Ministry of Finance, Belfast, 30th September, 1957.

D. A. E. HARKNESS, Secretary.

* NOTE—The Residuary Share of Reserved Taxes is the net receipt of Reserved Revenue after deduction of the following:—(a) the estimated cost of Reserved Services; (b) the Northern Ireland Contribution towards Imperial Expenditure; and (c) New Land Purchase Annuities (Imperial). It is paid over by the United Kingdom Treasury in instalments based on an estimate for the financial year and an adjustment is made when the true Residuary Share has been finally ascertained.

The Civil Service Commissioners for Northern Ireland give notice of an Open Competition for the situations of Clerical Assistant, Typists Grades B and C and Calculating Machine Operator to be held under the Regulations published in the Belfast Gazette on the 3rd June, 1949, and amended on the 15th August, 1952, and now further amended as follows:—

9. GENERAL

No expenses in connection with attendance at any part of the Competition will be allowed.

No person who is undergoing a course of study with the aid of a grant from public funds shall be eligible to compete before the completion of the course, unless she has previously obtained permission to do so from the authority which administers the grant.

Candidates must apply on the appropriate form within the time and in the manner of which notice is given by the Commissioners.

A Candidate may apply to compete for more than one post at the same examination. Every candidate must state on her application form for which post or posts she desires to compete, and if she is competing for more than one must express her preference between them.

In offering an appointment to a candidate who is successful in the competition for two or more situations, the Commissioners will be guided by the candidate's order of preference as expressed in her application form; but such a candidate once appointed to a particular situation in accordance with this Regulation, will have no claim to any other, nor will a candidate who declines to accept an appointment offered to her have any claim to further consideration.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment.

10. Now incorporated in Regulation 9.

The written examination will begin on the 17th December, 1957.

No person will be admitted to the Competition who has not submitted to the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission, on or before the 4th November, 1957, an application on the prescribed form which may be obtained from the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission, Stormont, Belfast.

The Civil Service Commissioners for Northern Ireland give notice of an Open Competition for the situation of Clerk to be held under the Regulations published in the Belfast Gazette on the 18th April, 1947, and amended on the 7th November, 1952, and on the 6th November, 1953, and now further amended as follows:—

5. EXAMINATION

The competition consists of:—

PART I—Compulsory Subjects

	Marks
1. English Language	200
2. Arithmetic	100
3. General Knowledge	100

PART II—Five of the following subjects:—

4. English Literature	100
5. One of the following languages: Latin, Greek, French, Spanish, German	100
6. A second language (not offered under 5)	100
7. Ancient History	100
8. Modern History	100
9. Geography	100
10. Traditional Mathematics or Altern- ative Mathematics	100
11. Physics	100
12. Chemistry	100
13. Biology	100
14. Book-keeping and Business Economics	100
PART III—Interview	200

Those candidates who, from the statements in their application forms, appear to be eligible will be invited to the written examination. Of the candidates who obtain the highest total marks in the written examination a certain number, to be determined by the Commissioners, will be summoned to the interview which is intended to test the candidate's alertness, intelligence and general outlook, as well as other personal qualities of value for situations in the Civil Service.

The order of merit of the candidates will be determined by combining the marks for written examination and interview.

The number of appointments to be made will be determined by the Commissioners and the Ministry of Finance.

Each candidate will be examined at such time and place as the Commissioners may determine.

9. GENERAL

No expenses in connection with attendance at any part of the competition will be allowed.

No person who is undergoing a course of study with the aid of a grant from public funds shall be eligible to compete before the completion of the course, unless he or she has previously obtained permission to do so from the authority which administers the grant.

Candidates must apply on the appropriate form within the time and in the manner of which notice is given by the Commissioners.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment.

10. Now incorporated in Regulation 9.

The written examination will begin on the 7th January, 1958.

No person will be admitted to the Competition who has not submitted to the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission, on or before the 25th November, 1957, an application on the prescribed form which may be obtained from the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission, Stormont, Belfast.

GOVERNMENT OF NORTHERN IRELAND

MINISTRY OF COMMERCE

ROADS ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1948

NOTICE is hereby given that the Ministry of Commerce by virtue of the powers conferred upon it under Section 17 of the Roads Act (Northern Ireland), 1948, has made an Order dated 17th September, 1957, entitled "The Abandonment of Roads (County Armagh) (No. 2) Order, 1957." (S.R. & O. (N.I.), 1957 No. 195).

The Order authorises the abandonment by the Armagh County Council of six lengths totalling approximately 1,080 lineal yards of classified road No. C.165, the Greenisland Road, in the townlands of Derrinraw and Derrylard. These portions of public road are no longer required for road traffic as a result of road reconstruction works carried out by the Armagh County Council.

The Board of Trade give notice that the following Rules have been made:

The Register of Patent Agents, (Amendment) Rules, 1957 (S.I. 1957 No. 1657). Dated September 19, 1957. Price 3d., by post 5d.

The above can be obtained from Her Majesty's Stationery Office, 80 Chichester Street, Belfast, or from any bookseller.

The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have been pleased to appoint Mr. J. H. James, C.B., an Under Secretary in the Admiralty to the office of Deputy Master and Comptroller of the Royal Mint and ex-officio Engraver of Her Majesty's Seals, in succession to Sir Lionel Thompson, C.B.E., with effect from 1st September, 1957.
