Chapter 31, Regulations may be made with respect to the places where, and the conditions under which, persons may be permitted in any street or public place in Ireland outside the Dublin Metropolitan Police District to collect money or sell articles for the benefit of charitable or other purposes:

And whereas Regulations as aforesaid were made by the Inspector-General of the Royal Irish Constabulary on the 27th day of June, 1918, and approved by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant:

And whereas said Regulations were applied to Northern Ireland by the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, and Orders made thereunder:

And whereas the powers exercised by the Inspector-General of the Royal Irish Constabulary are now by virtue of the provisions of the Constabulary Act (Northern Ireland), 1922, exercisable in Northern Ireland by the Inspector-General of the Royal Ulster Constabulary:

And whereas it is expedient that said Regulations should be amended as regards Northern Ireland:

Now I, Lieutenant-Colonel Sir Charles G. Wickham, D.S.O., being the Inspector-General of the Royal Ulster Constabulary, by virtue of the powers vested in me by the Acts and Orders aforesaid, do hereby cancel the Regulations made on the 27th day of June, 1918, and make the following Regulations in substitution therefor:—

1. No collection of money (other than a collection taken at an open-air religious meeting) or sale of any article for the benefit of charitable or other purposes shall be made
