COMPENSATION FOR ENEMY ACTION. FINAL DATE FOR BELATED CLAIMS.

The Board of Trade announce that, as was stated in the House of Commons on the 18th March, the Government propose to ask Parliament to authorise payment of an amount not exceeding £300,000 for the purpose of distributing a solatium to claimants who have not received any payment from the £5,000,000 fund distributed by the Royal Commission on Compensation for Suffering and Damage by Enemy Action, on account of delay in notifying claims or furnishing the necessary particulars.

Attention is particularly directed to the fact that all claims not already lodged must be received by the 1st June, 1924, at the Reparation Claims Department, Cornwall House, Stamford Street, London, S.E.1, and no claim not received by that date will be considered.
