NORTHERN IRELAND OFFICE

Notice is hereby given that the Secretary of State, in pursuance of section 146 of the County Courts Act (Northern Ireland) 1959, on the recommendation of the County Court Rules Committee and after consultation with the Lord Chief Justice, has made a Statutory Rule entitled the County Court (Costs in Affiliation and Separation and Maintenance Appeals) (Amendment) Rules (Northern Ireland) 1974 (S.R. 1974, No. 110) which comes into operation on 1st August 1974.

These Rules increase from £21 to £30, the maximum figure for costs recoverable in respect of a solicitor's remuneration and outlay or for counsel's fee, respectively, to the County Court by a successful party from an unsuccessful party in an appeal from the order of a court of summary jurisdiction in affiliation or separation and maintenance proceedings.

Copies of the Rules may be purchased from the Government Bookshop, 80 Chichester Street, Belfast BT1 4JY.

Notice is hereby given that the Secretary of State in pursuance of section 23 of the Magistrates' Courts Act (Northern Ireland) 1964, on the recommendation of the Magistrates' Courts Rules Committee and after consultation with the Lord Chief Justice, has made a Statutory Rule entitled the Magistrates' Courts (Amendment) (No. 2) Rules (Northern Ireland) 1974 (S.R. 1974, No. 112), which will come into operation on 1st August, 1974.

These Rules amend the Magistrates' Court Rules (Northern Ireland) 1965 to provide for service of a copy of a maintenance or affiliation order and other orders for periodical payment on the defendant.

The Rules are also amended to require that, where on appeal by way of Case stated the Court of Appeal makes a direction for the continuance of a hearing by a Magistrates' Court, the parties shall be notified of the direction.

The Forms in Schedule 1 to those Rules are also amended by adding new Forms in relation to an offence committed during the operational period of a suspended sentence of imprisonment imposed by the County Court on appeal from a Magistrates' Court.

A new Form is substituted for the form of warrant to enforce an order by a County Court made on Appeal and by the Court of Appeal by way of Case stated.

Copies of the Rule may be purchased from the Government Bookshop, 80 Chichester Street, Belfast BT1 4JY.
