FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1925.

WHEREAS it is provided by Section 2 (3) of the Former Enemy Aliens (Disabilities Removal) Act, 1925, that this Act shall come into operation on such date as may be certified by a Secretary of State, by notice published in the London, Edinburgh and Belfast Gazettes, to be the date on which ratifications of the Treaty of Commerce and Navigation between His Majesty and the President of the German Reich, signed at London December 2nd, 1924, are exchanged

AND WHEREAS ratifications of the said Treaty were exchanged at London on the eighth day of September, 1925,

NOW THEREFORE I, Frederick Edwin Smith, Earl of Birkenhead, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for India, hereby certify that the said Former Enemy Aliens (Disabilities Removal) Act came into operation on the eighth day of September, 1925, (Sgd.) BIRKENHEAD.

BY THE GOVERNOR OF NORTHERN IRELAND.

ABERCORN.

WHEREAS by Section 17 of the Criminal Justice Administration Act, 1914, as modified by Section 43 of the said Act, it is amongst other things provided that the Lord Lieutenant may from time to time by any general or special rule under the Prisons (Ireland) Acts, 1826 to 1907, appropriate either wholly or partially, particular prisons within his jurisdiction to particular classes of prisoners, and that a prisoner sentenced to imprisonment or committed to prison on remand or pending trial or otherwise may be lawfully confined in any prison to which the Prisons (Ireland) Acts, 1826 to 1907, apply, and it is thereby further provided that prisoners shall be committed to such prisons as the Lord Lieutenant may from time to time direct, and may on the like direction be removed therefrom during the term of their imprisonment to any other prison :

And whereas various rules and orders have from time to time been made with respect to the committal of prisoners :

And whereas by the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, the Orders made thereunder, and the Irish Free State (Consequential Provisions) Act, 1922, the aforesaid powers of the Lord Lieutenant are now exercisable in Northern Ireland by the Governor of Northern Ireland :

And whereas it is desirable to amend and consolidate the various rules and orders so made :

Now I, the Governor of Northern Ireland, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by the said Acts, and of every other power enabling me in this behalf, do hereby order and direct that from and after the 30th day of September, 1925, the various rules and orders set forth in the 4th Schedule hereto with respect to the committal of prisoners to Prisons in Northern Ireland shall be, and the same are hereby revoked, and that from and after the 30th day of September, 1925, prisoners shall be committed as follows, namely :—

Male persons committed for trial at, or committed from, Assizes, Commissions, and Quarter Sessions, held in and for the counties and county boroughs named in the First Schedule attached hereto shall be committed to the prisons named in the said First Schedule opposite the names of such counties and county boroughs, respectively, as therein set forth.

Male persons remanded or sentenced to imprisonment, by a magistrate or magistrates, at Petty Sessions or otherwise, from the counties and county boroughs mentioned in the Second Schedule attached hereto shall be committed to the prisons named in the said Second Schedule opposite the names of such counties and county boroughs, respectively, as therein set forth.

Male persons who may lawfully be committed to an ordinary prison in Northern Ireland, and who are committed otherwise than as described in the foregoing paragraphs and in the First and Second Schedules referred to therein, shall be committed to the prisons named in the Third Schedule attached hereto, as therein set forth.

All female persons committed for trial or committed, remanded, or sentenced to imprisonment or otherwise committed, as in any of the three last foregoing paragraphs mentioned, shall be committed to Armagh Prison.

Provided that where the arrest of a person for whose committal to prison a warrant has been issued takes place in any other county than that in which the warrant has been issued, such person may be committed to any one of the prisons to which he might have been committed if the warrant had been issued in the district where the arrest takes place, even though this prison may not be the prison named in the warrant :

And I do hereby further order and direct that in cases where, owing to distance or the absence of facilities for conveyance, a prisoner cannot be directly conveyed to one or other of the prisons to which it is directed in this order that he be committed, the Court in any such case may, by an order endorsed on the warrant of committal, commit such prisoner in the first instance to the most convenient ordinary prison, with a direction that he be transmitted from it to the prison named in the body of the warrant of committal.

And I do hereby further order and direct that in the event of the formation of a new Petty Sessions District the various classes of prisoners committed therefrom may be committed to any of the prisons to which the same classes of prisoners may be committed respectively from the petty Sessions Districts from which the new district is formed.

This Order shall not affect the validity of any act done under the Orders which are hereby revoked prior to the date of this Order.

Given at Belfast this 27th day of August, 1925.

By His Grace's Command.

R. DAWSON BATES.
