

Commissioners of Customs and Excise hereby give you notice that by virtue of the powers contained in the customs and excise Acts and enactments amending those Acts, certain goods, namely:

1. 50 x 25 kilo drums of furazolidone imported into Northern Ireland at Jonesborough on the 23rd day of October, 1973 (by a person unknown);
2. A Ford Transit van Registration No. EIJ 1320 in which the said goods were being carried at the time of the said importation; have been seized as liable to forfeiture upon the grounds that:

1. The said goods, being chargeable with a duty of Customs, were, without payment of that duty, brought across the boundary into Northern Ireland otherwise than by or under the Customs and Excise Act 1952.
2. The said goods were imported into Northern Ireland by land otherwise than by such approved route and in such manner as are prescribed by Regulations 1, 3, 4, 5 and 10 of the Customs (Land Boundary) Regulations 1953 and 1965.

3. The said goods on importation into Northern Ireland by land were removed otherwise than by such approved route and in such manner as are prescribed by Regulations 1, 3, 4, 5 and 10 of the Customs (Land Boundary) Regulations 1953 and 1965.

4. The said vehicle was used for carriage of the said goods which were liable to seizure.

Whereby and by force of sections 44, 18, 33 and 277 of the Customs & Excise Act 1952 the said goods are liable to forfeiture.

If you claim that the said goods are not liable to forfeiture you must within one month from the date of this notice of seizure give notice of your claim in accordance with the said Schedule to the said Act. In default of such notice the said goods will be deemed to have been duly condemned as forfeited and will be liable to be disposed of in such manner as the Commissioners of Customs and Excise may direct. If you make such claim within the time aforesaid, legal proceedings will be taken for the condemnation thereof.
