THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS FOR NORTHERN IRELAND. RURAL DISTRICT OF LARNE.

To the Council of the Administrative County of Antrim;

To the Council of the Rural District of Larne;

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Larne Union;

And to all others whom it may concern:

WHEREAS the Ministry of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland, by an Order under Seal bearing date the 18th day of May, 1923, divided the Rural District of Larne, situate in the administrative County of Antrim, into seventeen district electoral divisions, three of which are named respectively the Whitehead District Electoral Division (hereinafter referred to as the original Whitehead Division), the Island Magee South District Electoral Division (hereinafter referred to as the original Island Magee South Division), and the Templecorran District Electoral Division (hereinafter referred to as the original Templecorran Division).

And whereas, pursuant to the provisions of the Towns Improvement (Ireland) Act, 1854, the said Ministry of Home Affairs, by an Order under Seal, bearing date the 24th day of March, 1925, constituted portions of the Townlands of Whitehead in the original Whitehead Division, and Castletown (Parish of Island Magee) in the original Island Magee South Division, as the Town of Whitehead:

And whereas it is expedient that the area included within the boundary of the Town of Whitehead should form a separate district electoral division, and that the original Whitehead Division, the original Island Magee South Division and the original Templecorran Division should be altered in manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, the Ministry of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland, in exercise of the powers vested in it by the Poor Relief (Ireland) Acts, 1838 to 1914, the Local Government Acts (Northern Ireland), 1898 to 1924, and by all other powers in that behalf enabling the Ministry hereby orders and directs that the said original Whitehead Division, the said original Island Magee South Division and the said original Templecorran Division shall be altered as follows:—
