22. £200 to the Reverend Mother Superioress for the time being of The Good Shepherd Convent, Ormeau Road, Belfast, for the general charitable purposes of the Order.

Deceased directed his executors and trustees to retain certain securities for a Public Trust to be called The Meeley Family Foreign Missions Benevolent and Educational Trust. For the purpose of carrying out the said Trust he directed his executors and trustees to appoint as Trustees of the said Trust the Parish Priest for the time being of Drumcree, Portadown, Co. Armagh (who shall have the right to appoint five Catholic laymen of the said Parish as co-trustees) and the Parish Priest for the time being of Loughgall, Co. Armagh (who shall have the right to appoint three Catholic laymen of the said Parish as co-trustees). After certain provisions for accumulation of income and certain deductions for expenses the net annual income of the Trust Funds is to be paid each year by the executors and trustees to the Trustees of the Meeley Family Foreign Missions, Benevolent and Educational Trust, and is to be applied by them as follows:—

(a) To pay to the Parish Priests for the time being of Drumcree, Portadown, and Loughgall, Co. Armagh, £6 per annum for the purpose of saying one Mass per month each, and to pay to the two Curates for the time being of Drumcree, Portadown, £3 per annum each for the purpose of saying bi-monthly Masses each.

(b) To pay ten per cent. of the net income (but not exceeding £30 per annum) to the Parish Priests for the time being of the Parishes of Drumcree, Portadown, and Loughgall, Co. Armagh (in such proportions as the trustees think fit), to be expended by them for the benefit of the aged or infirm poor of said Parishes.

(c) To pay twenty-five per cent. of the net income (but not exceeding £100 per annum) to any Catholic Institute or Home which provides for the care of the aged or infirm poor, cripples, blind persons or orphans in Ireland, at the discretion of the said trustees. In the event of the percentage herein exceeding the maximum mentioned, the excess is to be used to assist educational work, especially in the Irish language, in such manner as the said trustees shall think fit, and in the event of the trustees establishing a Scholarship, same is to be called The Meeley Family Scholarship.

(d) All the remainder of the said annual income to be expended by the said trustees in assisting the Irish Catholic Foreign Missions in such manner as they shall think fit, provided that a donation is to be paid to the Mission to Sierra Leone, West Africa, and the money to be spent in Ireland for the purposes of the said Mission.

Deceased directed his executors and trustees, after the period of 21 years from his death, to purchase or set aside sufficient securities to bring in an income of approximately £60 per annum and to pay same to the Trustees of the Meeley Family Foreign Missions, Benevolent and Educational Trust. The Trustees of the said Trust shall use the income for the purpose of establishing two perpetual scholarships, to be called the Meeley Family Scholarships. One of the said scholarships shall be available to the pupils of the Roman Catholic Boys' Public Elementary School, Carlton Street, Drumcree, Portadown, and the other scholarship shall be available to the pupils of the Roman Catholic Boys' National School, Athleague, Co. Roscommon. The scholarships shall be used for the purpose of assisting pupils of the said schools to continue their education at any Catholic Secondary School in Ireland.

Deceased also directed his executors and trustees to expend such sum as they in their absolute discretion shall think fit in erecting a headstone and kerb round his family grave at Drumcree, Portadown.

The residue of the estate was given to the said trustees to be paid by them to such Irish Catholic Foreign Missions as they shall select, to be used by such Missions in Ireland.

Probate of the said Will and five Codicils was granted forth of the Principal Registry at Belfast of the High Court of Justice in Northern Ireland, King's Bench Division (Probate), on the 20th day of May, 1947; to Northern Bank Limited, of Victoria Street, Belfast; James J. Napier, of 19 Chichester Street, Belfast, Solicitor; and Peter McEvoy, Junior, of 20 Queen Street, Portadown, Co. Armagh, Merchant, the surviving executors and trustees therein named.

Dated the 10th day of June, 1947.
