AND WHEREAS James McMullan, the Commissioner of Valuation and Boundary Surveyor for Northern Ireland empowered in that behalf by virtue of the said Acts as they apply in Northern Ireland (in this Order referred to as "the Boundary Surveyor") did find that such changes and alterations had taken place and such other facts and events had happened as to require that alterations should be made in pursuance of the said Acts in the boundaries in certain places of several townlands and other divisions or denominations of land in the County of Londonderry, as marked out, laid down or described on the Ordnance maps of the said County:

AND WHEREAS the Boundary Surveyor did ascertain, define and mark out the present acknowledged or reputed boundaries of every such townland and other division or denomination of land, or of such portion or portions thereof as the Boundary Surveyor did deem it necessary to ascertain, define and mark out:

Boundary Survey (Ireland) Act, 1854, by persons dissatisfied with or having objection to any boundary line or part thereof as marked out by the Boundary Surveyor as aforesaid:

AND WHEREAS it is not proposed to make any such alteration of boundaries as would require to be submitted to the Council of any county under the provisions of section ten of the Boundary Survey (Ireland) Act, 1854:

AND WHEREAS, in pursuance of the said Acts of 1854, 1857 and 1859, as they apply in Northern Ireland, the Boundary Surveyor has prepared and made out a report in detail of the proposed alterations in the said boundaries, with the grounds for making such alterations, accompanied by plans showing in detail the original boundaries as laid down on the Ordnance plans and those which it is proposed to substitute for them, and has submitted the same to the Governor and Privy Council of Northern Ireland, and the said report and plans have been deposited and are on record in the office of the said Council:
