And whereas, W. K. Laughlin, B.Sc., A.M.I.C.E., Senior Engineer of the Ministry of Finance for Northern Ireland, prepared on behalf of the Ministry a report dated 29th March, 1965, embodying a drainage scheme (hereinafter referred to as "the Scheme") in accordance with the provisions of Section 6 (1) of the Act for the execution of drainage works on the said watercourse.

to minor drainage schemes by Section 6 (2) of the Act and also to the Dungannon Rural District Council and a notice stating that the Scheme had been prepared was duly published in the Belfast Gazette on the 9th April, 1965, and in two newspapers during the week ended 10th April, 1965, in accordance with the provisions of Section 5 (1) (b) of the Drainage Act (Northern Ireland) 1947.

And whereas, the Tyrone County Council caused copies of the Scheme to be exhibited in their principal offices and at the offices of the Dungannon Rural District Council during the period from 12th April, 1965, to 12th May, 1965, inclusive, in accordance with the provisions of Section 5 (2) (a) of the Drainage Act (Northern Ireland) 1947.

And whereas, the only authority charged with the maintenance of any road, bridge or culvert which appears as likely to be affected by the execution of the Scheme is the Tyrone County Council.

And whereas, no observations in regard to the Scheme have been received by the Ministry from the Tyrone County Council or from any other person.

Now therefore, the Ministry in pursuance of the provisions of Section 6 (c) of the Drainage Act (Northern Ireland) 1947 as extended by Section 6 (2) of the Act by this Order confirms the Scheme.

PERFORMING RIGHT TRIBUNAL

THE APPLICATION OF ISLE OF MAN BROADCASTING COMPANY LIMITED

Short Particulars of Decision

The Performing Right Tribunal publish the following short particulars of the decision in relation to the application of Isle of Man Broadcasting Company Limited ("Manx Radio" for short) for a licence in a case not covered by a licence scheme, in which it is alleged that the charges, terms or conditions subject to which the licensing body (Phonographic Performance Limited, to be called "The P.P.L." hereafter) propose that the licence should be granted are unreasonable. Manx Radio further seeks an order declaring that it is entitled to a licence on such terms and conditions and subject to such charges as the Tribunal may determine to be reasonable in the circumstances.

The terms proposed by the P.P.L. are as follows, that is to say:

- (1) That Manx Radio should be granted a licence for a term of one year from the 8th June, 1964 (the date on which it in fact began to broadcast) on condition that the time devoted to the broadcasting of copyright records in the repertoire of Phonographic (known as, and hereinafter called, "needle time") should not exceed one fifth of the total broadcasting time used by its station.
- (2) That no record subject to the licence should be broadcast more than twice in each period of 24 hours nor more than ten times in each week.
- (3) That the charges for a block licence to broadcast any record in the repertoire of Phonographic on the above terms should be at the rate of 5% of 85% of the gross advertising revenue of Manx Radio.

During the course of the hearing, the P.P.L. offered to extend the proposed period of the licence to correspond with the length of a licence to be granted to Manx Radio by the Postmaster General, i.e. to expire provisionally on the 12th July, 1968, at the same time increasing the rate to 8% of 85%.

At the conclusion of the hearing, Manx Radio offered to pay the P.P.L. charges at the rate of 14% of their net advertising revenue after deducting advertising agents' commission (if any) not exceeding 15% for the period 4th June, 1964, to 11th July, 1965, and for each subsequent year expiring the 11th July, such charges to be subject to the rebates specified in an agreement made between Manx Radio and The Performing Right Society.

The British Broadcasting Corporation and the Musicians' Union each intervened in the Application as "interested parties." The former supported the proposals of the P.P.L., in particular on the ground that it would be unreasonable for Manx Radio to be accorded more needle time than that which the Corporation itself enjoyed, and on the further ground that a commercial broadcasting station might lower the standard of the programme which the Corporation was bound to maintain. The Musicians' Union was opposed on principle to any extension of broadcasting on records as damaging to the livelihood and ultimately to the existence of a sound musical profession.

The Tribunal came to the conclusion, notwithstanding the various objections raised to the application, that the terms and conditions proposed by the P.P.L. were in part unreasonable, and made an Order declaring that Manx Radio is entitled to a licence on the following terms and conditions and subject to the following charges which the Tribunal determined to be reasonable in the circumstances, that is to say:

- (1) Manx Radio shall be entitled to broadcast on copyright gramophone records in the repertoire of Phonographic during one half of their total weekly broadcasting time, subject to a maximum period of 42 hours in any single week.

- (2) No such record shall be played more than twice in each period of 24 hours nor more than ten times in any week.

- (3) The following charges shall be payable to Phonographic:

- (a) Up to the 12th July, 1965, in view of the trivial amount involved, the Tribunal do not propose to disturb the charge of 5% of 85% on gross advertising revenue, as offered by Phonographic.
- (b) Year ending 12th July, 1966, 6% of 85% on gross advertising revenue.
- (c) Year ending 12th July, 1967, 7% of 85% on the like.
- (d) Year ending 12th July, 1968, 8% of 85% on the like.

- (4) The above terms and conditions and charges shall remain in force as is herein set out until the 12th July, 1968, after which no further broadcasting by Manx Radio on copyright records in the repertoire of Phonographic will be lawful other than by agreement with Phonographic or a further order of the Tribunal.

The P.P.L. were ordered to pay to Manx Radio three-fifths of their general costs of the Application and the B.B.C. was ordered to pay to Manx Radio one-fifth of their general costs.

A copy of the Decision may be inspected at the offices of the Tribunal, 24 Kingsway (6th Floor), London, W.C. 2, during office hours (10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Mondays to Fridays).
